BRITAIN SHOWS ALARM OVER DANGER OF WAR.

Withdrawal of Austrian Warship From Constantinople an Evil Omen.

Menacing Notes Sounded by the English Press, While the Liberal Editors, Mindful of Treaties and Alliances, Try to Hold Mars in Check—Armies of the Czar and Franz Josef Are Being Mobilized Rapidly.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The danger of a greater war than that between the Balkan states and Turkey absorbs public interest far more than the first bout of diplomacy between the belligerents.

The steps towards mobilization which Austria and Russia are taking, though only preliminary precautions, have made possible a vision of vast consequences which as far as Great Britain is concerned, are centered nothing less than appalling.

Apparently the British public has no desire to sacrifice lives and money, paralyze commerce and risk a navy over the settlement of the affairs of the Balkan peninsula. Yet it is uneasy because ignorant of how far Great Britain's diplomatic engagements with France and Russia bind in the direction of an alliance, and of how much likelihood there is that the government will be drawn into a conflict in which one or more of its partners in the entente may be engaged.

URGE NEUTRALITY.

The Liberal press is unanimous in urging Great Britain to preserve neutrality. The majority of the Conservative demand the same policy. The Times, declaring that none of the European peoples want war, says that is whither the nations are drifting."

"If so," it asks, "why, then, makes war?"

The answer is to be found in the chancelleries of Europe, among the statesmen who too long have played with human lives as pawns in a game of power, and who have become so enamored of formulas and the jargon of diplomacy that they have ceased to be conscious of the poignant reality with which they trifle."

The Pall Mall Gazette almost alone speaks in a warlike voice. It declares:

"England ought to act firmly with France and Russia in refusing simply to be swept aside. If the conference desired by the British government is refused, we ought to face the alternative and stand by our friends."

The mobilization of the Austrian and Russian armies requires weeks for what Germany and France can accomplish in days. In Russia's case this is because of the great distances the troops must travel; in Austria's because the units of the army are on a peace footing, which is only one-third of war strength. Therefore considerations of safety compel them to begin when the danger signals are remote.

are playing a peacemaking role.

England, France and Germany are playing a peace making role. Their efforts are directed, apparently, toward keeping the powers together in a compact to refrain from taking up piecemeal the questions which the war raises, and to defer their consideration until the general conference.

A BAD SIGN.

The withdrawal of the Austrian warship at Constantinople to join the fleet is taken as an unfavorable sign, and the imminent Servian occupation of Durazzo, on the Adriatic Sea, tends further to bring Austria and Servia toward the breaking point.

On the other hand, the safe arrival at Ussub of Austrian Consul Prochaska, who it was feared had been killed, should lessen the tension, and the fact that the Austrian Ambassador lunched today with the Russian Emperor would seem to indicate that the relations between these two powers still are cordial.

Moll Pitcher of Balkan War.

Mlle. Sophie Javanovich,

Who is fighting side by side with the men in the Balkan War and will live in history as the Moll Pitcher of the Serbs. She wears male attire and eats at the officers' mess. Other women are reported to have taken a more active part than nursing in various conflicts, but she is the only woman attached to any company and regiment since the outbreak of the conflict. In the picture, Mlle. Javanovich sits second from the end, with officers of her regiment.

The Nation Whets Its Appetite to Make Dates With the Doctor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—President Taft's Thanksgiving will be spent quietly in Washington with only a huge turkey, an enormous mince pie, a wedding and two church services to break its monotony. The turkey from the farm of Horace Vose, near Westerly, R. I., is expected at the kitchens of the White House tomorrow. The big mince pie is coming from Miss Della Torrey of Millbury, Mass., the President's favorite aunt, whose skill in the construction of apple pies is famous throughout the country.

THE BIG FEATURE.

The big feature of Thanksgiving Day in Washington is the Pan-American service in St. Patrick's Church, an affair which draws scores of high government officials, diplomats from the countries of the world, and many of the capital's leaders of society.

This year the President and most of the members of his Cabinet, many Senators and Congressmen who are in town and scores of officials will attend the services to be held just before noon.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Dr. W. E. "The turkey is immature before Christmas," said Dr. Doolittle. "The proper flavor is not there until Christmas."

PANAMA STORM DAMAGE.

Injury to New Canal Docks—Six Hundred Feet of Isthmian Railroad Line Washed Out.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

COLON (Panama) Nov. 26.—The tail end of a West India hurricane, swept over the Isthmus of Panama yesterday just before the party of Secretary of War Stimson, including Miss Helen Taft, the President's daughter, set sail for home from here.

Thus far the main damage reported is to the new canal docks and to the Panama Railroad near Cristobal, at least 600 feet of track being washed out, temporarily tying up traffic. It is feared that more extensive damage and perhaps loss of life will be reported from the interior.

BY EDWARD B. CLARK.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Complete election returns have just been received in Washington from Russia. What interest has the United States in an election in the land of the Czar? It has a special interest just now, and the returns are not of a kind particularly to please the officials of the State Department nor the Senators who sit in the Committee on Foreign Relations.

During the life of the next Russian Duma, an attempt will be made to negotiate a new treaty between the United States and Russia, and therefore the temper of the Duma is a matter of a good deal of international importance.

THE RETURNS.

The returns show that the electoral college which is to elect the delegates to the Russian Duma, will be overwhelmingly reactionary in its tendencies. This means that the Russian government will have under its con-

Final figures on the California canvass give a slight lead to the leading Roosevelt elector over the leading Wilson elector, although a sweeping court decision may still change the announced result.

Robert Donaldson, a well-known steamship man of San Francisco, was found guilty yesterday of conspiracy to smuggle opium.

GENERAL EASTERN. Ettor, Caruso and Giovannitti, I.W.W. leaders, were found not guilty of murder by a Salem jury yesterday, in the trouble arising from Lawrence strike.

New York's four gun men were sentenced to die yesterday in the electric chair at Sing Sing during the week of January.

The suffrage convention at Philadelphia yesterday thanked President Taft for appointing a woman to head the newly created children's bureau. Miss Lathrop refused to appoint a committee of five to draft a new constitution for submission to the next convention.

WASHINGTON. Senator Bristow, and probably other Progressives with him, are opposed to the election of either the Republican or the Democratic candidate for the Presidency of the Senate, the Senate will hardly agree upon a permanent presiding officer upon convening next week.

FOREIGN. An exclusive London cable last night announced that $50,000 had been stolen from English mail bags in transit by steamer to Egypt.

Eleven men of the Russian Black Sea fleet were executed as mutineers at Sebastopol yesterday, and four hundred sailors are being transferred. Strikes have been called throughout Russia as a protest against the executions.

THE GREAT WAR. England yesterday began to show signs of alarm over the danger of a great European war, to result from the Balkan imbroglio.

Russia and Austria were reported last night to be mobilizing their armies.

The withdrawal of an Austrian warship from Constantinople was interpreted in a London A. P. cable received last night as an omen of ill.

The Russian Minister to Servia, after several hours' conversation with King Peter, yesterday declared to Serb journalists that they had better pack their trunks, this being taken as an intimation that Austria is about ready to cross the border to seize Belgrade.

SERB GIRL FEEDS CANNON AND FEEDS WITH TROOPS.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONASTIR, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is to be doubted whether King Peter himself, when he makes formal entry into Monastir, will receive greater acclaim than did Mlle. Sophie Javanovich, the Moll Pitcher of the Serb army. Right from the outbreak of hostilities she has been with her regiment, not merely as a Red Cross nurse, or as a suply camp attache, but as one of the active fighters who was at the front in the battle of Uskup and who shared in the heroism of the bloody four-days' fight that resulted in the capture of Monastir, after 40,000 Turks had bitten the dust, and 30,000 Serbs had given up their lives, making it one of the bloodiest battles of modern times.

Mlle. Javanovich, during a critical moment, when those serving the guns of the battery with which she was in the field, had been decimated, undertook the heavy work of helping to carry ammunition from the supply wagons to the cannon, paying no attention to the hail of bullets that raked the position.

When the troops entered Monastir she was hailed as a heroine and her deeds of courage are already being celebrated in sang and story. Bring Serb patriotism in city and on farm.

The girl is the daughter of well-to-do parents at Belgrade, has had a fine education and is still of tender years. When in battle she is dressed in male attire and eats at the officers' mess, sharing in the hardships of the winter campaign without a murmur.

Moral Treason.

SUPPRESSION OF NEWS BETRAYAL OF THE PUBLIC.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SOUTH BEND (Ind.) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Those myopic individuals who declare that if nothing was printed about crime, crime would cease, were scathingly arraigned this afternoon in an address delivered before the School of Journalism of Notre Dame University, by James Keeley of the Chicago Tribune.

The address was the first of a series to be delivered by American newspaper men during the school year.

KEELEY'S VIEWS.

In reference to the suppression of news, Mr. Keeley said:

"I have little sympathy with myopic individuals, who believe, or rather say, if nothing was printed about crime, crime would cease or decrease. They are wrong, absolutely wrong. Publicity is the greatest deterrent of crime, and many a man has been held from breaking the law, not because he dreaded the punishment the law would mete out to him, but because he feared the publicity that would result from his wrong-doing. The punishment of public opinion is often more potent and dreadful than that imposed by judge or jury.

"It is a difficult position in which to be placed, to know that broken hearts must follow the publication of a piece of news, but the editor's larger duty is to the community. A great nation cannot make war without making widows and orphans, and an editor cannot do his whole duty without causing tears to flow.

"I believe suppression of news is more of a wrong than the printing of a piece of news that possibly might better not have been written. By improper suppression a newspaper sells its soul and betrays its readers. To my mind it is the highest treason of journalism.

"Honesty of purpose and the determination to carry that purpose into effect is the backbone of a newspaper's reputation. The decent newspaper wants to print the truth. There is nothing to be gained by telling a lie. A lie is the business boomerang and a newspaper's reputation for reliability is its stock in trade. Its inaccuracy is the cardinal sin."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO (Cal. Nov. 26.—Appearing before the State Board of Control today as the representative of California's women's clubs, Mrs. C. M. Wayman, secretary of the San Francisco Children's Society, urged the board to recommend to the coming Legislature the grant of an appropriation of $200,000 for the purchase of 100 acres of land and the construction of buildings for the creation of a girls' reform school. It is the idea indorsed by practically every woman's organization in the State that a separate institution of this kind should be maintained for girls.

JURY ACQUITS I.W.W. LEADERS.

Ettor and Companions Freed of Murder Charge.

Thank Court and Jury for Fairness in Trial.

Are Granted Bail on Other Indictments.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALEM (Mass.) Nov. 26.—"Not guilty," was the verdict of the jury in the trial of Joseph J. Ettor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso, charged with the murder of Anna Lopizzo, who was killed in the Lawrence textil strike riot last winter.

When the three men had heard the words freeing them of the charge, they embraced and kissed each other. Giovannitti sprang to his feet.

"Gentlemen of the jury," he said, his face beaming with joy, "in the name of justice and truth and civilization, "I thank you."

As he sat down, the court interpreter, Alfred Sacco, arose for Caruso and said:

"Mr. Caruso desires me to say that he wants me to thank you all and, now that he is a free man, he says he was innocent of the crime."

ETTOR ADDRESSES JURY.

Ettor, the leader of the strike at Lawrence and chief center of interest in a case that has aroused world-wide attention, addressed the jury:

"May it please the court," he said, "I thank you not only for myself but in the names of my companions. I also feel impelled to thank the court for the fair manner in which this trial has been conducted. The thanks we offer are not only ours but thanks in the name of the working class."

The jury entered the courtroom at 8:20 o'clock. Immediately thereafter the prisoners, each wearing a red carnation, were brought to the cage in the center of the room. All were smiling. Judge Quinn ascended, the bench at 9:24, and asked if the jury had agreed upon a verdict.

"We have," said the foreman as he handed it to the court bailiff.

"Joseph Caruso, stand up," commanded Clerk George.

As Caruso obeyed, the clerk called: "Caruso, face the jury; Jurymen, look at the prisoner. Gentlemen of the jury, is Joseph Caruso guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty," was the unanimous reply.

Ettor and Giovannitti were likewise commanded to rise and again the jury thorused a verdict of "not guilty," for each.

When the jurors had left, the court announced to Caruso that there was another indictment against him charging him with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and that the court would release him on his own recognizance. The prisoner took an oath to appear in court when summoned and was released. His wife, who was waiting at the rail behind the prisoners' cage fell into his arms and a dozen of his malie companions rushed forward and kissed him.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT PENDING

Ettor and Giovannitti also were held on another indictment, charging them together with William D. Haywood of the International Workers of the World and others with conspiracy to incite riot in the Lawrence strike.

On this they were released on bonds of $500 each, which was furnished by Helen S. Dudley of Boston. The Lawrence strike leaders were then freed from the prisoners' cage and besieged by a crowd of men and women in the courtroom. For several minutes they were recipients of kisses from the men and congratulations from the women.

"I have no immediate plans," said Ettor. "but I am going as soon as potble to my home in Tacoma, Wash., where I have an invalid father. He was paralyzed since my arrest."

ITALIAN PRESS OPINION. PRAISES JUDGE QUINN.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

ROME, Nov. 26.—The majority of the Italian press, commenting on the trial at Salem, Mass., of Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopizzo, praises the impartiality of the summing up of Judge Quinn.

WHERE DOCTORS DISAGREE.

What One Expert Proposes Another Opposes at Conference of National Civic Federation.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Clash of opinions as to the best plans for compensation of injured workers continued at the second day's session of the National Civic Federation conference on the subject. Virtually every theory approved by one speaker was condemned by another.

Hazards of the tunnel builders were described by Thomas J. Curtis, president of the Tunnel Workers' Union.

"We don't want compensation, we want prevention," he said. "The Coroner's jury invariably says, 'Premature blast.' There is no such thing. It's always somebody's carelessness."

He charged that much of the fault lay with men who examined applicants for licenses to handle explosives.

"They don't know a stick of dynamite when they see it," he declared. "I saw a man on Fifth avenue smoking a pipe with a load of caps in his breast pocket an hour after he got his license. That showed how much he knew about explosives. Yet he was able to satisfy the examiners.

When the statement was made by a delegate that elevator accidents ought to be guarded against more carefully, Delegate Timothy Healy cried out: "There are men in this city who have no more regard for the life of an employee than for the life of a dog. It is too bad, but my experience of twenty years with my union, the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen, leads me to that belief."

Sky Scout Plays Important Part in Modern Warfare.

Army Aviator After Flying Over Adrianople.

In the above picture, which was taken at the Bulgarian front in Turkey, Gen. Yankoff is shown reading the report of Lieut. Taranchieff, the latter having just made a flight over the city of Adrianople, which is being beleaguered and bombarded by the Bulgars. Several aeroplanes are being used by the Bulgarians and have proved themselves much more useful than mounted scouts in watching the movements of the enemy, in unmasking his batteries and directing the fire of the Bulgarians. The Greeks and Serbs, as well as the Turks, have aerial fleets, but have not as yet put them to a practical test to the same extent as the Bulgarians. This much is established, that no modern army can be considered efficiently equipped unless it has an aerial armada to serve as scouts.

A CONFERENCE AT HAGUE TO SETTLE PEACE TERMS.

Emperor William and Sir Edward Grey Probably Have Succeeded in Averting General European War Over Balkan Conflict—American Ambassador Takes Quiet But Effective Part in Pacification.

BY PAUL LAMBETH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE, BY WIRELESS OVERLAND TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Both the international situation in Europe and the immediate prospects of a definite peace agreement in the Balkans brightened appreciably today. There was a general chorus of relief when the news was telegraphed from Vienna that Herr Prochaska, Austria-Hungarian Consul at Prishrend, has reached Uskub alive and well, thus disposing of the alarmist reports that he had been done to death by the Serbs in defiance of the laws of nations and civilization. From Sofia and Constantinople came confirmation of the fixing of the lines of demarcation during the progress of the armistice and of exceedingly moderate peace terms stipulated by both Turks and Allies. The integrity of Turkey in Europe is no longer urged by the Porte, the complete eviction of the Turk from Europe is not demanded by the representatives of the Allies. An agreement as to Albania is also practical.

ITALY KEPT ADRIATIC PLEDGE.

The easing of the Albanian problem and the safety of the Consul Prochaska, deprive Austria-Hungary of the two most valuable "paramount" issues raised by Count Von Berchold; now there remains only the Servian "window on the waters" to be settled. This is the most sensitive part of the alliance. It is an axiom in the relations of nations, covenanted in entangling alliances, that the stultification of a part vitiates the whole bargain. As Prince Bismarck so lucidly explains in his letters and recollections dealing with the formation of the triple alliance, the clause denouncing any alteration of the sovereignty of the Adriatic was Germany's quid pro quo in the inducement of Austrian and Italian naval expansion to offset French control of the Mediterranean. Italy has lived up to her compact almost to the point of a national bankruptcy. The burden of the naval and military budget broke the heart and the political fortunes of Crispi. Caprivi saw to it that the policy in the Adriatic of the Iron Chancellor was rigidly maintained. Tremendous sacrifices are to go for naught and the peace wrung from Turkey after the affair in Tripoli may prove but a Pyrrhic victory.

KAISER AS PEACEMAKER.

Little is to be gained by crossing bridges until they are duly reached. An involved problem is now facing Europe. But for those who are following the present diplomatic conversations closely, it will be no harm to consider a suggestion thrown out repeatedly of late by the wise and well-informed successor of M. Blowits in Paris. This international authority insists that the German Emperor is not so much in love with the triple alliance as he was when he mounted the throne of Wilhelm of Versailles and curtly dismissed his father's and his grandfather's mentor. The Kaiser, he thinks, is ambitious of playing the part which Edward of England filled so successfully—Doyen of the Emperors and Kings of Europe, instead of head of a faction among the great powers. In the solution of the Balkan trouble, the way is open for an agreement.

MAY APPEAL TO HAGUE.

The fact that, on the very verge of a general European war, but forty-eight hours ago, we are today confronted by such high hopes of a complete international understanding makes it even yet hard to realize the sudden transformation and the diplomatic movements which have led up to it. Suffice to say, that England's truly great Foreign Secretary, the Commoner and Civilian Knight of the Garter, Sir Edward Grey, seems to have proved a tower of strength to the world peace party in the hour of trial and of crisis. Grey has persuaded, cajoled, pleaded, hour after hour and day after day when more hot-headed responsible ministers would have precipitated the catastrophe by war measures excitedly demanded by popular clamor. He has held apart Von Berthold and Sazanoff when these two contending statesmen had their armies almost at the point of attack and combat. Grey is understood to favor a world conference at The Hague to settle the final terms of peace.

AMBASSADOR REID IN TOUCH.

While I have no official authority for making the statement, I have strong reasons for believing that the United States Ambassador, Reid, has been in constant touch with Grey during the last week or ten days and that Reid appreciates and approves the peace measure. A strong anti-war feeling is manifesting itself both in Germany and in Austria. The so-called Democratic party will oppose any rash proceeding on the part of the German Empire.

Kaiser Wilhelm, it is stated, has warned the Austrian Ambassador that Germany's support cannot be taken for granted, unless conditions warrant the combination.

We are not yet out of the woods. The obliquity of the Turk must be taken into account. But there is every reason for the belief that armed Europe has thought twice about rushing pellmell into a wasteful war and that once more second thoughts have proved best for each and for all.

GIRLS DID THE STUNT.

Charge That Misleading Promotion Letters With Hawthorne's Signature Were Signed by Proxy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The literature signed by Julian Hawthorne, exploiting stock of mines in the Cobalt region, contained false statements, it was declared today by Asst. Dist.-Atty. Thompson in outlining the case for the government at the trial of Hawthorne, Josiah Quincy, Dr. W. J. Morton and Albert Freeman, charged with fraudulent use of the mails.

The jury was completed this afternoon.

Mr. Thompson said that a force of girls was trained to imitate the handwriting of Hawthorne, and that they executed in long hand what purported to be personal letters from Hawthorne to his friends urging them to invest in Cobalt claims, which the prosecutor described as barren. The girls signed other letters, he said, purporting to have been written to Hawthorne by "a friend named Brooks," who depicted in "glowing but false terms" conditions at Cobalt.

"There is a Brooks, but he never wrote to Hawthorne," said Mr. Thompson. "He was in a mine only once in his life. He was a clerk in Freeman's employ."

WOMAN ARCHER DEAD.

Mystery Surrounds Demise of Chicago's First Woman Chauffeur and Expert Skater.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Miss Julia Sullivan, archery champion, expert skater and Chicago's first woman chauffeur, was found dead with a bullet in her heart today in her apartments at No. 364 East Fifty-ninth street.

Circumstances pointed to murder and the police took Mrs. G. E. Lob, a close friend, into custody, but later released her after a coroner's jury had returned a verdict of suicide. The police, however, continued their investigation, and the inquest may be reopened. They are puzzled over the statements of Mrs. Lob.

The woman said Miss Sullivan had told her she was "tired of living."

Miss Sullivan, who had won the archery championship and many medals for skating in Canada, had been disappointed at the rewards that came to her as "Chicago's first woman chauffeur."

TROOPS RUSH TO MOCTEZUMA. TO FIGHT NORTHERN REBELS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO, Nov. 26.—Two thousand Federal troops arrived at Moctezuma on the Mexican Central Railroad, southwest of El Paso, today, and will proceed overland against rebel forces operating along the northwestern railroad. The troops were sent from Chihuahua after Federal commanders in the northern part of the State repeatedly had asked for reinforcements.

ASK IRRIGATION BONDS.

STOCKTON (Cal.) Nov. 26.—The South San Joaquin Irrigation District, consisting of 71,000 acres and already bonded for $1,875,000, has decided to call a second bond election to vote on an additional issue of $1,170,000 for a complete distributing system and $790,000 for drainage. Each proposition will be voted on separately. Should the bonds carry it will represent a total bonded indebtedness of $3,835,000, or at the rate of $54 per acre.

EYES OF UNCLE SAM ON JAPS IN HAWAII.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] State Department officials are watching closely the negotiations of the representatives of the Japanese steamship line, Toyo Kisen Kaisha, for the purchase of land near Honolulu for the erection of a modern coal plant of 100,000 tons capacity.

Several of the representatives of the steamship line, according to a report made to the State Department, are seeking options on the land desired. So far no land has been purchased.

No steps to check the proposed plan of the steamship line, which, according to representatives, is subsidised by the Japanese government, will be made by the administration until options on the lands have actually been closed. Then, according to report the State Department will notify the officials of the line through the Japanese embassy that the land cannot be purchased, that such a purchase is in strict violation of the spirit of the Monroe doctrine and contrary to the sense of the Lodge resolution passed in the late session of Congress.

Officials of the State Department are proceeding cautiously, but without a tinge of jingoism. Some of the officials who are aware of the negotiations say that there is nothing over which the country should be alarmed; that the Japanese government will not procure a coaling station in the Sandwich Islands.

THE LODGE RESOLUTION

A BAR TO THE JAPS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—A rumor that the Japanese Steamship Company, Toyo Kisen Kaisha, is securing options on land in Honolulu for the erection of a modern coaling plant of 100,000 tons capacity, is reproduced in a government report here, without comment by government officials. The Lodge resolution passed by the last Congress declared against acquisition of coaling stations in America by corporations controlled by foreign powers, but no decision was made as to whether it applied to outlying possessions of the United States. It is said the State Department is watching the Honolulu situation.

Mystery.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS STOLEN FROM MAIL BAGS.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A daring and mysterious robbery is being investigated by London, continental and Egyptian police. The amount involved is $50,000. Ten days ago the Bank of England dispatched 50,000 sovereigns (worth each $4.84) with usual precautions to the Credit Lyonnais at Alexandria, Egypt, and on the way 10,000 sovereigns were abstracted from the bag and lead substituted.

The sovereigns were packed in leather bags, one thousand sovereigns in each. Five bags were then placed in a sealed case. Thus there were ten cases, each of which was sealed with eight seals of Bank of England and Credit Lyonnais in presence of representatives of each institution. The cases were guarded by armed detectives from the Lothbury entrance to the bank whence they were taken by a truck to London docks, where they were placed in a strong-room of the steamer bound for Bremen. Thence they were sent overland via Brindisi, being most carefully checked at each point of trans-shipment.

Upon being delivered at Credit Lyonnais at Alexandria the seals were intact. The first case was all right, the second contained lead, the third and fourth were all right, but the fifth contained lead in place of sovereigns.

RULING ENDS LIMITED TRA[illegible]

Southern Pacific to Commission's Order.

Officials Say "Locals" C[illegible] Can Be Run.

Will Cause Inconvenienc[illegible] All Passengers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIM[illegible] SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclu[illegible] Dispatch.] Objecting to a re[illegible] ruling of the State Railroad Com[illegible]sion which directed the Southern [illegible]cific Company to file a train sc[illegible]ule showing all stations where [illegible] company's limited trains stop or [illegible] without stopping, the Southern [illegible]cific Company today outlined its [illegible]jection to the order, basing it [illegible] the ground that if the commissi[illegible] order becomes effective the railr[illegible] company will be required to cease [illegible] operation of limited trains. In o[illegible] it does, said the Southern Pacific [illegible]fficials today, there will be no m[illegible] fast trains between San Franci[illegible] and Los Angeles or other points, [illegible] the company, so it was said, would [illegible] required to operate "local" tra[illegible] only in California.

TO BRING TEST CASE.

A test case involving the reas[illegible]blemess of the order will be p[illegible] sented shortly by the Southern P[illegible]cific Company. The point at is[illegible] and on which depends the conti[illegible]ance of limited service, according [illegible] the company's passenger officials, [illegible] that in which the Ventura Chamb[illegible] of Commerce has complained that t[illegible] railroad company's shore line li[illegible] bed does not stop at Ventura.

The Southern Pacific Company r[illegible]plies to this complaint by declaring that the short line limited is ru[illegible] primarily for passengers traveling be[illegible]tween San Francisco and Los Ang[illegible]les and that if it were stopped [illegible] Ventura additional running time [illegible] from five to ten minutes would ha[illegible] to be allowed. Furthermore, says th[illegible] company in its answer, there wou[illegible] be no reason why the trains shoul[illegible] not stop at Oxnard or any othe[illegible] town of population equal with Ven[illegible]tura. The company further state[illegible] that it does not even stop at Red[illegible]wood City, the county seat of San [illegible]Mateo county, nor carry passenger[illegible] between San Jose and this city. I[illegible] conclusion, it avers that if a limite[illegible] train be forced to stop at Ventura [illegible] other stops must be conceded an[illegible] the whole character of the train will [illegible] is changed from a fast through pas[illegible]senger to a local. A hearing will be [illegible] conducted by the Railroad Commis[illegible]sion on the question and it promises [illegible] to be bitterly debated.

THE COMPANY'S POSITION.

"If the Railroad Commission heeds [illegible] the request of every small town in the [illegible] State and compels us to stop our limi[illegible]ted trains thereat, the order will [illegible] mark the cessation of limited trains [illegible] in this State," said a member of the [illegible] railroad company's passenger execu[illegible]tive staff today.

"The Southern Pacific has tried to [illegible] make a fair distinction between [illegible] through and local tariff. If one [illegible] small town obtains an order that we [illegible] should be forced to stop our limited[illegible] there, we shall be forced to stop the [illegible] limiteds at all small points. Therein [illegible] will lie the abolition of our fast [illegible] runs or limited service. This com[illegible]pany is fighting the order on behalf [illegible] of all the railroads operating within [illegible] the State.

"The carriers have always believed [illegible] that the through passenger business, [illegible] for instance, between here and Los [illegible] Angeles, warranted a special train. [illegible] Is such a thing will be impossible [illegible] in the future if the Railroad Com[illegible]mission's order stands, and there will [illegible] be nothing but local service here[illegible]after. The inconvenience will be dis[illegible]advantageous not so much to the [illegible] railroads as to the passenger. And [illegible] it will make a difference of as much [illegible] as three hours in present limited [illegible] runs."

Federal Judge Bean of Portland Enjoins Enforcement of Three-Cent Fare Ordinance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Enforcement of the proposed 3-cent fare for strap-hangers ordinance has been prevented by Federal Judge Bean, who today issued a temporary injunction.

Before the ordinance could have gone into effect originally, the Portland Railway Light and Power Company, against which it was aimed, secured a restraining order from the court. Today a temporary injunction was granted and according to Federal procedure, this the railroad men have will probably be followed by a permanent injunction.

The ordinance, which was passed by the Council, provides that persons on cars after all seats are occupied shall pay but 3 cents fare. Judge Bean in his decision holds the provisions of the ordinance to be impossible of enforcement.

RULING ENDS LIMITED TRAINS.

Southern Pacific to Test Commission's Order.

Officials Say "Locals" Only Can Be Run.

Will Cause Inconvenience to All Passengers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Objecting to a recent ruling of the State Railroad Commission which directed the Southern Pacific Company to file a train schedule showing all stations where the company's limited trains stop or pass without stopping, the Southern Pacific Company today outlined its objection to the order, basing it on the ground that if the commission's order becomes effective the railroad company will be required to cease the operation of limited trains. In case it does, said the Southern Pacific officials today, there will be no more limited trains between San Francisco and Los Angeles or other points, for the company, so it was said, would be required to operate "local" trains only in California.

TO BRING TEST CASE.

A test case involving the reasonableness of the order will be presented shortly by the Southern Pacific Company. The point at issue will be which depends the continuance of limited service, according to the company's passenger officials, is that in which the Ventura Chamber of Commerce has complained that the railroad company's shore line limited does not stop at Ventura.

The Southern Pacific Company replies to this complaint by declaring that the short line limited is run primarily for passengers traveling between San Francisco and Los Angeles and that if it were stopped at Ventura additional running time of from five to ten minutes would have to be allowed. Furthermore, says the company in its answer, there would be no reason why the trains should not stop at Oxnard on account of its population equal with Ventura. The company further states that it does not even stop at Redwood City, the county seat of San Mateo county, nor carry passengers between San Jose and this city. In addition, it avers that if a limited train be forced to stop at Ventura the stops must be conceded and the whole character of the train will be changed from a fast through passenger to a local. A hearing will be granted by the Railroad Commission on the question and it promises to be bitterly debated.

THE COMPANY'S POSITION.

If the Railroad Commission heeds the request of every small town in the state and compels us to stop our limited trains thereat, the order will mean the cessation of limited trains in the State," said a member of the railroad company's passenger executive staff today.

"The Southern Pacific has tried to make a fair distinction between through and local tariff. If one small town obtains an order that we shall be forced to stop our limiteds we shall be forced to stop the limiteds at all small points. Therein lies the abolition of our fast and limited service. This company is fighting the order on behalf of all the railroads operating within the State.

"The carriers have always believed that the through passenger business, for instance, between here and Los Angeles, warranted a special train. Such a thing will be impossible in the future if the Railroad Commission's order stands, and there will be nothing but local service hereafter. The inconvenience will be disastrous not so much to the railroads as to the passenger. And it will make a difference of as much as four hours in present limited time."

San Francisco Syndicate Purchases Famous Tehama County Resort for $100,000 Cash.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RED BLUFF (Cal.) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The famous Morgan ranch, located in Tehama county, about 20 miles northeast of this city and within four miles of the foot of Mt. Lassen, is about to pass into the hands of a syndicate of San Francisco people who have purchased the place, paying $100,000 cash. The company will within a few days take possession and it is its intention to erect a large three-story summer hotel, build houses and cottages on the place into a summer and winter resort. The negotiations were conducted by A. L. Conrad of Red Bluff, and the affairs are being handled through him. The identity of the San Franciscans being kept a secret, following the former owner of the ranch in not knowing who the people were to whom the sale was made. When it is known next year the place will be in charge of a Chico man as manager and as a direct result of the epidemic of smallpox here the City Board of Health today ordered all contemplated improvements stopped. Leaders, among whom are several residents, have purchased the Bidwell street cottages.

TO PREVENT RABIES.

Health Board Secretary Estimates $18,000 Is Total Paid in Six Months Fighting Hydrophobia.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 26.—According to a report issued today from the office of the State Board of Health by Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary, there has been more than $9000 spent by the State during the last six months for the treatment of persons bitten by rabid dogs.

In addition, Dr. Snow reports that as much more has been spent by persons financially able to pay for the treatment so that in California during the last six months approximately $18,000 has been spent to prevent hydrophobia following bites by dogs that had rabies.

"This question," said Dr. Snow, "is assuming alarming proportions, because of the rapid spread of the disease.

"The only way it can be handled or controlled is for the local communities to take up the muzzling ordinances and enforce them."

Superintendent Bristol Says Out of Sixty-six Supervisoral Districts in Central and Northern California "Wets" Lost Fifty-four in Nov. 5 Election.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Irving B. Bristol of Sacramento, superintendent of the central district of the State Anti-saloon League, has issued a report on the status of the "wet" and "dry" territory throughout the counties of Central and Northern California.

The report says: "In many of the cities where no local option election has been held, the friends of license have feared that the saloons would be closed and have secured the passage of regulation ordinances in hope that the saloons might remain.

"Table of units voting in the district November 5, 1912, follows:

County	Units voting.	Dry.	Wet.
Sutter	1	1
Butte	7	6	1

WANT LIBERTY BELL.

Huge Petition Two Miles Long With 500,000 School Children's Names Is Sent East.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Two miles of petition, wound on a huge reel, will be trundled through the streets of San Francisco on an automobile truck next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, preparatory to being shipped to Philadelphia. The petition contains the names of 500,000 California school children who ask that the famous old Liberty Bell be brought here in 1915 for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

HARVEST BEAN CROP IN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON (Cal.) Nov. 26.—The San Joaquin Valley bean crop is harvested. There are a total of about 30,000 bags all of which will very probably sell at $3.25 per hundred. San Joaquin county alone produced $487,500 worth of beans, and the total valley output is valued at $1,000,000. This represents about one-half the crop harvested in 1911.

PROTEST NEW RAILROAD LAW.

Santa Fe Porters Enjoin the State Commission.

Declare Arizona Train Crew Statute Is Unfair.

Object to Experience Clause Relating to Flagmen.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 26.—Nine porters employed by the Santa Fe Railway filed in the Federal Court here today a bill in equity asking that the Arizona Corporation Commission be enjoined from enforcing the full railroad crew law, ratified by the voters November 5.

The plaintiffs took particular exception to the section of the law providing that every flagman must have had a year's experience as a brakeman.

The plaintiffs alleged that while they were entered on the pay roll as porters they actually were required to perform the duties of brakemen and flagmen.

They stated, also, that the enforcement of the law would deprive them of their positions, as the railway had notified them they would be laid off as soon as the measure became effective.

Judge Sloan issued a temporary restraining order and set the case for a hearing December 9.

MAY DOUBLE IRRIGATION DEBT.

South San Joaquin District Proposes to Issue Bonds to Build Additional Reservoir and Laterals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Land owners in the South San Joaquin Irrigation district have decided to call an election to determine whether or not it would be practical to vote bonds to the amount of $1,170,000 for a better distributing and drainage system, and additional bonds to the amount of $790,000, for the construction of a reservoir capable of storing 49,000 acre-feet of water for late irrigation. The original issue of bonds approximated $2,000,000 and if the present project should carry the total indebtedness of the district would be nearly $4,000,000. As there are 71,000 acres in the district each acre would carry $54 of the indebtedness. The decision to call an election was reached at a mass meeting held at Ripon in this county.

The proposed debt will be the largest of any irrigation district in California. In other districts in this State only the main laterals have been built at public expense, leaving the construction and management of the small ditches to the individual farmers. This has caused considerable expense and has given those living near the laterals an advantage over those living at a distance. The South San Joaquin people believe that the district can build the small ditches as cheaply as they can be built by the farmers and that development will follow much more rapidly if water is delivered to all parts of the district than if the farmers are compelled to provide their own ditches. Moreover, if the work is done by the farmers it will have to be paid for at once; if done by the district under a bond issue only the interest on the cost will have to be paid for the next twenty years.

JUDGE SCORES MARYSVILLE.

Attacks Citizens and Police Force for Permitting and Sustaining Restricted District.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In one of the most scathing arraignments ever made in the Superior Court Judge McDaniels from the bench bitterly attacked the citizens in particular for permitting and sustaining a restricted district in the city on "The flimsy pretext that it helped business." That the police who patrol this district are paid by the owners of the buildings is tacit recognition, said the jurist, of immoral conditions.

"There is nothing in the history of Sodom and Gomorrah that outranks for seeking vice this camp in Marysville, kept up on the flimsy pretext that it helps business," declared Judge McDaniels.

MRS. GEE SHEE, EXECUTRIX.

Chinese Woman for First Time in History of California Appointed to Handle Estate.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICO, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the first time in the history of California and, it is believed, the first time in the history of the United States, a Chinese woman has been appointed executrix to handle the estate of a dead man.

The Chinese woman so appointed is Mrs. Gee Shee of Marysville, and she is under bond to administer the estate of her dead husband, Ah Fee, who was one of the most prominent Chinamen of Northern California. Mrs. Shee was appointed executrix last evening by Superior Judge McDaniels of Yuba county.

She is an intelligent Chinese woman, speaks comparatively good English, and her attorney, who is a white man, declared she is entirely capable of handling the business. The estate consists of a large store and other property including several town lots in Marysville. She has been in this country about seven years.

Utah Teachers Believe in Pensions for Widows and a Full Grade Course for All Pupils.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State convention of public school teachers today took advanced ground when it adopted resolutions favoring a law that would compel all children to finish grade work or to attend school until they have reached their majority.

The teachers also urged a State appropriation for indigent widows with children, so that the children would be enabled to attend and complete their public school course. Efforts to include both suggestions in the school code will be made at the coming session of the Legislature.

NEW PRISON SECRETARY.

CHICO, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] A Chico man, J. L. Bevan, will succeed J. E. Hosier as secretary of the State Board of Prison Directors at the Folsom State Prison. Bevan will be formally appointed tomorrow. His predecessor was discharged. The position carries with it a salary of $1800 and expenses.

THE NEW SYSTEM

After a time everybody "gets next" to an old system. Then it breaks down and becomes unprofitable and unpopular because amateurs try to do what professionals have done and are doing.

This old system of 4% to the lender and 40% or more to the stockholder is passing away. That old system has been developed to the highest point of perfection as evidenced by the enormous fortunes owned by the few. That condition is the product of the Old System

The new system aims to reverse the old system little by little. The first step is to give small investors whose "money makes the mare go" a larger share and place an absolute security behind the investment.

Gold Notes

The Gold Notes I am authorized to issue are on the "new system. They yield as much as 8% per annum. They are INDIVIDUALLY secured by a DIRECT security deposited with, and so indorsed. In addition, these GOLD NOTES carry the in plain, simple, easily understood language, of one of, if not the strongest and cleanest corporations of California—assuring prompt payment of interest and principal. The new system is approved by lawyers, bankers and many others who already have bought the GOLD NOTES and will buy more. That system is the system for you because it and is as safe or safer than any security ever issued under the old system.

FINAL FIGURES ON CALIFORNIA.

Roosevelt Seems to Lead With Slight Margin.

Canvass of Three Counties Not Yet Official.

Court Ruling Alone Likely to Change Result.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Final figures from all counties of the State, announced tonight, including the totals by the Los Angeles, Inyo and Modoc boards of canvassers, but not yet checked up by the Secretary of State, give Wallace, heading the Republican electoral ticket, a plurality of 128 votes over Griffin, the first Democratic elector. The totals are:

Wallace, 283,532.
Griffin, 283,404.

The Los Angeles county totals are those resulting from the first canvass by the Supervisors, and are as follows:

Wallace, 75,534; Griffin, 55,073. This is a gain of 100 votes for Wallace over the unofficial figures previously given out. A second canvass is in progress, but it is admitted by both Republicans and Democrats that the net change in the vote of any electoral candidate will not exceed sixty.

However, the recent Appellate Court decision, affecting the vote of two Los Angeles precincts will, if it stands, deduct about 200 from every Republican elector except Wallace. These are the precincts in which the clerks of election tallied the straight vote at the head of each electoral ticket only.

As the certified returns from Inyo and Modoc counties are not likely to vary to any extent from the known results of the county canvass, it is apparent that only some far-reaching court ruling in the proceedings now pending in several counties can overturn the lead held by the high Roosevelt elector.

In Los Angeles county the vote for the lowest man on the electoral ticket was: Luce (Rep.) 75,057; Cooley (Dem.) 54,827.

MANDATES ARE ISSUED.
HEARING FRIDAY MORNING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 26.—Frank R. Devlin, a Presidential elector on the Progressive Republican ticket, filed in the Third District Court of Appeal this morning, through Clinton L. White and Charles O. Busick, attorneys, his petitions for writs of mandate directing the Boards of Supervisors of Sacramento and San Joaquin counties to return true and correct vote totals in accordance with the returns made by precinct officials. These writs of mandate are designed to correct the vote in fifteen precincts in Sacramento city, involving, it is claimed in the petition, 150 votes, and one precinct in the city of Stockton, involving seventy-five votes.

The petitions set forth that the precincts involved in Sacramento are from No. 1 to No. 15, inclusive, where the election officials did not go through the physical operation of making tally marks for the straight votes.

In Stockton, it is alleged that in precinct No. 1 of ward No. 2, the votes were counted in the same way and because of this fact Roosevelt lost seventy-five votes, and Wilson gained seventy-five, to which he is not entitled.

The petition asks that the Third District Court of Appeal—as is also sought in the Sacramento petition—and as was ordered in Los Angeles, direct the Board of Supervisors of San Joaquin to count the tally marks on the tally sheets and return a vote for every tally mark, paying no attention to the totals as set down, and to return the result of this count to the Secretary of State as the correct return, or canvass.

PETITIONS GRANTED.

At 2:20 o'clock this afternoon the justices of Court of Appeal issued two orders allowing the petitions for the writes of mandate and directing that alternative writs of mandate be issued and that arguments on these alternative writs, the one in the case of the Sacramento petition and the other in the case of the San Joaquin county petition be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

CONGRESSIONAL COUNT.

The official count was completed today in the Third, Seventh and Eighth Congressional districts.

In the third Curry (Rep.) received 31,040; Ross (Dem.) 15,197; Wilson (Soc.) 6522.

In the Seventh District Church (Dem.) received 23,752; Needham (Rep.) 22,994; Cato (Soc.) 7171.

In the Eighth District Hayes (Rep.) received 29,861; Holohan (Dem.) 20,620; Whitaker (Soc.) 8125.

Thomas J. Pence,

Secretary to the President will probably be the title this newspaper man will have after March 4 next. Mr. Pence is Washington representative of a number of southern papers and was chief publicity agent for the Democratic campaign just finished. It is because of his writings advocating Gov. Wilson's election and his hard work in the Democratic campaign that many believe Mr. Pence will be made President Wilson's secretary.

TAFT NOT A CANDIDATE.

Will Work Hard to Rejuvenate Republican Party but Does Not Seek Renomination.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—President Taft quietly has informed friends that no matter how active his participation in a reorganization of the Republican party may be, he is not to be regarded or publicly referred to in political speeches by Republicans as a possible candidate of the party in 1916.

The President intends to do all in his power to help rejuvenate the party, and probably will make many political speeches before March 4 and after he re-enters private life; but according to close friends, he is in the fight to continue the party and to try to return it to power as a man who has been its standard-bearer for four years and not as a man seeking a renomination four years hence.

These facts have developed the last few days in connection with a discussion of a proposed meeting this winter of Republican leaders to formulate plans for bringing Republican factions together. Within the last week nearly a dozen Republican national committee men have called at the White House for brief conferences either with the President or his secretary, Charles D. Hilles, who was chairman of the Republican National Committee during the campaign.

A meeting of Republican leaders, to be held in New York or Washington some time in January, is now being considered; but plans are indefinite. President Taft and Mr. Hilles are being urged to take part in the movement to establish active, "militant" headquarters for the party to open at once, and to lead a general party reorganization movement during the next four years.

The Republican committeemen who have been in Washington recently have offered various suggestions for the reopening of party activity. The majority favor a general publicity and educational campaign to strengthen public support of Republican principles and to place the party in a position to take advantage of "any mistakes" the Democratic administration may make.

NEW WRINKLE FOR RENO.

New York Man Couldn't Stand Noise so He Established Camp in the Mountains.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Nev. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joseph Francis Griffin, a New York stock broker, has introduced a new wrinkle in the Reno divorce colony. He came here for a divorce, but the nerve-racking noises of Reno grated upon his ears so he established a camp in the mountains above the city, where he spent much of his time.

When this palled, he lived at a ranch five miles out of Reno. Today, almost a nervous wreck, he got an absolute decree of divorce from Jessie Ritchie Griffin, for desertion occurring in New York in 1909.

They were married in Denver in 1887 and have one daughter, a musician in New York City, and a graduate of the New York Institute of Music.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

Where Many Will Gather Tomorrow to Give Thanks for Blessings of the Past Year.

Union Thanksgiving services, in which all the Protestant evangelical churches of the city will unite, will be held tomorrow in the various districts throughout the city at 10:30 a.m.

All the congregations in the central part of the city will unite in one service in Temple Auditorium, and Dr. Charles Edward Locke of the First Metodist Church, will preach the sermon.

The Episcopal churches will meet at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral. Rev. Robert B. Gooden, principal of the Harvard Military School, being the preacher.

Dr. Edward Campbell of the First Presbyterian Church, will preach to a group of churches at a service to be held in Memorial Baptist Church, Twenty-third street and Grand avenue.

The eight mission churches, mothered by the Broadway Christian Church, will meet in the latter and listen to a sermon by Rev. Scott Anderson.

Hollywood will meet at the Methodist Church, where Rev. R. S. Walker will preach the sermon.

Highland Park, in the Christian Church, Rev. Byron H. Wilson, preacher.

FREIGHT CARS WRECKED.

Pacific Electric and Salt Lake Trains in Smashup at Aliso Street Bridge Crossing.

Two freight cars were demolished, and was thrown in every direction, trackage was torn up and traffic obstructed for more than four hours yesterday morning as a result of a smashup in which a Salt Lake freight train cut in two a Pacific Electric freight train on the crossing at the east end of the Aliso-street bridge. The damage, about equally divided between the two systems, totals about $2000.

The engineer in charge of Salt Lake engine No. 19, southbound with forty cars, did not see the Pacific Electric train, hauled by engine No. 1564, westbound, until too late to avert the right-angle collision.

THE TIMES ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY

THIS recently reorganized and reconstructed 40-page magazine, aptly called the "Unique Magazine of the Sensuous Southwest," is devoted to the development of California and the expanding Southwest, and to the exploitation of their rich and stupendous natural resources. It is an independent, non-partisan weekly vehicle of present-day thought, narration and description—a publication especially valuable for all who are turning their eyes in the direction of the "Land of Heart's Desire" for possible homes, or for special information about the country.

It has attractions for men of the army and navy, for members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of the National Guards of the States, as well as for all with an eye on the "ultimate West." It is well printed on fine, white paper, and is a handsome magazine.

In addition, it is replete with captivating travel stories, well-written descriptive matter of historic interest about California's plains, canyons, mountains, seashore and valleys. It publishes appealing poetry, fascinating fiction of love, war and adventure, and other delightful reading matter.

The Illustrated Weekly, being complete in itself, is served to the public separate from The Times news sheets when required.

Secretary Nagel and Secretary Fisher will dine at home. Secretary Stimson is in Panama and the plans for several other members of the Cabinet are indefinite.

PRESIDENT'S DAY.

The President will attend the annual Pan-American Thanksgiving services in St. Patrick's Church just before noon and at night occupy his own pew in All Souls Unitarian Church. At 2 o'clock he will attend the wedding of John W. H. Ladd of Boston and Miss Alice Boutell, daughter of the American Minister to Switzerland.

Mrs. Taft is in Washington and Robert and Charles, the Taft boys, are expected to arrive tomorrow night from school. Miss Helen will not return from her trip to Panama in time to join in the family celebration.

THANKSGIVING DINNERS CHEAP AT FIVE DOLLARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Thanksgiving dinner of the average man should not cost more than $5 this year. In fact, a great big dinner with turkey, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, oysters for dressing and a large bunch of celery and the mince pie can be obtained easily for $5 if the buyer goes to the market.

Turkeys are plentiful this fall and of good quality, the dealers say. The good crops on the farms have afforded produce raisers plenty of food for their stock and a first quality fowl is offered in the market.

The down town markets are offering their best grade of turkeys at 19 cents a pound. The weight of turkeys, dressed, runs from twelve to twenty pounds and the price varies somewhat according to the bird. All the market keepers say the man who wants the best turkey at a reasonable price for his Thanksgiving dinner, should go to the market and select it.

Spring chickens are selling from 12½ cents up. The average price is 16½ cents at the Loop markets.

Only Two Ways To Stop Drinking

One Is to Stop Before the Will-Power Becomes Too Weak—The Other Is to Take the Neal Treatment.

Very few men who drink intoxicating liquors regularly, realize they are poisoned with alcohol until they make an effort to stop.

When you do realize, you cannot stop, at once, and never take another drink, you should take treatment—The Neal Treatment.

"Tapering off" is always a failure for just so long as you take alcohol into your system, there will be craving and desire for more and more each day.

When you find the habit of drinking has mastered you, go to the Los Angeles Neal Institute, spend three days taking the Neal Treatment, and return to home and business on the fourth day perfect master of yourself.

The Neal Treatment is a harmless, vegetable remedy, which removes all craving and necessity for drink in three days, without the use of painful, dangerous hypodermic injections. Fifty-four Neal Institutes in the United States, Canada and Australia, annually save thousands of drink and drug-poisoned men and women from ruin.

Dr. Neal, originator of the Neal Treatment, will spend the winter at the Los Angeles Neal Institute, 945 S. Olive st., and will be pleased to give full information to those interested for themselves, relatives or friends. If desired our representative will call at the home, hotel or club and explain the Neal Method of Treatment fully. Write or 'phone G. U. Neal, Manager, for Dr. Neal's free book. NEGLIGENCE SOMEWHERE.

Knocked unconscious by Colegrove car No. 259, inbound, A. J. Leatherman, a barber, residence given as No. 5412 Santa Monica boulevard, lay for an hour after the accident last night, awaiting the arrival of an ambulance to convey him to a hospital. He is in a serious condition.

When the police department was notified all wagons were out on other calls and the officers ordered the man rushed to the city on a street car. This was not done, however, and the dispatcher at the Hollywood station says Motorman Rathilsberger and Conductor Danker reported that the man had been carried to and left at his home and a Sisters' Hospital ambulance telephoned for. A Dr. Parker gave the victim first-aid treatment.

According to A. Yerkes, of Fountain and St. Andrews streets, the case needs investigation, as someone was sadly negligent. He says Leatherman got off a westbound car, crossed the tracks, and was struck without being given warning of the approach of the Colegrove car.

Leatherman was then carried to C. C. Canner's pharmacy at Santa Monica boulevard and Cahuenga avenue, where the accident occurred.

C. Ziegler, of La Marida street, and M. Kane of Sierra Vista street, are given as witnesses.

Leatherman, who is employed at No. 124 west Sixth street, is declared to have recovered consciousness once and to have again suffered a relapse while awaiting the arrival of an ambulance.

SUFFRAGISTS THANK TAFT

Commend Selection for Head of Children's Bureau.

Roosevelt Failed to Keep Promise.

Committee Named to Draft a New Constitution.

BY CONSTANCE CARRUTHERS

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—"We deeply deplore exploiting of the children of this country in our labor markets. We commend the creation of a national children's bureau and President Taft's appointment of a woman as head of the bureau."

When President Taft was thus named before the suffrage convention today there was a deafening outburst of applause. One lone delegate asked if it were really necessary to specially mention Taft. Several women got up evidently with the intention of answering the question. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the presiding officer, took this office into her own hands.

"It is necessary, right and proper," said the woman president. "Taft did what women and children a service by asking this office out of politics and then appointing a woman without regard to political influence.

"Theodore Roosevelt when President promised to make such an appointment, but failed to do so.

"President Taft has our heartfelt thanks."

Before the convention adjourned for the day this afternoon, peace was restored in full measure to the reform demands which came out of the West.

A NEW CONSTITUTION.

A committee of five was appointed on the motion of Mary O. Hall of Illinois to draft a new uniform-state charter. Dr. Shaw herself made the suggestion gracefully which was accepted without a dissenting vote. It was also decided that votes for officers shall be done by the delegates under the rule. Although I ventured the prediction several days ago that the suffrage "steam roller" would never flatten out the advanced thought of another convention, it seemed possible until this morning that the "old guard" would put up another fight. As it is, the new constitution will not be reported until the next convention meets. The next place of meeting will be decided (with the naming of the five constitution builders) at a meeting of the executive board to be held tomorrow in New York. It is more than probable that a western city will be chosen in the interest of fairness and peace. The convention placed itself in strong disapprobation of the term "white slave." These words were ordered stricken from a resolution attacking the social propism with the demand that they be erased. "A yellow or black slave as well as a white," observed Dr. Shaw, "and we must draw no color line."

AMUSING TELEGRAM.

An amusing incident of the morning was the reading of a cablegram of congratulation from Rotterdam, Holland. The cablegram was addressed "Mr. Convention." The "Mr." caused much merriment among the women, which increased when Dr. Shaw said that the telegraph company had been for three days trying to find the "Mr." The cablegram was from Martina Kramers.

THIRD MASS MEETING.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—The National American Woman Suffrage Association decided to hold another mass meeting in Independence Square, where two largely attended open-air rallies have been held. Interest in the matters on which action was to be taken today was the disposition of several constitutional amendments which had been laid over at previous sessions for the submission of reports by various committees and auxiliary press work, which were crowded out of the schedule.

It was announced by the auditors that since the convention began $10,000 in cash and pledges have been received to carry on the work.

NAME CALIFORNIA WOMEN.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The woman's suffrage convention adjourned today and before the delegates finally finished their business a committee was appointed to draft the constitution of the association. Miss Maud Younger and Mary Grey Keith were both named as members of that body.

Today was spent in clearing the table of unfinished business and considerable argument was caused by the motion of M. Carey Thomas of Bryn Mawr College, who sought to have the convention establish the unit rule permanently so that in future the organization would have things more secure under its control.

There was another slap at the westerners, who spoke against it as the most antiquated methods of government, the eastern members defeated by a vote of 137 to 45. Many of the delegates left this city this morning and the Los Angeles delegation headed by Mrs. Alice S. Wells, who is to spend Thanksgiving in Chicago in Hull House with Jane Addams, as guests, and where they will eat their Thanksgiving dinner, from which they will resume their journey to the end of the week.

CURRENCY REFORM.

Democratic Members of Coming Congress Decide to Keep Hands Off Banking Question.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—No currency reform legislation will be attempted at the coming session of Congress, it is virtually was decided at an informal conference today of the Democratic members of the subcommittee of the House Banking and Currency committee, headed by Representative Pujo of Virginia.

The first steps towards drawing a bill have been taken by the members of the committee, and no currency legislation has been evolved to fill the place of the Aldrich currency plan recently by the committee.

Last Hope Blasted.

trol an assembly which can be made to serve its purposes in all international relations, and upon which, if necessary, in a shift, can be placed the burden of the blame for any foreign policy which the Czar's officials choose to adopt.

GUILD'S TROUBLES.

Curtis Guild, our Ambassador to Russia, is coming to know his own troubles in negotiating a treaty to take the place of the agreement of 1832, recently abrogated by the American Congress. There is belief in Washington that Russia is endeavoring to have the present situation maintained indefinitely, or certainly until popular sentiment in this country will allow a new treaty to be put in effect which will be, insofar as it affects the rights of American Jews traveling in Russia, just like the treaty of 1832.

Members of Congress say that Russia will have to wait a long time before America will accept any treaty which contains discriminations against travelers of any race, or creed, domiciled in this country and represented in its citizenship.

While the Czar's Ministers may want to postpone the treaty matter, it is, of course, certain that it must be discussed, and it is also certain that the minority in the Duma will raise its voice to get a hearing on the subject. The Russian government, it is believed, does not want to offend the United States. It is understood that the Duma can force, or stop, treaty-making, but, inasmuch as it is called a popular assembly, the support of its majority would enable the government to do things, or not to do things, with a better grace than if the Duma's clamor were against the ruling powers.

AT A BANQUET.

Not long ago Ambassador Guild gave a reception. Dispatches coming to Washington indirectly from Russia, say, that among the guests at this public event was Hesson, a Jew, and the editor of one of the most prominent journals of the opposition. Milukov, the leader of the opposition in the present Duma, was also present. Ambassador Guild seemingly has exhibited unusual independence in inviting to official functions at the American Embassy persons not at all grateful to the Russian government. Curiously enough this action is held in Washington to mean possibly just the reverse of what it would seem to mean. It is believed that Mr. Guild may be making more headway in treaty negotiations than generally is supposed.

ANTI-SEMITIC TALK.

It seems certain that in the next Duma, because of the great reactionary majority controlling it, there will be any amount of nationalistic and anti-Semitic talking.

It is feared in Washington that members of the Duma may get into a spirit to induce sharp criticisms of the United States, of the policy of the American Congress, and of the State Department. The desire probably would be to make the American people believe the Russian people, as a whole, are against a treaty which will give the American Jew his rights in the country of the Czar. The reactionary quality of the Duma would make almost anything possible, but, inasmuch as it is known as a popular assembly, its views might be mistaken for the views of the people. It seems to be a case of an intention to bluff.

THE FOURTH DUMA ASSEMBLES TOMORROW.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Public opinion is slow to express itself in Russia, says a St. Petersburg dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company, but indignation has been growing the last few weeks at the alleged lack of virility in upholding Russia's international and military dignity. A few brief statements have been issued denying all military preparations, and Russians are allowed to know nothing more about the government's attitude.

"In a country where every family is represented in the army," the dispatch continues, "serious resentment is inevitable. The officers complain that they are treated as supers, while any display of enthusiasm for the Balkan states has been repeatedly repressed.

"Nevertheless, the pro-Balkan feeling is developing and societies to carry on the campaign are being formed in St. Petersburg and the provinces.

"The fourth Duma will assemble Thursday and the government policy of secrecy undoubtedly will be assailed. Official attempts to manipulate the elections failed, and the constitution of the fourth Duma virtually is the same as the third, but more adverse to bureaucratic methods.

"In the meantime, the working classes are unsettled and the university troubles have started again. Opinions differ concerning the morale of the rank and file of the army."

Nothing But Work Can Make Her Happy Now, Declares White Girl Who Says That She Was Merely Infatuated With Negro Champion's Strength and Liberality.

[BY WIRELESS TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Lucille Cameron, the pretty white girl, whose infatuation for Jack Johnson led to the black champion's indictment by the government under the Mann act, today told the secret of her affection for the negro.

"I did not love him," she began, "but I was infatuated with his great strength, his title as champion pugilist of the world, his big muscles. To me he was a hero. Maybe I thought I loved him, but every girl who thinks she is in love, should be sent to jail for thirty days. That is the test.

"I am glad they put me in jail. Before I would have run away with this black man had he asked me. Surely I now believe that a girl's best friend is her mother.

HERO WORSHIPER.

"Maybe no one will understand me now. He proposed to me and I laughed at him at first. To me he was a big, laughing, good-natured, liberal Hercules. At first I would not think of riding with him in the public streets but later it seemed a heroic thing to do.

Aged Woman Found Murdered in San Francisco.

Four Smuggled Chinese Girls Are Arrested.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OSSINING (N. Y.) Nov. 26.—"Gyp the Blood," "Whitey Lewis," "Lefty Louie" and "Dago Frank," the four gunmen sentenced to death in New York, reached here this afternoon and were lodged in the death house in Sing Sing in cells adjoining that of former Police Lieutenant Becker, awaiting death in connection with the same crime.

The wives of "Lefty" Louie and "Gyp the Blood," and "Whitey" Lewis's ister, were permitted to walk with the men from the train to the prison. Sheriff Harburger and a heavy squad of deputies escorted the gunmen, and hundreds of Ossining people joined the procession.

The four gunmen filled the last vacant cells in the death house, where there are now seventeen men awaiting electrocution. They are not on the same tier with Becker, but can talk to him if they wish, as words spoken in an ordinary conversational tone can be heard throughout the death house. The four men were sentenced by Justice Goff in New York, to die in the electric chair during the week of January 6, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Each of the prisoners was sentenced separately and in each case Attorney Wahle, their counsel, moved that the verdict be set aside and the judgment be arrested. Each motion Justice Goff successively denied.

None of the condemned men gave any visible sign of his feelings. Accompanied by Sheriff Harburger and twelve deputies, the four were forced through a big, silent crowd outside the Criminal Courts building, thrust into the prison van and taken to the Grand Central Station.

WEALTHY WOMAN MURDERED.

Mrs. Lena Jones of San Francisco Found Strangled in Bed, Presumably for Money.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Murdered in her bed, where she was found gagged and bound by neighbors, this afternoon, Mrs. Lena Jones, of No. 236 Precita avenue, 81 years old, and reputed to be very wealthy, was removed to the city morgue. Detectives are searching for traces of the murderers. Receipts amounting to $300 for taxes paid by her recently, were found strewn about the floor in the aged woman's apartments. The condition of the place when the police arrived led to the conviction that Mrs. Jones was murdered for the large amount of money which she was believed to have secreted in her bed. Strangulation was the method adopted by the murderers in killing their victim.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—Special Dispatch.] The Chicago Grand Opera season opened its third season at the Auditorium Theater tonight with a performance of "Manon Lescaut" by Puccini. All seats had been sold and music-lovers welcomed the curtain-raiser of what promises to be Chicago's most brilliant opera season.

Mme. Carolina White, the American prima donna, was enthusiastically applauded.

The Indian band brought from the Northwest, played a serenade for Andreas Dippel.

Four Taken Across Pacific in Hold of the Nippon Maru Arrested in San Francisco.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Four Chinese girls dressed in men's clothes, smuggled across the Pacific in the hold of the Nippon Maru, were borne through the streets today to the office of the surveyor of the port. They were arrested last night as they stepped from the ship's gangplank in company with Leong Moon, Chinese interpreter for the vessel.

In making the arrest W. H. J. Deasy, a customs guard, refused a bribe of $1000, which happened to be just $40 more than his annual salary.

Before Chief Inspector Stephens today, the girls gave their names and said they were two pairs of sisters.

GOSHEN (N. Y.) Nov. 26.—After deliberating for more than fourteen hours the jury in the case of Burton W. Gibson, charged with the murder of his client, Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, reported to Justice Tompkins today that it could not agree on a verdict. The jurors were discharged. Jacob J. Singer of Gibson's counsel announced shortly after the jury had been discharged that the District Attorney had offered not to place Gibson on trial again on the charge of murdering Mrs. Szabo provided Gibson would plead guilty to one of several charges against him in New York county.

Will Likely Prevent Election of Republican or Democrat to Presidency of Senate.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—With the beginning of the next session of Congress less than a week away the Senate finds itself only temporarily provided with a presiding officer and without a definite prospect of being able to agree upon one.

Senator Bristow of Kansas, who was one of Mr. Gallinger's opponents from the time that he was nominated during the last session by the Republican caucus, has let it be known that the New Hampshire Senator is just as objectionable to him now as he was last year and if a few other Progressives hold out they can defeat his election this season just as they did last session. The Progressives are quite as opposed to Senator Bacon, the Democratic nominee.

Democrats and Republicans say there will be no great embarrassment in proceeding, as they can manage as they have in the past by dividing the floor honor between Bacon and Gallinger.

Wake Up! You Lazy Stomach!

Make Your Stomach Cheerfully Do Its Work — Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Digest Your Food and Assist the Stomach.

People who complain they are worn to a frazzle are nearly always dyspeptic and are recommended to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. The stomach gets lazy, food ferments and sours, gas belches up, there are symptoms of bloating, the blood becomes thick and sluggish, the liver is blamed, the head is heavy, the mind a blank and the dining-room is a chamber of horrors.

One of the greatest evils of our modern life is the quick lunch. To this evil, as much or more, than any other, may be traced the preponderance of the stomach troubles of our times. Instead of taking time to thoroughly masticate the food before swallowing it, the average person rushes through the meal, bolting the food, deglutition taking place while it is only partially mixed with saliva, and only half masticated, thus leaving the stomach to do the work the teeth should have done.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain digestive elements, a single grain being capable of digesting 3000 grains of food, including meats, eggs, grain, vegetables, starches and mineral matters. They prepare every particle of food by thorough digestion for ready absorption and assimilation by the lacteal glands, which pass it into the blood, whence it is conducted to all parts of the system, rebuilding and revitalizing it.

Every druggist has Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in stock and sells them at 50 cents a box.—[Advertisement.

PLANADA FARMS

Where the SOIL Does the WORK
In Prize Winning Merced County

Planada Farms are "work-savers." Their rich alluvial soil, the sediment of mountain streams, produces abundantly without constant fertilizing, coaxing or back-breaking labor. The SOIL will do the REAL WORK. Immense crops are the rule, not the exception, in this wonderful county—which was awarded 41 BLUE RIBBONS at the state fair in the face of state-wide competition—and nowhere in the county is the Planada district excelled.

Grapes, nectarines, figs, prunes, olives, plums, pears, peaches and apricots thrive in Planada soil. Vegetables, alfalfa, grains—all wonderful profit makers—find Planada soil ideal. The running expenses of the Planada farmer should be met by revenues from hog raising—or dairying—both of which are profitable at Planada. The owner of a Planada Farm should earn NET per acre $30 to $60 from alfalfa, $75 to $120 dairying, $70 on black-eyed beans, $100 to $250 on sweet potatoes, $25 to $35 raising oat hay, $25 to $30 on barley, $40 to $60 on corn, $100 to $300 on cantaloupes, $250 on onions, $75 to $100 on Irish potatoes, $400 to $600 on tomatoes.

10 and 20-Acre Farms—Free Water Connections

Wells to be located on each 160 acres, pumped by electrically driven pumps deliver water to each farm by this form of irrigation. NO WEED SEEDS can be carried on the land—as is common where open ditch irrigation is used. A share of water stock is delivered FREE with EACH ACRE. Several wells are now in, and others are being sunk as rapidly as possible.

Ten passenger and eight freight trains daily on the Santa Fe main line call at Planada—giving access to the great markets of the state in a few hours.

Low Prices—Easy Terms—Highest Values

Feature the sale of Planada lands. Write for our new illustrated booklet—it's free—and for detailed information on the finest proposition of its kind in the state. Two popular priced excursions this week.

ROOSEVELTERS WANT TO DO IT.

Would Reorganize What They Tried to Destroy.

Conference of Leaders in Chicago and Gotham.

Enormous Total of T. R.'s Campaign Fund.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Notable Republicans from all States, it was declared tonight by those conversant with the facts, have begun a movement for the rehabilitation of the Republican party which is to practically start while the Progressives, headed by ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, are in Chicago planning for the permanency of the Progressive movement. The Progressives are to assemble in Chicago on December 16, where their State committees and county committees and leaders are to map out a programme for the next four years.

It was announced tonight that a great gathering of Republicans from all States is to assemble at the Hotel Astor on December 14, and that the President is to be present.

OTHERS PRESENT.

Besides President Taft, there are to be present Senator Root, Senator Lodge, Senator Burton of Ohio, President Hadley of Yale, Senator Crane, Harry New of Indiana, President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, ex-Mayor Seth Low and many others from all the States.

It is the intention to invite prominent business men and bankers from all over the country, the employers of labor and all others who stood steadfast for Taft and Sherman on election day. The occasion will be a banquet, but before and after there will be conferences among the leading Republicans in an effort to take account of stock and to devise plans for a forward movement of the Republican party.

WHERE HANNA STANDS.

It was stated tonight that Dan R. Hanna of Ohio, who contributed so largely to the Progressive campaign fund, is not to go, on with the Progressives, and that Mr. Hanna is to return to the Republican fold. It was stated also that very many other leading Republicans who for one reason or another deserted their party on election day and either joined the Progressives or remained quiescent are now to return to the Republican party.

PRIMA DONNA'S RARE RECEPTION.

CALIFORNIA SONGBIRD LUMINARY IN ALL-STAR CAST.

Musical Comedy That Is Amusing Remarkable in That Every Participant Shines Individually—Diva Obliged to Smoke Resorts to Cubebs!

BY HECTOR ALLIOT.

Our own prima donna, Alice Nielsen, the Californian, was greeted last night by a rare reception. It was to be expected; but the remarkable feature of that concert and musical comedy was that every participant, even the mute servant of Susanna, received an unusual applause.

It is seldom that we are favored with an all-star company of such merit. It would be difficult to differentiate among the singers.

While the first part of the programme was composed of songs, accompanied on the piano only, it pleased the large audience of music lovers by the superior quality of the voices and the selection of parts.

Donizetti's duet, "Linda di Chamounix," was beautifully sung by Fornari, baritone, and Mardones, the basso. Ramella, the lyric tenor, not only gave the aria from "La Boheme," but was recalled three times. Miss Nielsen gave the aria of "La Tosca" with that fine control of voice and delivery that has won for her world-wide recognition.

Fornari acquitted himself excellently of the aria in "Il Barbieri," a most difficult task for a gentleman in evening clothes.

Mlle. Jeska Swartz, a fine contralto, first sang the aria of Joan d'Arc, a difficult composition of Tschaikowski with commendable success, but her encore of "The Little Captain" was far more satisfactory as she is more at home in light opera and lighter parts.

Verdi's "Boccanegra" was one of the best numbers of the evening and brought out in all its beauty and strength the wonderful voice of Mardones.

It is easy to understand why he has received the highest praise in Spanish-America, although he was utterly unknown here until recently when Henry Russell secured his services.

Mardones's voice is remarkable in quality, tone and range; he rises to the tenor robusto, and while remaining a singing basso of rare breadth.

Nothing could demonstrate more than the concert part of Alice Nielsen's company, how absurd it is that the present canons of opera singing should require singers to give certain numbers in a language with which they have little or no sympathy.

When Mardones, a Spaniard in built, in thought and sentiment, sang in Italian "Boccanegra," he sang admirably to be sure. But when as an encore he gave "El Toreador" and then the old love song of Andalusia he received an ovation.

Unconsciously the audience felt something magnetic, real and alive in a Spaniard singing the songs of his land.

And it was all the more real because not 10 per cent. of the audience ever realized that he sang the first number in Italian and the two others in Spanish.

The bouquet of the evening was the extra number not in the programme, the duo of "Madam Butterfly" exquisitely sung by Alice Nielsen and Miss Swartz.

In the production of the "Secret of Susanne" Miss Nielsen filled the leading part, Fornari Count Gil and Tavecchia the deaf and dumb valet.

It is a very amusing play about nothing; still more about nothing because Miss Nielsen, who abhors smoking, is obliged to make believe and she uses not tobacco, shades of Gertrude Atherton, but cubebs!

There will not be the long-expected concert by Juan de la Cruz tonight.

Pharyngitis mixed with laryngitis precludes the appearance of the gifted basso. The concert is postponed for at least two weeks.

The Great Kidney Remedy Convinces the Most Skeptical

I want to tell you what Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root did for me. I was completely broken down. My kidneys hurt me so that when I was down, I could not get up unless I took hold of something to pull myself up with.

I tried different kinds of kidney pills, but they did me no good. Someone told me to try Swamp-Root. I had no faith in it, but to please my wife I purchased one bottle and took it. I saw it was beginning to help me and kept on taking it until I had taken 6 bottles and it straightened me out all right.

Swamp-Root is the only medicine that did me any good. I thought I would write this letter and tell everyone that is afflicted as I was, to take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The 6 bottles I took cost me five dollars, and did me five hundred dollars worth of good.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE H. HUBER,
Atlanta, Ill.

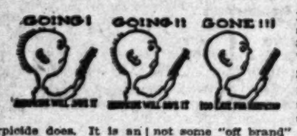
Newbro's Herpicide Aids Nature and Keeps the Scalp Clean from Dandruff

Reasonable care and effort are all that are required to enable almost any woman to have good hair. When the hair falls out and is stringy, uneven, dry, brittle and generally unsightly, the condition is nearly always due to dandruff and the germ that causes it.

Before the hair will grow naturally and luxuriantly, the scale-like accumulation must be removed and the dandruff germ destroyed. That is what Newbro's Herpicide does. It is an aid to nature. Herpicide keeps the scalp clean, adds a softness and luster to the hair which indicates health. It not only prevents the hair from falling out but causes it to become one of woman's greatest charms.

Beautiful hair and lots of it may be the reward of every woman willing to devote a little personal effort to the use of the First and Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp. It has an exquisite odor.

You can obtain a trial size bottle and booklet telling all about the hair by sending ten cents in postage or silver to The Herpicide Co., Dept. S, Detroit, Mich.



Your dealer sells Herpicide in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and guarantees satisfactory results or money refunded. Insist upon having genuine Herpicide and not some "off brand" said to be "just as good" preparation. There is only one excuse for the "off brand"—it pays the dealer a larger profit. It costs you just as much as the real article. Why take chances? Herpicide applications obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors. The Sun Drug Co., 328 So. McNamaras.

FIRST A THREAT, THEN THE "JOB."

Chronology of Events in Life of the McNamaras.

Witnesses Tell of Visits by Walking Delegate.

Trainmen Testify in the Indianapolis Trials.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THIS TIMES.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 26.—According to show the implication of Ortie E. McManigal, labor union officials in plots, the government introduced at the dynamite conspiracy trial today testimony that explosions on non-union iron works followed the refusal of contractors to unionize their jobs after personal visits by some of the defendants.

Before two charges of dynamite exploded on a bridge in St. Louis on August 9, 1908, testified John T. Garrett, president of a construction firm, he was visited by John H. Barry of the local Ironworkers' Union.

"Barry wanted me to unionize the job," Garrett said.

"You'll find it a great deal cheaper, for you know what will happen," he said. I told him I suspected he was going to dynamite the job and he said better be careful. It was blown up later."

AN INDIANA JOB.

Wallace Marshall told of putting up a job at French Lick, Ind., after he had been visited by Fred Sherman, union business agent.

"Sherman told me I had better unionize the job," Marshall said, "but I lost my temper and told him I would have nothing to do with the nefarious, dynamiting ironworkers. An explosion occurred in March, 1911."

E. J. McCain said his firm suffered three explosions on jobs at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1910, and one in Erie, Pa., in 1911, after he had been visited by John T. Butler, vice-president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers.

"Butler told us we would be sorry when we refused to deal with the union," McCain said.

TRAINMEN TESTIFIED.

Relative to the government's charges that the forty-five defendants aided in the illegal transportation of explosives, many trainmen testified about trains on which Ortie E. Mc-

LAWLER IS IMP AT I

AFTER passing several days in the Federal courtroom at Indianapolis, two things greatly impressed themselves upon Oscar Lawler, former special assistant to the Attorney-General in the investigation of the dynamite conspiracy. One of these was the quiet, efficient manner in which Dist.-Atty. Miller is prosecuting the case of the government, and the other is the orderly conduct of the courtroom.

Lawler returned to Los Angeles yesterday after a several weeks' visit in the East. He met the President, he says, appeared unusually well and in a happy frame of mind. Lawler went to Indianapolis for the primary purpose of testifying from actual knowledge of the operations of the San Francisco labor union leaders in connection with the plot to blow up the Times Building and murder its employees.

Despite the fact that the name of Lawler's former special prosecutor of the McNamaras, Johannsen, Clancy and other unionites was "anathemaized" by the labor union men in Indianapolis, each day Lawler walked quietly by their headquarters and heard the remarks made about him. He said he took no precautions of any kind against possible violence and in fact never thought of such a thing.

QUIET IN COURT.

"It was a great pleasure to sit in the United States District courtroom and hear the procedure of the case," remarked Lawler last night. "Judge Anderson is not only a thorough lawyer, but he knows the law applicable to the particular case on trial. The courtroom seats perhaps 400 persons, and you could hear a pin drop, and for all the time I was there, no wrangings of counsel marred the orderly conduct of the lawsuit. The case is proceeding with celerity. Court begins at 9:30 in the morning and lasts until noon, with an intermission about 11. In the afternoon it opens at 1:30 and with the exception of a short recess lasts until 5 o'clock. All the objections and arguments upon objections do not consume more than fifteen minutes a day on an average. Almost every minute is taken up with the introduction of testimony."

Lawler declared the courtroom scene from a lawyer's point of view was ideal. He remarked that it furnished an object lesson to other trials, particularly to one in which a similar trial recently took place in this city.

"Not only do Miller and his associates present in an able manner the government's case, but the counsel for the defense are courteous and full of ability," said Lawler. "They have conducted the case throughout with a proper regard for the interests of their clients, and at the same time have shown the respect due the presiding judge."

VAST LOT OF EVIDENCE.

One of the significant things noted by Lawler was the fact that the prosecution has a vast amount of evidence besides that furnished by the confession of California through Capt. Peterson and his deputies who worked on the McNamara case. He remarked upon a ruling which was made to the effect that acts and declarations of persons not under indictment were admissible as against those on trial only when the government had shown their participation in the alleged acts of conspiracy. In other words, the acts and declarations of Anton Johannsen, secretary-treasurer of the California State Building Trades Council, were admitted by the court, and it was only after it had been shown that H. W. Pohlman, as a delegate of the Ironworkers' union of Seattle, who proved recalcitrant when examined in the local Federal Court, produced much-wanted documents at Indianapolis under

TRAINMEN TESTIFIED.

...ative to the government's ...on that the forty-five defendants ...ed in the illegal transportation of ...plosives, many trainmen testified ...ut trains on which Ortie E. Mc-Manigal and the McNamaras traveled. One porter told of luggage carried by James B. McNamara when the latter went from Chicago to Oakland, Cal., in July, 1910. It was on that trip that McNamara, after visiting Seattle and San Francisco, blew up the Los Angeles Times Building.

J. B. Robinson, a porter, told of carrying McManigal's luggage on the train to Los Angeles in December, 1910.

"Did you know what was in his luggage?" Dist.-Atty. Miller asked.

"No, sir, I did not know then, but I do now," answered Robinson.

INTERROGATES M'MANIGAL.

Senator Kern, chief counsel for the forty-five defendants, plied McManigal with questions intended to show that the dynamiter kept as secluded as possible while on his trips of destruction.

"When I went to Boston to see Michael J. Young, the ironworkers' business agent, about blowing up the tower on the municipal buildings at Springfield, Mass., in April, 1911, Young called me down," said McNanigal. "He said he had told J. J. McNamara I was not to stop at Boston as Young did not want to be seen with me."

"Didn't McNamara tell you always to see as few people as possible, and didn't you receive your instructions from McNamara alone?" asked Senator Kern.

"From McNamara and Herbert S. Hockin. Once when Hockin instructed me I told him if I was caught we all would be caught."

"But you never got any instruction about jobs to be blown up from anyone except McNamara?"

"I said McNamara and Hockin. Young in Boston talked to me about doing work for the local union. I told him I worked only for the International."

TVEITMOE'S GRIN.

Olaf A. Tveitmoe, San Francisco, a defendant, who had been sitting at counsel's table since the trial began, was ordered by Judge Anderson to sit among the other defendants.

"I notice there is a perpetual smile on the face of the defendant, Tveitmoe, while the witness is being examined," said Judge Anderson. "I will not permit any demonstration, whether by smiling or otherwise."

Before two explosions on a viaduct at Springfield, Ill., on March 8, 1911, when $45,000 damage was done, Patrick F. Murphy testified he was visited by Fred Spears, a union official, and told by Spears if the job was not unionized it would be "put on the bum."

When the defendant objected, Dist.-Atty. Miller said:

"It has been shown that Spears though not indicted has been a co-conspirator and ought to have been indicted."

The court overruled the objection and the witness said he understood Spears threatened the use of dynamite. Mr. Miller said J. B. McNamara actually blew up the job.

Pohlman was held in contempt here by Judge Wellborn—a matter that may later come up here, stated Lawler.

"United States Dist.-Atty. Miller expects to conclude his direct evidence by December 10," continued Lawler. "There has been no direct intimation as to the course to be pursued by the defense, headed by Senator Kern and Attorney Harding. There was some talk when I was there that the defense would confine itself to character witnesses and not attempt to go into a general refutation of the charges made by the government witnesses.

PROSECUTORS CONFIDENT.

"The prosecutors appear confident that every man under indictment will be convicted. If this proves to be the case, the defendants are liable to heavy punishment under the law. There are two indictments, one charging conspiracy and the other with fifteen counts, alleging the illegal transportation of dynamite. The conspiracy charge carries a penitentiary sentence of two years. On the other indictment it would be legally possible for each convicted person to be sentenced one year and a half on each of the fifteen counts, provided of course that the jury brings in a verdict of guilty."

Lawler stated that McManigal made a good witness, his testimony being corroborated at every important point by other witnesses and by documentary evidence.

Lawler commented upon the press dispatch which stated in substance that Judge Anderson had made O. A. Tveitmoe, one of the defendants, take his place with the rest of the prisoners. Lawler said when he was there Tveitmoe occupied a conspicuous place behind Senator Kern at the table used exclusively by defendants' counsel and that he seemed to invite attention from the spectators.

Lawler also stated that the California end of the alleged nation-wide conspiracy is receiving due attention and from his own knowledge of the evidence collected here in the State and Federal Court, he has no doubt but that the alleged conspirators among the Pacific Coast labor-union leaders will face as much evidence as those asserted to be guilty of plotting to blow up bridges and unfinished industrial plants in the East.

Beveridge at Dollar Dinner Declares Progressive Party Is Solution of Sectional Problem.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 26.—That the Progressive party is the natural solution of an abnormal geographical division in American politics—that between the North and the South—was the assertion made here tonight by Albert J. Beveridge, former Senator from Indiana, in an address at a "dollar dinner" given in Convention Hall under the auspices of the Jackson County Progressives' Association.

"The potential, but latent nation is here, and it cries aloud for expression," he said. "The Progressive party is the answer to the cry.

"Of all the people of the earth," he said, "only in America, does geography settle political action. Only in America are votes cast by physical location. The wrong that this does to every American man and woman, is plain."

MAY SUPPLANT THE MARCONI.

English Admiralty Experts for Poulsen System.

Foreshadowed Change in Wireless Causes Storm.

Government Wants More as to Its Reliability.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE BY WIRELESS OVERLAND TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Much interest is felt in the session of the Marconi select parliamentary committee to be held tomorrow, in view of the strong testimony in favor of the Poulsen system by Admiralty experts at yesterday's sitting. It is regarded likely that further testimony showing the certainty and reliability of this system will be presented despite the opposition of some of the government members.

When Beach Thompson, president of the Federal Telegraph Company, was recalled by the committee yesterday, he became the center of a parliamentary storm.

Mr. Thompson had further reports of recent successes of the wireless work of the Poulsen system between San Francisco and Honolulu which Lord Robert Cecil was anxious to bring before the committee, but William Redmond, a strong supporter of the government, angrily opposed Thompson's examination and at exactly 4 o'clock sprang from his seat and left the committee, banging the door as he went. The committee, obviously flurried, did not question Thompson.

Just before this Capt. Charloton of the Admiralty had protested the reading of certain notes made by H. A. Madge, the Admiralty's wireless expert, but the Lords of the Admiralty gave their consent as he was acting under instructions given to him by a high authority earlier in the day.

Mr. Madge testified that when he gave evidence before the Imperial Wireless Committee a year ago, he had expressed the opinion that the Poulsen system required further time to experiment. His opinion today was that the Poulsen system can do its work with certainty. A technical subcommittee had investigated the system more than a year ago but its report was not submitted to the Imperial Wireless Committee. The main working principles of the Poulsen system, the witness said, had been established.

The committee then adjourned until Wednesday.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 26.—Eleven men of the Black Sea fleet, recently condemned to death for inciting mutiny, were shot today at Sebastopol. Four hundred sailors of the fleet are being transferred to Raval and Vladivostok. Strikes are being declared in various parts of the country as a protest against the action of the government.

Puff! Puff!

PIPE OR CIGAR STILL ON CAR.

NO-SMOKE RECOMMENDATIONS TURNED DOWN.

City Council Tells Board of Public Utilities It Would Better Regulate Corporations and Crowded Cars Than Passengers' Morals. Now There's Talk of Initiative.

Smack in the cigar pocket of the Public Utilities Board went the punch of the City Council yesterday when the subject of the prohibition of smoking on street cars was taken up. The Council filed the recommendation of the board, only Councilman Andrews voting to sustain the recommendations.

After the reading of the recommendations, which were published in The Times on Sunday, Councilman Betkouski moved that the communication be filed, and this was seconded by Reed, who declared the proposed no-smoking ordinance "grandmotherly legislation" and stated that he believed the board should use its time in considering matters connected with the regulation of the public utilities and give up any attempt to regulate public morals.

"I think this community can stand a little smoke from cigars or even pipes," declared Reed, "but we are getting tired of this everlasting crowding of street cars. If the Board of Public Utilities will bend its energies toward getting us more room on the street cars, we won't be objecting to being crowded close onto the smokers. I have yet to learn that a cigar is a public utility.

"It seems to me the board should not attempt to undertake the regulation of moral questions, but that it might well devote its time to preventing corporations from grabbing valuable public privileges and to formulating plans for the regulation of gas meters and water services. It's time to quit this grandmotherly sort of legislation."

The filing of the recommendations from the Utilities Board has killed the no-smoking movement so far as city officials are concerned; but it was intimated yesterday that the subject is not to be allowed to lie peacefully in its grave, but that an initiative petition may be started, backed by certain women's clubs of the city.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair coming out?—If dry, brittle, thin or your scalp itches and is full of dandruff—Use "Danderine."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; and incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

LIGHT FROM THE EAST ON THE LIVING ISSUES.

(BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] The following editorial comments on topics of the hour are printed in eastern newspapers:

SUFFRAGISTS ASTRAY.

PARTISANSHIP OBSTRUCTS.

[New York World, Nov. 25:] For the woman suffragists to throw their organization into partisan politics would be to obstruct the progress of their cause. No doubt, at their Philadelphia convention, many of them in voting were largely inspired by personal consideration for Miss Jane Addams. But if in the circumstances the feelings of one woman are of more importance to them than the success of their cause, by their own voices they help justify the attacks of the anti-suffragists.

Every time the suffragists lend themselves to the purposes of one political party or another they will draw the antagonism of other parties in the field. They will be certain in the end to lose more than they gain.

WAR TALK OMINOUS.

SEEMINGLY IMPOSSIBLE CLASH.

[Baltimore American, Nov. 25:] There have been many times during the past quarter of a century when the prospect of a gigantic war involving the whole of Europe has loomed dark and threatening, but on no occasion has this prospect been more portentously threatening than at present.

The alarming status of the controversy is that Russia is reported to be moving vast armies to her western boundaries and both Austria and Germany are said to be mobilizing forces upon a huge scale. If this gigantic struggle should be started a great deal more in the outcome would be involved than the settlement of the question as to whether Servia is to have her window on the Adriatic.

It is hardly conceivable that Great Britain and France could keep out of an involvment in which Austria and Germany in alliance would be in contest with Russia. The success of either would mean such a readjustment of the map of Europe that neither France nor Great Britain could assent. The magnitude of the threatened struggle is what should seemingly render it impossible.

SENATE LEADERSHIP.

GORE PICKED FOR TASK.

[New York Sun, Nov. 24:] Senator Gore of Oklahoma, who is to be Democratic leader in the Senate, according to the best sources of information in Washington, has some qualifications for the part and there are some reasons for doubting the wisdom of the choice. He knows the business of the Senate in spite of his affliction and he has a remarkable memory for details. In the political history of the country he is fairly well grounded. His application is extraordinary, his temper conciliatory and he has the respect of his colleagues on both sides of the chamber.

The fact that Mr. Gore has fought his way up from obscurity and grinding poverty to a seat in the United States Senate—the story is moving to a degree—proves the mettle and good raw material of the man.

Giving the Hon. Thomas P. Gore credit as a self-educated and self-made man in the face of adversity that would crush most men into the dust, it would be to exaggerate his merits to say that he has mastered any public questions or shown a mature judgment in discussing them.

RUMORS OF WAR.

CONFLICT IMPROBABLE.

[New York Times, Nov. 25:] Here are some of the facts of capital importance which it is well to keep in mind in considering the rumors of impending war that fill the air.

Austria-Hungary will not fight Russia unless backed by both her associates in the Triple Alliance, Germany and Italy.

Russia will not fight Austria-Hungary unless backed by her ally, France, and her friend, Great Britain.

It lies therefore within the power of any one of four governments to veto action that would lead to a general conflict. It will not do to say that this makes war impossible. It is plain that it makes it highly improbable.

NO PEACE FOR WILSON.

ON TRAIL OF PRESIDENT-ELECT.

[Baltimore American, Nov. 24:] Trouble, like a storm-tossed cloud or like a rampaging nightmare, is besetting the seclusion which President-elect Wilson expected to find on a little island far out in the Atlantic.

The campaign friends are on his trail and coaxing and persuading having failed, the Governor was so wrought up last week that he threatened to thrash a persistent snapshotter.

The basket hangs out on Dr. Wilson's front gate and that is a Bermudian sign that the family is not at home. But the Bermudians gaze over the pickets and see unmistakable signs that the family is at home. And so they pretend not to know about the significance of the basket and ramble up the pebbled pathway leading to the front porch and juggle the knocker.

Part of the Famous Fontana Gravity Water System. Irrigates Fontana Citrus Lands at Low Cost.

---What it means to invest in a Fontana Orange Grove

The citrus trees in the Fontana-Rialto district are noted for their heavy yields of fruit. A comparison of the fruit now on full-bearing trees in this district, with the amount of fruit on trees in various other districts is rather surprising.

To the man or woman seeking an ideal location for an orange grove,—the Fontana district makes a deep appeal. Here is a citrus project backed by some of the wealthiest men in Southern California—men of integrity and high reputation in the business world. This project is being conducted along practical, successful, scientific lines.

Some of the strong features of this now famous citrus project are—the maintenance of a weather bureau, an extensive horticultural and experimental department, supervision of all groves by an experienced citrus expert, the extreme care used in the selection of all trees, the guarantee to purchasers that all trees planted are sturdy, well matured and absolutely free from disease, and the scientific methods used in bringing groves to maturity.

Other admirable features of the Fontana district are—the wonderful gravity water system which flows down from Lytle creek. Water authorities claim this to be one of the most valuable water rights of the Southwest. Purchasers of Fontana groves become part owners of this valuable system. The water is brought in covered concrete pipes direct to each tract sold. A share of water stock is included with each acre. Many of the grove owners value their shares today at $250.00 each.

In every grove the company sells, it has actually more money invested than the amount of the first payment made by the purchaser. The Fontana Company has strongly testified to its confidence in this citrus project by expending what is probably the largest sum of money for development work, ever before appropriated for the improvement of a similar proposition.

Fontana groves are planted to order to any variety of citrus fruit (oranges, lemons, grapefruit, etc.) for $450 per acre, under a six-year plan of payment. Investigation will prove that these are the most satisfactory terms obtainable in connection with any high-class citrus land on the market.

The company contracts to care for young groves of non-residents for the very reasonable sum of two dollars per acre per month. More than 1200 acres of young groves are now being maintained for non-residents.

The Fontana district enjoys absolute freedom from scale, smut and other undesirable elements. Fumigation is practically unknown here. Buying a Fontana grove is as practical as an investment in bonds—there is absolutely no element of risk. This is a proven district. Heavily laden groves on all sides and the packing-house returns leave no doubt in the mind of the investor.

The Fontana district offers you excellent transportation via the Santa Fe railway (two hours from Los Angeles.) The new Pacific Electric railway extension to Fontana will soon be completed.

The Fontana district offers you high, healthful elevation (altitude 1300 ft.) beautiful mountain scenery, pure mountain water, easy access to schools, churches, banks, stores, etc. For further information apply to Thomas D. Campbell & Co., Exclusive selling agents for the Fontana Co., 625 So. Hill street, Los Angeles.

IN BEAUTIFUL WEST VIEW TRACT
100-FOOT WASHINGTON BLVD.

There is just being completed today an exquisite 7-room bungalow—a veritable artistic masterpiece—as a building model for purchasers in this highly-attractive subdivision, to follow. Neither time, labor nor money are spared to make of this a little home that a king might well be proud to live in. There is everything that goes to make up the 20-minute California bungalow idea; built-in effects, hardwood floors, exquisite electric fixtures, lawn, garage, cement walks, fine car line, and the ridiculously low price of $4000 will buy house, lot and all, and on easy terms at that.
Go out and see it TODAY and the first to pay down enough money to insure immediate occupancy will be the lucky purchaser of the very best bargain ever offered in this or any other strictly high-class and ultra-exclusive tract.
Take Washington car marked "Pimpo" and get off at the door of this tract for MR. F. H. Clarke, tract manager, who will give you the key. Act QUICKLY if you want a bargain.

FOR SALE—
OWENS VALLEY IRRIGATED
APPLE LAND.

Have you been reading our advertisements of apple land? Others have, for we are getting inquiries every day. Horticultural experts say that the apples grown in the Owens Valley is the best apple to be had. This is so because of the fertile soil and perfect climatic conditions in that valley, not only for the raising of apples, but also of alfalfa and all kinds of vegetables and berries. Good incomes are now being made from chickens, bees, turkeys and live stock. Our land adjoins thriving little towns where there are good schools and churches. 250 miles from LAS Angeles on the Southern Pacific Trunk Line to the East.

Water Goes With Each Tract Sold.

FOR SALE—ORANGE OR LEMON LAND. DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY.
Beautiful cove property consisting of 760 acres, located in the famous Orosi district of Tulare county. This is the cream of the citrus lands in the great San Joaquin Valley, lying as it does north of the Porterville, Lindsay and Exeter districts and south of Mt. Campbell. About 400 acres of this ranch is first-class citrus soil, which has a gentle slope toward the floor of the valley; is perfectly sheltered by the protecting arms of the mountains and the crowning feature is the abundance of water. There are numerous living springs and one good well with a 10-horse-power engine and No. 12 Layne & Bowler pump, capable of throwing 65 inches of water. There is a nursery on the place, with which goes a one-fourth interest in the stock; grass seed; 130,000 trees. Place all fenced and cross-fenced. Small house, two good barns; an abundance of oak timber. This is the best and cheapest cove property left in the San Joaquin Valley. Owner must sell. Will stand closest investigation. Price $35,000. For further information call on or write J. W. BISWELL, Orosi, Cal.

140 acres all purpose land, would be excellent for olives, grapes or deciduous fruits, balance of property is in foothills and affords splendid pasture.
This is a decomposed granite soil, very rich, easy of cultivation and is now growing fine crops of wheat, corn, barley and oats, without irrigation, and is absolutely free from alkali, surface water only 30 feet. This ranch will pay for itself in three good crops of hay alone, and double in value besides. And is so situated that it controls several hundred acres of valuable pasture land in adjacent hills. Affording a splendid opportunity for some one who desires to engage in stock raising as well. If you are looking for something safe, sound and sure, look this up. One-third cash, balance one, two, three years at 7 per cent.

YUCAIPA VALLEY—

FOR SALE—
RED APPLE LAND IN THE
YUCAIPA VALLEY.

WHY WORRY ABOUT WHAT THE NEXT CONGRESS IS GOING TO DO TO THE TARIFF? WHY SIT UP NIGHTS IN FEAR OF A FROST THAT WILL KILL YOUR YOUNG TREES OR RUIN YOUR CROPS? WHEN YOU CAN RAISE BIG RED PRIZE-WINNING APPLES IN THE YUCAIPA VALLEY, THAT NET THE GROWER $1.50 TO $2.00 A BOX IN THE ORCHARD? NO ACT OF LEGISLATORS OR RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS CAN HURT THE APPLE-GROWING BUSINESS. WE HAVE A HOME DEMAND FOR GOOD APPLES SEVEN TIMES AS GREAT AS THE SUPPLY, WITH A LIMITED AREA THAT WILL PRODUCE HIGH-CLASS APPLES, SUCH AS ARE GROWN IN THE YUCAIPA VALLEY, THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO DANGER OF OVER-SUPPLY. IT IS NO UNCOMMON occurrence FOR APPLE ORCHARDS IN THE YUCAIPA VALLEY TO YIELD OVER $1000 AN ACRE A YEAR.

THIS GREAT HOME DEMAND GIVES US EASY TRANSPORTATION, HIGH PRICES TO THE GROWER, NO LONG WAITS FOR THE MONEY AND NO GAMBLE ON WHAT YOU MAY OR MAY NOT GET FOR YOUR CROP. THE BUYERS WILL COME RIGHT INTO YOUR ORCHARD AND PAY YOU THESE HIGH PRICES. ASK THE LOS ANGELES COMMISSION MEN AND YOU WILL LEARN THAT THE YUCAIPA VALLEY APPLES ARE NOTED FOR THEIR BEAUTIFUL COLOR, FINE FLAVOR AND KEEPING AND SHIPING QUALITIES.

WE ARE OFFERING TODAY PERFECT APPLE LAND, DEEP, RICH SOIL, WITH PLENTY OF PURE MOUNTAIN WATER AT $275 TO $300 AN ACRE, ONE-FOURTH CASH, AND THE BALANCE IN TWO, THREE AND FOUR YEARS, WITH INTEREST AT 6 PER CENT. THE LAND LIES PERFECTLY LEVEL, REQUIRES NO GRADING OR CLEARING, CONTAINS NO ALKALI OR HARD-PAN. THE WATER IS BEING PIPED TO THE LAND IN STEEL PIPES UNDER PRESSURE, AND WE HAVE THE VERY BEST APPLE TREES AT 10c DELIVERED IN YUCAIPA. TOTAL COST OF SCIENTIFIC PLANTING (INCLUDING COST OF TREES) IS ONLY $23 AN ACRE, FOUR YEARS AT CAREFUL SCIENTIFIC CULTIVATION, IRRIGATION, PRUNING, ETC., THAT WILL DEVELOP A PERFECT ORCHARD; INCLUDING WATER ASSESSMENTS, TAXES, ETC., WILL AMOUNT TO NOT MORE THAN $100 AN ACRE FOR THE PERIOD.

A LOAN FROM US—
Saves Money.
If you want money on FURNITURE, PIANO, horses, wagons, live stock or other personal property, without giving up the possession or use of same, BORROW FROM US AND SAVE MONEY.
Our plan gives you definite amount to pay each month, including both principal and interest, and you know just what you stand at all times, and if you find that you can pay before the loan expires you will receive a substantial rebate on the total cost. In this way a loan can be paid off much quicker and your month less expensive than providing for payment of interest only. The reputation we have firmly established with those who know us is A GUARANTEE FOR ALL THE TIME.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

Times Branch Office, No. 417 South Spring street.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Chance for Soil Artists.

The government has four agricultural inspectorships in the Philippine Islands to fill and an examiantion under the National Civil Service Commission is scheduled for December 11. Preference in appointments will be given eligibles who are graduates of agricultural colleges.

Crittenton Home Reception.

Mrs. Kate Walter Barrett, national president of the Florence Crittenton Home, has notified the local managers of the Home that she will attend the public reception and inspection on Friday of next week from 2:30 until 5 p.m. The nursery is filled with babes, and an interesting afternoon is promised.

Arroyo Seco Banquet.

The Arroyo Seco Chamber of Commerce will hold its get-together banquet at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the Masonic Hall, Avenue 57 and Pasadena avenue, presided over by H. M. Chapman. The list of speakers includes Public Librarian Perry, Councilman McKenzie, City Clerk Handley, Supervisor Pridham, W. A. Roberts, D. J. Vincent, Mrs. G. J. Finield, John D. Roberts and a representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and also of the Ebell Club.

Tunnel Laborers Exempted.

The Civil Service Commission has exempted from the qualifying list, according to notice to the Public Service Commission yesterday, all classes of workmen on the Franklin Canyon tunnel pipe line, except three tunnel shift foremen, line foreman and tunnel foreman. The request of the engineer was made because of the impossibility of getting men when needed, without delay. On this job, at least, it will not be necessary for a man to pass examination in book-keeping if he wants to be a tunnel mucker.

To Receive Lodge Brothers.

Los Angeles Lodge No. 99, B.P.O.E., will entertain in their clubhouse tonight in honor of their brother Elks from Pasadena Lodge. The programme will include vaudeville from the local theaters and a turkey and cranberry banquet. The reception is the first of a series which Exalted Ruler Lovie has arranged for all the Elks lodges in Southern California. The committee having charge of the entertainment tonight consists of T. Newman, M. F. Shannon, Harry Girard, Morris Goldenson, Jake Schaffer and C. P. Kitts.

BEWARE OF STORY-TELLER.

Smiling, Genial, Fastidious One Who Jumps Bail Is Wanted by Detectives.

Beware of a well-dressed man of polished manners, who pretends to be an insurance agent and who, after telling several good stories, casually takes a check from his pocket and asks that it be cashed. The story-telling, smiling, genial individual has eluded prosecution for more than a year, according to detectives.

A reward of $50 has been posted for information leading to his apprehension. Police detectives are searching for him. His real name is given as Leonard J. Wickett, but he is said by the police to have used the following aliases: George Higgins, William Mathews, H. C. Curwood, Charles N. Chapman, C. E. Ellis, treasurer of the Los Angeles Realty Investment Company; John C. Post, H. H. Hammond and R. R. Randolph.

Wickett pretends to be an Elk, a member of Passaic (N. J.) Lodge, No. 337. He wears a double-tooth elk charm on his watch chain. He is 34 years old, 5 feet 11 inches in height, weighs 180 pounds, has hazel eyes, and light brown hair, is smooth-shaven, has a long nose and chin and wears nose glasses.

FOR THE PUBLIC
New Formula Cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Hoarseness in Five Hours.

Much is being done in these days to stop the ravages of consumption, but probably nothing has been so effective as teaching the public how to break up a cold and cure coughs, bronchitis, tonsilitis, etc., with simple home-mixed medicine. A laxative cough syrup free from whisky is the prime need. A cough indicates inflammation and congestion and these in turn are due to an excess of waste and poison in the system. A tonic laxative cough syrup rids the system of congestion, while relieving the painful coughing. Get the following and mix at home: One-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Shake the bottle and take twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times daily. Give children less, according to age. Cut this out and save it for some friend.—[Advertisement.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

PEOPLE WON'T STAND CHARTER IMPOSITION.

Many Leading Citizens Declare Against the Dangerous Freak.

Tricky Political Boss Rule and Perpetuation of Good Government Machine Power Under Lissner-Eddie Scheme Too Much to Swallow—Energetic Fight Will Be Made Against It—What Prominent Men Say.

THE campaign against the proposed city charter framed by the Guy Eddie crowd of moral uplifters is to be waged vigorously from now until next Tuesday, when the special election will be held. Hundreds of leading business and professional men with the best interests of the city at heart are taking an active part in the rising movement against the dangerous and freakish creation woven into shape by Boss Lissner, Dr. Haynes, professional faddist; Lewis R. Works, Guy Eddie's attorney; Harley W. Brundidge of the Express, Eddie's friend and advisor; Fred C. Wheeler, Socialist; Prof. C. E. Locke, a Socialist and champion of the I.W.W.'s, and nine other freeholders.

Scores of meetings have been arranged for the last few days of the campaign and literature showing the shams and wily provisions in the cleverly jumbled document is being distributed to the voters. Several improvement associations and other organizations have identified themselves with the anti-charter movement and are assisting in making an effective fight against the vicious political concoction.

STATING PLAIN REASONS.

Here's what a few prominent citizens in various walks of life have to say about the proposed machine-building charter:

Col. W. H. Holabird, veteran developer of Southern California, and receiver for the California Development Company: You bet I am opposed to the new city charter. It's a vicious thing and was framed by a gang of men bent on securing control of the city government for all time. The power once vested in this ring of hypocrites and cold-blooded politicians, it will be almost impossible to wrest it from them, inasmuch as they have cunningly provided in the charter that whereas it may be adopted by a majority vote, a two-thirds vote of the people shall be required to repeal or alter it.

The proposed charter would turn the vast revenues of the city and our public enterprises over to grasping politicians and pile up taxes at a tremendous rate and injure the city's credit at home and abroad. I'm so disgusted with the present city administration and the gang of rogues behind it that I feel like selling my property and going up in a balloon to live. I hope the decent and level-headed citizens of this glorious city of Los Angeles wake up and smash this bunch of rascals to a pulp. That's just the way I feel about it. It certainly is disheartening.

R. W. Dromgold, former Councilman and leading business man: I am opposed to the city charter because it provides for the commission form of government. I am strongly opposed to the centralizing provisions of the charter. If we adopt the charter we will deliver all the municipal and governmental power of the city into the hands and keeping of seven men for four years. These seven men will have the power to appoint all the hundreds of other officers and employees, thus building a political machine that will last for many years. The machine will hold sway over all departments of the city government, and no man's property or liberty will be safe from their reprisals.

Instead of giving us a government for the people it would give us a government by a clique of designing politicians. I believe in keeping government in the hands of the people, where it belongs. Under the provisions of the proposed city charter the politicians in control could engage in any sort of business and the property owners would have to foot the bills. It also permits the city to buy any public utility which would have a tendency to drive capital from the city and impair the financial credit of the city. There are many other good reasons why the charter should be defeated, and I sincerely hope it is.

A VITAL PRINCIPLE.

Will D. Gould, attorney and leading Democrat: I believe there is a vital principle of government involved of far-reaching importance in the proposed charter. I honestly believe that the commission form of government is a long step toward a government by the king. I have no doubt that one man or a few strong, capable, honest men could well direct the business affairs of this city, but I have very grave doubts about that being the best form of government. And I have more grave doubts about the perpetuity of such government in its purity and intelligence. I am convinced that such government might fall into the hands of incompetent, dishonest men, who, with an army of appointees and employees, could perpetuate themselves in office indemnitely. I believe that such a form of government would discourage the development of men and women capable and desirous of governing themselves. It is by constant teaching that the rising generation can be qualified for self-government.

The make-up of the charter discloses the purpose of a designing confederation of politicians to seize control of the public affairs of the city and by systematic organization fill the appointive positions with the view of perpetuating prestige and power. Instead of distributing and guaranteeing the powers of government to the people, the opposite course is taken in the charter. The proposed charter is

In Death United.

DIES OF BROKEN HEART AT BURIAL OF FRIEND.

SINKING to the earth under the burden of an overmastering grief while the body of her friend was being lowered to its last resting place, Mrs. Mary L. Enert died in Rosedale Cemetery yesterday afternoon, literally of a broken heart.

Mrs. Enert was 65 years of age, the wife of Julius Enert of No. 1527 Reid street. The friend to whom she pathetically sought to pay the last tribute of earthly affection was Mrs. Matilda D. Wilson, wife of L. M. Wilson of No. 3528 West Pico street.

Mrs. Wilson was 64 years of age at the time of her death and the lives of the two women had been closely knit in the ties of affection. The passing of her friend was a great shock to Mrs. Enert and her grief is thought to have largely contributed to the sudden cessation of the heart's beating assigned by physicians as the cause of death.

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilson were conducted at the undertaking parlors of Peck & Chase yesterday afternoon, Dr. John H. Schaefle, pastor of the Pico Heights Congregational Church, officiating. The group of sorrowful friends gathered there to mourn her loss did not include Mrs. Enert. The latter felt that so vivid a visualization of her own bereavement would be beyond her strength.

Desiring, however, that the last rites for her departed intimate should not be without a token of her sorrow, Mrs. Enert decided to attend the services at the grave's edge. She purchased a handsome floral tribute and went to the cemetery, accompanied by her daughter. Shortly after entering the burial place her emotions overcame her and she sank on a bench to rest. Her daughter attempted to assist her and it was while she was uttering words of her encouragement that her mother fell forward and died almost instantly.

Many of those attending the Wilson funeral were also near friends of Mrs. Enert and the effect of their double bereavement was pathetic and affecting. The body of Mrs. Enert was removed to the same undertaking establishment that cared for the body of her friend. Funeral arrangements will be made today.

Storm Drain Fight.

COUNCIL OVERRIDES ALL PROTESTANTS.

THE CITY COUNCIL voted yesterday to deny the protest of property owners in the Arroyo de la Brea storm drain district, and later in the day adopted the final ordinance of intention to proceed with this work.

Thus closes a chapter in what has been one of the most strenuously opposed public improvements ever undertaken within this city. It would not be safe to state that this is the final chapter, as there were many angry people when the immense gathering of citizens left the Council chamber after this action, and there were immediate threats of recall proceedings and of applying to the courts for an injunction.

The assertion was freely made that months ago the word was circulated by city officials that the Arroyo de la Brea storm drain "must be put through," and that this was to be done regardless of protests.

The scenes of a week ago were repeated yesterday—with even more spirit and intensity. The Council chamber was packed with persons favoring or opposing the project, and they were marshalled with distinct lines of cleavage. The proponents of the storm sewer were headed by Russ Avery, and the opponents had Louis Sentous as their captain. These men selected from their companies the persons they wanted for addresses to the Council—but that did not prevent the issuance of many side remarks, and occasional outbursts of sarcastic persiflage that called for the action of the sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. S. M. Swan was the first speaker for the storm drain, and after telling of the woes of those who live near the offensive waterway, she pleaded: "If you won't give us any other relief, please put up some signs for the benefit of life and limb and to keep children out of these stinking holes."

Ernest H. Wilson declared that the improvement of the hill districts has Young Kentuckian Who Disappeared at Same Time Sum of Money Went Leaves Word of Intent to Commit Suicide, Which Police Believe a Ruse.

While San Pedro members of the Los Angeles police department are watching the waters of the harbor for the body of B. W. Dawes, who is supposed to have committed suicide by drowning himself on the night of the 12th inst., Central Station officers are searching rooming-houses and hotels for the young Kentuckian. Although Dawes wrote members of his family that he was going to take his life on that date, little credence is given the threat at headquarters.

B. W. Dawes,

Dawes disappeared from home several weeks ago. Several hundred dollars belonging to his employers is also missing. He came direct to Los Angeles, and wrote his sister, Miss Gertrude Dawes, No. 403 North Seventh street, Paducah, Ky., that by the time she received the letter he would be drowned in Los Angeles harbor.

After Dawes disappeared, members of his family settled for his alleged shortage and his sister, in a letter received yesterday at the Detective bureau, says:

"If B. W. Dawes will communicate with home will find all well and love and happiness awaiting him."

J. A. Bauer of the J. A. Bauer Pottery Company, No. 415 West Avenue 33, a friend of the family, said yesterday that a liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of Dawes's body, if it should be discovered that he has committed suicide, or for any information that will lead to his whereabouts.

FRUIT LOWERS LIVING COST.

HOLIDAY PRICES GENERALLY LESS THIS YEAR.

Demand for Apples Heavy at Low Prices—Nearly a Million Dollars Worth Is Consumed in City, Says Dealer—Arizona Oranges are New Feature This Season.

The demand for fresh and dried fruits and nuts for the holiday trade has been very heavy, according to produce dealers, and in many instances fruit prices are materially lower this year.

"The holiday demand is always heavy for apples," said J. Huber, secretary of the firm of Rivers Brothers, wholesale produce merchants, "and all the red varieties—Jonathans, Spitzenbergs and Rome Beauties—are about 50 cents cheaper than at this time last year. White apples, while not so much cheaper as the red varieties, are still selling at a somewhat lower rate. Big crops in all sections are responsible for this.

"The consumption of apples in the city will probably be 25 per cent. larger than last year, because of the lower prices. Estimated roughly I should say that about 1000 cars of the fruit will be used altogether in the city during the entire season this year. Although it is difficult to make a close estimate on the value of the quantity consumed, I should say that it is worth close to $1,000,000.

"The shipping-in season for apples is about closed, but a few cars will arrive from time to time until about January 1. There are, however, large quantities in storage which will supply the demand during the early part of next year.

"Another feature of the market this season is that about two or three cars of Phoenix navel oranges have come on the market. The shipments to this city have been much larger than ever before, and consequently the fruit is much cheaper. The present price is about $4 to $4.50 a box. The early Arizona oranges are very fine in appearance and of excellent quality. Most of the Phoenix fruit is shipped East.

"The demand for dried fruits is always good at this time of the year and prices in most instances are much cheaper than last year. The crops have been very large this season. Prunes are selling at 3 to 5 cents lower than at this time a year ago. Dried apricots are about 5 to 6 cents below what they were last year, and cured peaches and apples are cheaper by about 5 cents.

"Cranberry prices are about the same as they were last year during the holidays, and the demand is good. It is probable that Los Angeles will use about twenty-five to thirty cars this season.

"Among the vegetables, sweet potatoes, which are always in demand at this time, are about 50 cents cheaper per hundredweight than last year. They have been selling today at about $1.50 a hundred. A still greater decline is evident in Irish potato prices which are about 50 per cent. less than last season at this time."

BIG MEDICINE SADLY SHRUNK.

Indian Supreme Court Has to Reverse Itself—Ugh!

Aboriginal Knots Brought to Government Knife.

Strange Tale of Red Doctor; Stranger Sequels.

"Ooley, oley, waughy, wuh!" incanted Rafael Charlie, heap medicine man on the Mesa Grande Indian Reservation, as he went about among his patients.

"Now, as everyone knows, "ooley, oley, waughy wuh!" is the Indian equivalent of "eeney, meney, miney, moe," and Rafael Charlie relied upon it implicitly as a universal panacea. But somehow the great spirit of convalescence refused to abide in the magic formula and Dr. Charlie's patients were collectively and severally gathered to their fathers in the happy hunting ground while under treatment.

To understand the relation of the medicine man to five cords of wood, a little red schoolhouse, a heroic and thrillin' rescue from that primitive bastile, a judge and jury in the United States District Court, and the more or less triumphant acquittal yesterday of Francisco and Ricardo Nejo and Arturo Charlie it behooves the story to begin at the beginning and wend its way through the intricacies of the Indian Supreme Court, with its Chief Justice and two associates, down through the mazes of Indian jurisprudence to the point where the tribunal reversed itself like a teetotum and put Assistant United States District Attorney Archbold on the rocks when he attempted to convict the three defendants of interfering with the administration of justice, as prescribed by the Indian court of final conjecture.

THEY ALL DIE.

After observing for a long time the practical unanimity with which Dr. Charlie's patients failed to respond to the mental suggestion implied in the magic formula to be taken after meals it occurred to Agent Frank, in charge of the reservation, that the diploma of the medicine man might be written in red ink. He suggested that the redoubtable Charles desist from the active practice of his school of medicine until the population sort of caught up again.

This was clearly not ethical and Charlie continued to respond to the hurry calls and to exercise his talents wherever they were desired, which were quite frequent because his ability as a medicine man is well established among the tribe. Did he not once restore the three defendants at the bar of the United States Court to the bosom of their families by exorcising a flock of snake bites, to the everlasting humiliation of the snakes?

So it came to pass that Dr. Charlie was "pinched" for the illegal practice of medicine and in due course of law and the fullness of time was solemnly arraigned before the Supreme Court of the tribe, with Mr. Chief Justice Antonio La Chapa, and Associate Justices Rosinda Coura and Ysidro Nejo sitting en banc. It appearing to their honors that the prisoner was guilty as charged he was sentenced to worry five cords of wood into stove lengths, clearly a menial task for a great medicine man.

Those five cords looked bigger than the Great Divide to Charlie and he gathered himself for a long speech for an Indian. He said: "Nix on the wood," thereby placing himself in contempt of the august tribunal, although the trial occurred in March.

In expiation of this second offense the medicine man was sentenced to solitary confinement in the schoolhouse for a period of thirty days, but before he had been there very long a rescue party composed of the three defendants in the case yesterday, who had not forgotten the snake-bite episode, was organized, and in three hobbles of a wooden leg the prisoner mingled once more with the free and unrestricted order of red men.

UNCLE SAM TAKES HAND.

Indians, being more amenable to justice as ladled out by their own people, the government stands back of the "Supreme Court" of the reservation. When recital was made to the District-Attorney of the lese majeste, he promptly laid the matter before the Federal grand jury, and the members of the Indian court, testifying to the facts as related, indictments were returned against the three members of the rescue squad.

In the meantime the court held many a council of war and the pipe of peace was smokeless, but when they were called yesterday as witnesses against the three inbound jail breakers they followed the precedent established when freedom was young by their white prototypes and reversed themselves, declaring on the stand that while they had sentenced Rafael Charlie to his thirty-day "stint" in the educational guardhouse, they had done so without going through the formality of examining witnesses. It was further suggested that Charlie didn't do it, anyway, and that his sentence had nothing to do with his practice of the gentle art of healing or necromancy, but was imposed because he refused to tickle that wood pile, as ordered by the superintendent.

Before the jurists had an opportunity to show that even if Charlie did do it, it was a mistake, and besides he couldn't have done it because he was somewhere else, the assistant District Attorney, being a good loser, moved a dismissal of the case, so the jury was discharged and an informal verdict of not guilty rendered.

At any rate the white man's edict has gone forth that there shall be no more medicine men's practice of original surgery, and the patients of the future must get along with the realistic pills of the paleface, instead of the soothing "ooley, oley, waughy, wuh" of Rafael Charlie.

TO EXPERIMENT WITH ODD CAR.

Local Company Favors the New Side Doors.

Said to Largely Eliminate On Off-Danger.

City Officials Take First Trial Trip.

The people of Los Angeles will have an opportunity of judging the merits of the most modern and improved construction in street cars when an experimental car designed by E. L. Stevens, master mechanic of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, is put in operation on the University and Central division of the local system tomorrow. Seven Councilmen, two members of the Board of Public Utilities and officials of the railway company rode on the car's initial trip about the city yesterday and were unanimous in the belief that it should be tested as to practicability in actual service. The traffic on the University and Central division is such as to give the new car a practical workout.

There are numerous advantages claimed for the new car over those now in operation on the various lines. The most striking feature of the improved construction is the side entrance and exits. In the center of the car, on either side, is a space of seventy-two inches to be utilized for boarding and leaving the car. This space is divided into three parts, the central one to be used by persons getting on the car while to the right and left of this entrance is an exit. The conductor, who sits in the middle of the car, controls the gates, and is in a position at all times to observe all persons entering or leaving the car.

ELIMINATES DANGER.

With this construction it is considered practicable to use a fourteen-inch step instead of the sixteen-inch step, now in general use. The hand-holds at the entrance and exits are placed only on the left side, thus encouraging women to step off cars while facing to the front instead of to the rear of the car. The present experimental plans of the construction contemplates gates across the exits to prevent persons leaving the car while it is in motion. As a possible objection to this plan it was suggested that during the rush hours, when traffic is congested, the car would become so crowded that passengers would impede the closing of the gates. To meet this contingency the railway officials suggested that if this proved true, then the exits could be left open during the rush hours, as they now are.

Aside from the new features of the entrance and exits, the interior of the car itself is interesting. It is four feet longer than the cars now in use and has a seating capacity of fifty-two, eight more than the other cars. The car is divided into four compartments and the passengers entering from the center will not be inclined to crowd into one part of the car in preference to another, thus affording a better distribution of passengers. It is planned also to slope the car floor gently toward the center so that the step from the car proper onto the platform will be reduced to about five inches.

Master Mechanic Stevens has been working on this car for two years and is firm in the belief that it will solve many of the vexing questions now constantly arising in connection with transportation facilities. While the new car is admittedly an experiment, the railway officials are hopeful that it will meet the approval of the traveling public.

Councilmen Reed, Betkouski, Andrews, Topham, McKenzie, Whitten and Langdon thoroughly inspected the car on its trial trip, as did also Members Bekins and Foulkes of the Board of Public Utilities. Among the street railway officials on the trip were General Manager C. A. Henderson, Superintendent J. J. Akin, Vice-President and Managing Director W. S. Dunn, Assistant Superintendent E. L. Lewis and Master Mechanic E. L. Stevens. Following the experimental run the guests of the company were taken back to the City Hall, the new car attracting much favorable comment from persons along the various streets.

LITTLE JOURNEYS REACH FAR.

Supervisor's Official Travels in County for Year Totals Eleven Thousand Miles.

A Los Angeles Supervisor travels half-way around the earth—so far as actual mileage goes—on official business in a single year, according to the statement yesterday of Supervisor Nellis. Under the law he is allowed a maximum of $750 a year as traveling expenses from the county, to be figured at 10 cents a mile.

Nellis's bill for the last ten months is $707, as submitted yesterday to Deputy District Attorney Hill, who aids the County Auditor in checking the accounts. This indicates a mileage of 7007; but Nellis estimates he has traveled 11,000 miles, counting long trips made in county automobiles, for which no expense allowance is made. This mileage will be materially added to when the figures for November and December are in.

Supervisor Pridham's account to date calls for $563; Manning's, for $742; Butler's, $470; McCabe's, $424.

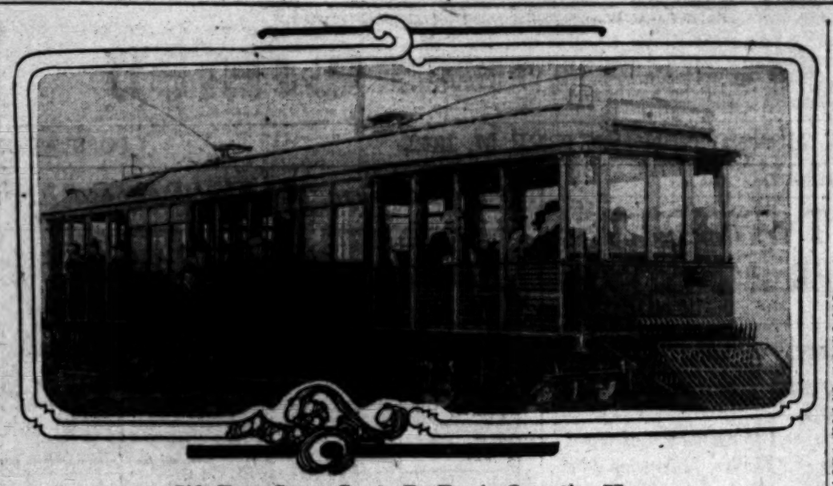
Stockholder Behind Government's Prosecution of Oil Company—Misuse of Mails Charged.

In an investigation of the Seaboard Oil and Transit Company by the Federal grand jury yesterday, five witnesses were examined regarding the government's charge that the corporation used the mails in a scheme to defraud.

The witnesses were Misses Lillian B. Hisom, Katharine Morgan, Rose Seismen, Lottie Sleeth and Elisabeth Allen, who at different times were employed in the office of the company as stenographers and bookkeepers.

The work of examining the books of the company is going on but it will probably be several weeks before the Federal grand jury will be ready to report.

President J. F. Riggin is assisting the government in furnishing the records of the office and other data needed in the investigation. A stockholder asserts he has $18,000 in the company which he cannot get out.



Side-Door Street Car to Be Put in Operation Here,

On the University and Central-avenue lines tomorrow morning. The chief advantage claimed for this type of car is the greater safety it affords for passengers entering and alighting. Those shown in the picture are city officials who inspected the new coach yesterday, and railroad men.

Council Overrides.

decreased the ability of the land to absorb storm waters, and in consequence from two to three times as much as formerly flows directly to the arroyo, and that this condition will continue to increase as the streets are improved.

Other speakers in favor of the storm drain were Mrs. James Gucher, W. A. Cobb, Mrs. C. E. Sargeant, J. Miller and Miss J. S. Brewington, each marshalling facts and figures in support of the desired improvement.

OPPOSING THE METHOD.

After an address by Louis Sentous, in which he declared that the opponents are not objecting to a storm drain, but to the proposed method of financing it by local assessment, there were speeches against the plan by Mr. Hersey, Dr. Larkin and several others.

Additional protests were filed, secured too late for the filing within the time provided by ordinance, and the statement was made that this list could be greatly extended were sufficient time allowed.

A statement was read from Health Commissioner Powers urging the building of the storm drain, and Commissioner Humphreys of the Board of Public Works made a strong plea for the improvement, declaring that upon the action taken on this depends the fate of the other systems formulated by the City Engineer for handling storm waters, and which citizens generally admitted must be installed if the city is to avoid troubles from storm waters in almost every section.

"The Board of Public Works has been mainly responsible for bringing up this subject of storm drains," said Humphreys. "It seems to be agreed upon that there is a necessity for a comprehensive system of such drains. This year we have constructed more than thirty miles of paved streets, and this means that storm waters are rushed down upon the lowlands with no opportunity for the earth to absorb much of them. They are also a necessity for the purpose of carrying away the effluvia from the street flushing.

"It is out of the question to consider building these storm drains at present through bond issues, as we have so many demands for great public works that our bonding capacity will be strained to take care of them. The assessment district plan is the only practicable solution. There must be a bond issue eventually, to carry the storm waters to the ocean, and that will call for an outlay of probably $2,000,000, but the districts will have to pay for their own systems to connect with this.

Discussion might have been continued indefinitely—it was continued during the entire noon hour—but Councilman Whitten moved that the protest be denied, and when the vote was taken only President Williams voted against the motion.

Protestants who have been active in their opposition stated yesterday afternoon that they have not given up the contest and that they will exhaust every available resource before they will submit to what they declare is unjust taxation.

They stated that they will await the action of the voters of the city upon the adoption of the proposed city charter, and if that dangerous instrument is defeated they may start recall proceedings for all of the Councilmen who voted to deny their protest, and that they are also seriously considering applying to the courts for an injunction restraining the city officials from carrying out the provisions of the ordinance of intention passed later in the day.

According to the estimates of the City Engineer, the Arroyo de la Brea storm drain will serve an area of 2673 acres, and will cost $563,000, exclusive of the outfall.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Guns in Play.

CHILD'S SHRILL SCREAMS START WILD SCRIMMAGE.

BUNKER HILL had its most exciting evening in years Sunday when Mrs. Blanche Daniels attempted to collect a $60 debt from Vernon Britton. Someone shouted "murder" and a riot was on, in which a city official was knocked unconscious, a deputy sheriff was attacked, and the Brittons, father and son, barricaded themselves within doors surrounded by an arsenal which they threatened to use. One of the closing incidents was a small boy threatening the police with a .22-caliber rifle.

The results were two ripped heads which were sewed up at the Receiving Hospital, and the arrest of the Brittons.

It was in the late afternoon when Vernon Britton, 19 years old, of No. 814 North Grand avenue, called on Mrs. Blanche Daniels, Bartlett street and Bunker Hill avenue. What his errand was he refuses to tell, but Mrs. Daniels demanded that he pay $60 which she alleged he owed her. The boy had the money in his pocket. They started bickering over the bill, became more and more aggressive in their money changing until fists were raised and little Mary Daniels, 7 years old, ran into the street shouting "murder," with a childish terror that carried the cry for blocks.

George Reed, superintendent of meters of the water department and also a peace officer, No. 701 North Grand avenue, put on his slippers and ran to the girl. He saw young Britton emerging from the Daniels house in disarray and much haste.

Reed started in pursuit. He closed with Britton after a pursuit of fifty yards. Silas K. Britton, Vernon's father, took a look out the front window, saw a man wrestling with his son and started to defend the family honor with the aid of a six-shooter and a shotgun.

When he reached Reed he hit him on the head with the revolver. Reed fell unconscious. Deputy Sheriff Wilson, turnkey at the County Jail, saw the disturbance up the street, put his star on the outside of the coat, and entered the scrimmage. He wrenched the shotgun from Britton, Sr.'s hands and started to arrest him. Then a fast-call squad of police arrived.

In the excitement someone bounced a rock on the elder Britton's head, felling him. Young Vernon fled and Britton, Sr. went into the house. He dared anyone to enter. The police peaked through a window and saw him surrounded with guns. Detective Fitzgerald broke in the rear door, talked to the man and then took him to the police station.

Later Detective King returned to the house after young Vernon. The boy opened the door, then thrust out a rifle and told the detective to travel. King knocked the gun out of his hands. The boy reached for another rifle which was taken from him. Then he took up a revolver and that also was seized.

When the boy was arrested, a younger brother, 9 years old, threatened the detective with a .22-caliber rifle. The father and son are held on the charge of assault with deadly weapons.

CREATION OF IMAGINATION?

O. S. Moon was held to the Superior Court by Justice Reeve yesterday on a charge of having passed a worthless check for $10 on a Santa Monica bank. It bore the signature of A. J. Hinne. Bank officials testified they had no such account at their institution. The defense placed two witnesses on the stand to testify that "Hinne" is not a creation of imagination.

INSIST ON MUNYON'S Paw Paw Pills For Constipation

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are unlike all other laxative or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour; they do not gripe; they do not weaken; but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation.

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverish it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that it puts into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope, they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physic. Price 25 cents. All druggists.—[Advertisement.

Work for Hours on Safe Which Contains Large Sum—Frightened Away by Early Arrivals.

Safe-crackers made an unsuccessful attempt Monday night to open a safe in the office of the H. O. Harrison automobile company, No. 1214 South Main street.

The cracksmen gained entrance through the skylight, dropping to the garage and crawling through a window to the office.

The lock of the safe was battered away with an immense sledge hammer, which was left in what appears to have been a hasty flight. A large wrench, secured from the garage, also was used, but without success. The men apparently had worked for hours and were finally frightened away by early morning arrivals.

The safe contained $1000 which had been paid after banking hours as a deposit on a car, and many notes and other valuable papers.

The Stability of the Southwest

There is no truer evidence of the remarkable stability of this section of the country than the steady growth and expansion of its banking facilities. All through Southern California new banks are being established to meet the demands of increased business—and banks already established are expanding to keep pace with development.

During the twenty-seven business days of October the Security opened 2481 new accounts—an average of over 91 a day, which is, so far as we know, without any precedent.

This remarkable growth is due, first to the rapid increase in the material resources of Southern California—secondly, to the public recognition of the superior banking accommodations and strength of the Security.

VOTE AGAINST PROPOSED

BY JOSE...

I WILL vote against the new proposed city charter, as I consider it a dangerous instrument for the government of a large city.

It is not, as some suppose, the product of unbalanced minds, but is specially designed as a despotic form of government, rather than as a charter of government for a free people accustomed to representation and control of their public officials.

The charter is reactionary in the extreme. It is a return to monarchical government, and is distinctly an abandonment of the republican, or representative, form of government, for which we have labored ever since the War of the Revolution.

(1.) It strikes down the usual guarantees in republican governments, the right of election of officers and agents by the votes of the people, and provides that the vast machinery of government of a people of half a million (soon to be a million) shall be in the hands of a majority of seven, which is four persons, elected for four-year terms.

(2.) It sets up a system of espionage through Inspectors, appointed by a non-responsible body, and through such inspectors proposes to govern, to the smallest detail, all of the business of the city, both public and private, and to interpret and enforce some thousands of pages of penal law enacted by the present city officers and their near predecessors in office.

(3.) It strikes down the usual guaranties fixing a limitation upon its public debt, and, starting in fresh with a city debt of thirty millions of dollars, proposes to increase that debt to an unlimited extent, and will, therefore, enable the chosen few, under such charter, to again increase the taxes of the people correspondingly.

(4.) It strikes down the right and privileges of local representation by providing that the vast army of eight thousand employees of the city, appointed by the commissioners, may be the masters of the people of the city, rather than their servants.

(5.) The system of government formed under this proposed charter has no resemblance to anything on earth outside of a city government in Russia, where the Czar is the absolute ruler.

Won't Stand Charter.

ALL FOR POLITICIANS.

Joseph Mesmer, president of the North Los Angeles Improvement Company, and realty dealer: I am opposed to the new charter, first, last and all the time. My main objection is the vicious centralizing provisions in the document. If adopted it would be an instrument whereby designing politicians would create a dangerous political machine for their own benefit and not for the welfare of the people. There are some good provisions in the charter, but these good features are overwhelmed by the weak and dangerous ones. I have talked with a great many business men and all of them are opposing it for various reason. The object of the charter in my opinion was the centralization of power and the idea carried out to its logical conclusion, would destroy self-government—destroy the very principles upon which the national, State and municipal governments are founded.

Louis Sentous, leading real estate dealer and public-spirited citizen: I am opposed to the proposed city charter because it provides for a government by a few and not the many. The principal object of the charter, as I see it, is to centralize the power of government in the hands of a ring of politicians. No such authority was ever vested by any municipality to the city in power, as is provided in the charter. The seven commissioners can do anything and the people will have to be content to look on with a grin. I believe in a republican form of government and that is one reason why I am going to vote "No" next Tuesday.

NOT OF THE PEOPLE.

Sperry Baker, attorney: I am strongly opposed to the new charter. The whole instrument is so drawn as to subvert the well-established purposes and plans of the government by the several States. Primarily governments are organized by the people for the mutual protection in life and property, and in acquiring and managing and owning property, and not for the purpose of competing with individuals in business. The plan of the new charter is absolutely contrary to this, authorizing the city to go into all kinds of business.

One of the most dangerous provisions in the document is found in section 44. Under this section and the preceding one, the city may lay pipes for any street for gas, water, electricity, street railways, or any other "public utility," and annually collect assessment upon the lots abutting on such streets, for the expense of conducting such utility, and make this assessment a lien on the lots, and provide for its enforcement. Just think of it! The city is given authority to build a railway in front of your property and assess you for the expense of operating it, and make the charge a lien on your land. There is many other even more vital arguments against the adoption of the proposed charter.

REFLECTION ON MASS.

Herbert L. Cornish, realty dealer: I have gone carefully over the new charter and am frank to admit that I am opposed to it. The commission form of government provided implies that the mass of people are incapable of self-government and therefore must continue to be governed by those who have been their superiors. It would take the rights of the people and place the reins of the city government in the hands of a few ambitious and well-trained politicians. I am also opposed to having the city engage in many lines of business. There is many finely spun "bugs" and "jokers" in the proposed document that the persons overlook or do not care to take the time to study them in a business manner.

Willard G. Thorpe, president of the Thorpe Engraving Company: The present charter is a delusion and a snare. If it carries it will be the means of building up the most dangerous and arbitrary political machine this country has ever known. I sincerely hope that every man and woman in Los Angeles city reads and studies the multifarious provisions of the new charter before they go to leave...

Good Reasons.

VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED CITY CHARTER.

BY JOSEPH H. CALL.

WILL vote against the new proposed city charter, as I consider it a dangerous instrument for the government of a large city.

It is not, as some suppose, the product of unbalanced minds, but is specially designed as a despotic form of government, rather than as a charter of government for a free people accustomed to representation and control of their public officials.

The charter is reactionary in the extreme. It is a return to monarchical government, and is distinctly an abandonment of the republican, or representative, form of government, for which we have labored ever since the War of the Revolution.

(2.) It strikes down the usual safeguards in republican governments, the right of election of officers and agents by the votes of the people, and provides that the vast machinery of government of a people of half a million (soon to be million) shall be in the hands of a majority board, which is four persons, appointed for four-year terms.

(3.) It sets up a system of espionage through inspectors, appointed by the non-responsible body, and through these inspectors proposes to govern, in the smallest detail, all of the business of the city, both public and private, and to interpret and enforce the thousands of pages of penal laws enacted by the present city officials and their near predecessors in office.

(4.) It strikes down the usual restrictions fixing a limitation upon the public debt, and, starting in fresh with a city debt of thirty millions of dollars, proposes to increase that debt to an unlimited extent, and will, therefore, enable the chosen few, under such charter, to again increase the burdens of the people correspondingly.

(5.) It strikes down the right and privilege of local representation by providing that the vast army of eight thousand employees of the city, appointed by the commissioners, may be the masters of the people of the city, rather than their servants.

(6.) The system of government provided under this proposed charter has no resemblance to anything on earth outside of a city government in Russia, where the Czar is the absolute master.

The charter bears no resemblance to the charters of any large and successfully operated cities in the world, such as Glasgow, Edinburgh and Liverpool, every one of which cities has a law-making or governing body of not less than fifty persons.

The commission form of government in small places such as Des Moines, Berkeley and Galveston, which it is now pretended are models, do not authorize the city to grant franchises to corporations without a vote of the people, nor place in the power of any governing body a small part of the power which will be possessed by the four or five dictators to whom it is proposed to turn over this city for an indefinite period of years.

(6.) The most extraordinary and absurd provision of the proposed charter is that contained in Article X, relating to establishment of boroughs. This article provides that a borough system may be established in the whole or any part of the territory in the city of Los Angeles, and that independent municipal governments may be created in such boroughs and then goes on expressly to determine the powers of such boroughs, and, among other things, gives such boroughs the power "to narrow, vacate and close up streets, lanes, courts and other public places."

In other words, a borough can be established in any part of the city, or upon the harbor, and is given not only power to control the streets and avenues and docks leading to the harbor, but is expressly authorized to narrow, vacate and to close them up at any time.

(7.) The most dangerous attack upon property interests in the proposed charter is that in Article IV, which authorizes special assessments, without any limitation whatever, for street and other public improvements, without the consent of the property owners, and upon a majority vote of the VOTERS of the proposed district.

For more than forty years the laws of California have allowed the property owners to protest out a street improvement which they deemed to their disadvantage. This right and power is now to be denied them, and their property can be confiscated by an unlimited bond issue for any improvement by a majority vote of the electors.

Won't Stand Charter.

new contribution to inefficient and incompetent government, and I hope it will be defeated at the polls next Tuesday.

ALL FOR POLITICIANS.

Joseph Mesmer, president of the Los Angeles Improvement Company, and realty dealer: I am opposed to the new charter, first, last and all the time. My main objection is the vicious centralizing provisions in the instrument. If adopted it would be an instrument whereby designing men would create a dangerous political machine for their own benefit and not for the welfare of the people. There are some good provisions in the charter, but these good features are overwhelmed by the weak and dangerous ones. I have talked with a great many business men and all of them are opposing it for various reasons. The worst feature of the charter in my opinion is the centralization of power and the idea carried out to its logical conclusion, would destroy self-government. It would destroy the very principles upon which the national, State and municipal governments are founded.

H. W. Fentous, leading real estate operator and public-spirited citizen: I am opposed to the proposed city charter because it provides for a government by a few and not the many. The original object of the charter, as I understand it, is to centralize the power of government in the hands of a ring of politicians. No such authority was granted by any municipality to the extent in power, as is provided in the new charter. The seven commissioners will do anything and the people will have to be content to look on with a shrug. I believe in a republican form of government and that is one good reason why I am going to vote "No" next Tuesday.

NOT OF THE PEOPLE.

Perry Baker, attorney: I am strongly opposed to the new charter. The whole instrument is so drawn as to subvert the well-established purposes and plans of the government by the United States. Primarily government is organized by the people for the mutual protection in life and property, and in acquiring and managing property, and not for the purpose of competing with individuals in business. The plan of the new charter is absolutely contrary to this, authorizing the city to go in all kinds of business.

One of the most dangerous provisions in the document is found in Section 44. Under this section and the following one, the city may lay down its streets pipes for gas, water, electricity, street railways, or other "public utility," and annually levy an assessment upon the lots fronting on such streets, for the expense of conducting such utility, and make this assessment a lien on the lots, and provide for its enforcement. Think of it! The city is given power to build a railway in front of your property and assess you for the expense of operating it, and make the charge a lien on your land. There are many other even more vital arguments against the adoption of the proposed charter.

REFLECTION ON MASS.

Robert L. Cornish, realty dealer: I have gone carefully over the new charter and am frank to admit that I am opposed to it. The commission form of government provided implies that the mass of people are incapable of self-government and therefore must continue to be governed by those who have been their superiors. It would destroy the rights of the people and place the rights of the city government in the hands of a few ambitious and designing politicians. I am also opposed to having the city engage in all lines of business. There are many flaws and "jokers" in the proposed document that the casual overlook or do not care to take the time to study them in a manner.

Edward G. Thorpe, president of the Engraving Company: The new charter is a delusion and a snare. If it carries it will be the means of building up the most dangerous and arbitrary political machine that has ever been known. I hope that every man and woman in Los Angeles city reads and studies the multifarious provisions of the charter before they go to the polls next Tuesday. If they study it closely and read between the lines they will most certainly vote against it.

George H. Davis, pioneer and merchant: I am doing all in my power to defeat the charter. If the level-headed citizens go to the polls election day the charter will be snowed under.

Ex-Gov. Gosper: Put me down against the new charter. It should be defeated by a unanimous vote of the people. It's a freakish affair and Los Angeles hasn't room for any more freaks.

CARL LEONARDT'S RETURN.

Los Angeles Contractor Back After a Long Holiday in Europe—Met Many Friends.

Carl Leonardt, the successful Los Angeles contractor and cement manufacturer, is home again after a trip of five months in Europe. He spent much of his time in Germany and visited many industrial plants. He had his happiest days, he says in Berlin, where at his hotel he met nineteen people from Los Angeles at one time. He visited the springs at Carlsbad and Marienbad and of course he went to his old home in Westphalia—enjoying a glass of beer at the same table, in the same inn where he drank it forty years ago—and served by the same host. Mr. Leonardt was accompanied by his wife and daughter and their travels took them to all the principal cities of Europe.

DOUBLY A VETERAN.

Chilean Said to Have Been Fremont's First Volunteer Dies Here. Was Pioneer Fire-Fighter, Too.

Juan Requerme, aged 85 years, said to have been the first volunteer to enlist under Gen. Fremont, died Sunday in a little shanty in Highland Park. Requiem high mass was said over the remains at the Plaza Church yesterday morning, when all honors of a departed here were paid his memory by the fifty-three survivors of the Vigilante Hose and Ladder Company of '87.

Juan weighed but forty-five pounds when he died. Age was the cause. While a physician from the Veteran Firemen's Association here had been attending the old soldier the only person with him when he died was a great-grandson, Carlos Mareno, his only known living relative.

Juan came to California among the earliest pioneers, settling in what is now Los Angeles in 1844. He was born in Valparaiso, Chile, in 1827. As a youngster he was a runner for the fire company before its formal organization in 1887. Then he became one of the first members and one of the first of Los Angeles' firefighters.

He is the third member of that historic organization to die in the past year.

NOTED CHURCHMAN COMING.

Head of Department of Rabbinics at Cambridge University, to Be Guest of Rabbi Hecht.

Dr. Israel Abrahams, professor of Rabbinics at Cambridge University, will arrive in Los Angeles at 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

He is on a lecture tour of United States university centers, and will speak publicly twice while here—Saturday evening at a banquet of the Professional Club at the Hayward, and Sunday night, at 8 o'clock, at B'nai B'rith Temple.

"Justification of Liberal Judaism" will be his subject on the latter occasion. The two addresses will be delivered as the result of Rabbi Hecht's desire to give Los Angeles people an opportunity to hear the eminent visitor.

Sunday afternoon, Dr. Abrahams will be guest of honor at a reception at Rabbi Hecht's residence. From here he will go to the University of California and Stanford, where he will lecture.

VICTIM OF APOPLEXY.

Silas Malcolm McCall died last night at 7:30 o'clock of apoplexy at the family home, No. 635 West Thirty-fifth street. He was 69 years old and had been in the city a year, having come from South Dakota. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

If you can't be thankful for anything else, tomorrow--
Be thankful you're not a turkey!

We're thankful, this Thanksgiving Day, for our big and growing circle of good friends; for the pleasant places in which our lot has been cast; and for the opportunity we're glad to extend to you—an opportunity to buy just as fine goods as can be produced, at a mighty moderate price. For half a century we've been giving that kind of service to the men of Southern California, and we hope to continue for another half century. Certainly the public seem to appreciate and enjoy our kind of store; we've no complaint to make!

As for tomorrow's holiday we suggest that you

Brighten up a bit with a new Suit

You'll feel happier—more cheerful—more like yourself, in a crisp new suit to reflect and reinforce your own personality. We suggest a snappy, vigorous rough blue Cheviot. They're popular; they're in good taste; a new one will be a mighty valuable adjunct to your wardrobe. Three splendid models here:

The Ritz-Carlton
The Strand
The Cambridge
$20 or $25
(Or More, or Less)

(And to go with it, and help along the holiday cheer of Turkey Day: Some new "Manhattan" Shirts; a new hat at $3 or more and well worth the price; a couple of bright winter scarfs; and gloves.)

NEW BASIS FOR INCOME TAXING.

OIL CORPORATIONS LIKELY TO WIN CONTENTION.

Revised System of Figuring Net Receipts Nearly Ready for Submission to Revenue Commissioner and Will Supersede Old Method If His Approval Is Given.

The committee selected by the oil operators of California and Collector of Internal Revenue Parker are now completing a new system by which the oil corporations may file their statements of net income to the government. The present regulations have been very complicated and confusing. Through Collector Parker the representatives of the oil corporation of his district persuaded Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell to visit California, that their objections to the present system might be presented. After an extended hearing in Los Angeles the commissioner went over the Kern county fields. He expressed surprise at the magnitude of the California oil industry and admitted the difference between it and the wells of the eastern districts.

Before leaving he authorized Collector Parker to act with a committee to formulate a new set of equitable regulations. The vital question to be considered in this solution was the value of oil properties January 1, 1909, when the corporation tax law took effect, with respect to those corporations who purchased their property previous to that date. Depreciation was allowed in arriving at their annual net income based upon the actual cost of their property at the time of its purchase, regardless of whether that was before or after the law took effect.

The claim of the oil corporations was that the increase in the value of their properties previous to January 1, 1909, was a very essential feature, and the depreciation granted should be based upon the value of their property on January 1, 1909, instead of its cost at the time of purchase.

The new regulations, if approved by Commissioner Cabell, will dispense with two-thirds of the book-keeping necessary by both the government and the oil operators, by making the value of the property immaterial. It is suggested that the valuation of the oil property on January 1, 1909, is governed by the amount of oil beneath the surface at that date, and it is proposed in the new regulations that the government permit the oil companies to deduct from the gross income as a depreciation a certain amount per barrel for every barrel of oil produced during the year for which the income report is made. It being impossible to determine the amount of oil beneath the surface at any given time, it would be likewise impossible to arrive at its valuation at that date. But if the government concedes that whatever oil was beneath the surface of property belonging to any particular corporation was a part of the property of that corporation on January 1, 1909, the only question then to be decided by the government is the uniform value of oil per barrel.

Such a change in the regulations has been approved by the representatives of some of the largest oil corporations in this district.

RECALLS UGLY HISTORY.

Claim Filed Against Estate of Harper's Chief of Police Who Resigned and Later Killed Himself.

Mrs. Mildred Burge, formerly of Los Angeles but now a resident of San Francisco, has filed a claim of $2300 against the estate of Edward Kern, Chief of Police under the Harper administration, who committed suicide in El Paso last April.

Mrs. Kern, living at No. 659 Santa Fe avenue, has engaged Attorney Isidore B. Dockweiler to contest the claim. The estate consists of the house on Santa Fe avenue, occupied by the widow, the lot adjoining and 160 acres of land in the Antelope Valley.

Mrs. Burge asserts that she loaned most of the amount named to Kern some time after he resigned as Chief of Police and that the remainder represents the cost of clothes, tobacco, flowers and other incidentals she purchased for him while he was an occupant of a hospital at Patton. Mrs. Kern declares that she never heard of the woman until the filing of the claim and that she knows nothing concerning her.

Kern was twice elected to the Los Angeles City Council, resigning the second time to be made Chief of Police. Owing to the scandals that disrupted the Harper administration he resigned.

GIRL SAVES MOTHER.

Dashes Pan of Water Over Flaming Gown, but Parent Is Painfully Burned.

Miss Ruth Baldwin, 23 years old, saved her mother, Mrs. Lucy Baldwin, 55 years of age, wife of E. I. Baldwin of No. 1253 Colton street, from being burned to death yesterday by extinguishing flames that enveloped her. Mrs. Baldwin may not recover from the shock. Her husband is proprietor of a novelty store in the Temple Block.

Mrs. Baldwin was seated, her back to an oil heater, when her gown caught fire. She started to run from the house, screaming for help, when her daughter dashed a basin of water over her mother's flaming clothing. Mrs. Baldwin's back is burned and blistered from her heels to her head.

INSPECTION OF HIGHWAYS.

Supervisors of Orange and Riverside Counties Tour Good Roads of This County—Luncheon.

A critical inspection of many Los Angeles county highways was made Monday by the Boards of Supervisors of Orange and Riverside counties, under the pilotage of D. K. Edwards of the County Highway Commission and Engineer Joyner. With them were Daniel Halliday and George Pearson, engineers for Orange and Riverside counties.

The trip by the Orange county officials occupied most of the morning and took them on Wilshire boulevard to Sunset, through Hollywood to Vermont avenue, along Los Feliz road to Glendale, thence to Altadena and Pasadena, where luncheon was served.

The Riverside people met them in the early afternoon, and the two delegations studied with interest the work on Huntington boulevard between Alhambra and the Valley road, where a concrete base is being laid as an experiment.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Baker, Miss Ellen Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Edwards, Capt. and Mrs. Alfred M. Larsen will leave January 3 on a year's tour around the world.

SOCIETY

AT A LUNCHEON given at the California Club yesterday announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Grace Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Burke, to Earl Russell Leib, son of Judge and Mrs. Samuel Franklin Leib of San Jose. Both are graduates of Stanford, class of 1912.

For many reasons the debutante party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Johnson, Jr., No. 832 West Twenty-eighth street, was of interest to friends throughout many large cities in the United States. More than 1000 invitations were issued for the function and more than half of that number went to friends miles away from this city.

The newcomer to the debutante ranks is Miss Katherine Johnson, daughter of the host and hostess and one for whom lavish entertaining will be done during the next few months. Miss Johnson is an unusual type of beauty, with masses of golden hair and sparkling eyes. She was graduated from Burnham House in Northampton, Mass., and later toured the world in company with her grandmother, Mrs. E. P. Johnson, Sr., and her aunt, Mrs. C. H. Dick. The journey occupied about eight months.

Society was willingly monopolized last evening and the guests were received by Mrs. Johnson in a handsome gown of black velvet trimmed in jet passementerie, and Miss Katherine in a simple white satin with crystal tunic. This was completed with a staff of American Beauties, the gift of Miss Ruth Towell, who was her class mate at Burnham. Mrs. Charles Dick wore an attractive combination of rose-colored satin and hand-embroidery; Mrs. E. P. Johnson, Jr., a black lace and jet; Miss Sada Johnson, a stylish costume of purple chiffon embroidered in beads of a darker shade; Mrs. Charles Modini-Wood, black velvet effect with elaborate trimmings of gold lace and rhinestones; Miss Elizabeth Wood, a Parisian creation of white satin embroidered in pink roses and rhinestones with bodice of hand-made lace; Miss Florence Wood, an imported blue satin embroidered in gold and silver; Mrs. W. H. Perry, a lavender charmeuse and real lace, and Mmes. John A. Fairchilds, L. W. Powell, John D. Foster, John G. Mott, Nathaniel Myrick, William Ellsworth Dunn, Henry W. Howard, Ernest A. Bryant, Jay Hathway Utley, W. E. Spence, Jefferson Paul Chandler, Ignacio Sepulveda, Louis H. Tolhurst, Walter Barnwell, Baker P. Lee, Theodore Williams, Harry Innes Borden, and the Misses Katherine Ramsay, Marjorie Ramsay, Evangeline Duque, Helen Brant, Katherine Barbour, Sally McFarland, Virginia Walsh, Mildred Burnett, Sarah Clark, Aileen McCarthy, Lillian Van Dyke, Barbara Stephens, Helen Taggart, Helen Worsham, Margaret Fleming, Louise Fleming, Angelita Phillips, Marguerite Drake, Louise Hunt, Alice Elliott, Jennie Bulkley, Juliet Bolleau, Conchita Sepulveda, Ruth Powell, Georgie Off and Viola Hamilton.

The decorations were radiantly lovely. In the drawing-room, American Beauties were the only flowers seen, many dozens of the long-stemmed favorites being used. Nothing but debutante blossoms adorned the French room, which was filled with the tokens. The orchestra was secluded behind curtains of greenery on the second floor and refreshments were served on the third, where garlands of smilax and other fluffy greenery were effective. The room is hung in rose chintz which formed a handsome cardinal and gold setting. Guests were seated at small tables with slender vases of Maman Cochet roses nodding a welcome. The back porch was enclosed with palms and tropical ferns. Cosy nooks were arranged here for punch and smoking. Hanging baskets of rare blossoms completed the captivating arrangement.

Mrs. Barham Hostess.

Mrs. Guy Barham of West Seventh street, who recently concluded a motor tour through France, England, Scotland and other countries, was hostess yesterday at a theater party at the Orpheum, followed by a tea party at the Alexandria. This pleasant affair was planned as a courtesy to Mrs. Elbridge Dexter Rand of Paris, who is a guest in the city. American Beauties decorated the table, where the guests included Mrs. Henry T. Gage, Mrs. Volney Gage, Miss Elizabeth Wood, Miss Florence Wood, Miss Emma Conroy, Mrs. John G. Mott, Miss Conchita Sepulveda, Miss Josephine Lacy and Miss Sally McFarland.

Mrs. Barham will preside this evening at a theater party at the Majestic in compliment to Miss Sepulveda, who with her mother is the house guest of Mrs. Mott.

Mrs. Elbridge Dexter Rand (below) and Mrs. Guy Barham, who entertained with a theater party and tea yesterday for the first-named.

Lord-Copp Wedding.

Marked by simplicity and solemnized in the presence of the immediate relatives only, the wedding yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock of Miss Cora Eastman Lord and Maj. Andrew James Copp, Jr., was of widespread interest, owing to the popularity of both young persons.

Rev. W. B. Gantz read the lines at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. H. D. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lohmeyer of Hollywood rendered a special musical programme.

The bride-to-be was attired in white charmeuse, elaborately trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. Her veil was the same as that worn by her cousin, Mrs. Thomas Caldwell Ridgway. A shower of lilies of the valley was carried. Miss Eleanor Davis assisted her cousin as maid of honor and was attired in white chiffon, ornamented with pink chiffon roses. Her blossoms were Cecile Brunners. Thomas Caldwell Ridgway was best man.

The home was gay with white chrysanthemums arranged in the library and drawing-room and pink carnations, which were profusely used in the dining-room.

Maj. Copp and his bride left immediately for San Francisco, from which place they will sail today for Honolulu. On their return they will reside at No. 314 South Union avenue.

—o—

Miss Whitesell Weds.

The West Adams Presbyterian Church was the scene last evening of a notable wedding when Miss Grace Anna Whitesell, daughter of Mrs. Robert S. Whitesell of Romeo street, became Mrs. Roy Charles Arnold.

At 8:30 o'clock, while Horatio Cogswell sang "Because," with Leonard Smith at the organ, the bride-elect in an elaborate creation of white charmeuse and Duchesse lace, with a tulle veil and shower of lilies of the valley and bride roses, entered and was met at the chancel by Rev. W. H. Fishburn and Rev. Ezra A. Healy. Miss Frances Whitesell, cousin of the bride-elect, assisted as maid of honor. She chose a gown fashioned of maize-colored charmeuse, trimmed with coral velvet. A cluster of yellow chrysanthemums was carried. Little Christine Frizzelle, in a frock of white marquisette and Irish crochet, was flower girl. Guy Irwin was best man and the ushers were Robert Allen and Clarence Whitesell.

Against a background of bamboo and palms hundreds of yellow chrysanthemums were arranged at the church. At the bride's home, where supper was served to relatives only, white flowers were used exclusively. Lilies of the valley and bride roses adorned the bride's table, together with bows of tulle and shaded candelabra.

At the conclusion of a motor trip through the North, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold will reside at No. 1978 Estrella avenue.

—o—

Afternoon Reception.

An artistic arrangement of red carnations brightened the rooms yesterday for a large reception presided over by Mrs. Samuel H. B. Vanderveort and Mrs. Benjamin F. Kierulff, Jr., who entertained at the former's home, No. 418 West Thirty-third street. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. J. F. Goodenow, Mrs. Lester J. Hill, Mrs. Gardner Marbonne and Mrs. Edgar Harold Door. Assisting about the rooms were Mmes. B. F. Kierulff, Sr., Elton Woolcott, H. Ryerson Smith, Cyrus H. Bass, Stillman Smith, Eugene Crandall, Walter J. Wrenn, Robert G. Schroeter, Harrison McDonald and Allen Culver.

Mt. Washington Luncheon.

Mrs. William Kenning of Cincinnati was hostess Friday at a luncheon and card party at the Hotel Mt. Washington. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Martin Schneider, Mrs. Walter Aberlen, Mrs. Berkeley B. Bennett, Mrs. Joseph Zinnamon, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Fred Dunklee and Mrs. Bruce Crowe.

—o—

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Frankel of "Vista del Mar," Hollywood, entertained last evening with a dinner party, complimenting Lieut.-Com. and Mrs. Edward C. Woods, U.S.N. Violets and Cecil Brunners brightened the table.

—o—

Church Wedding.

Miss Loretta Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown of this city, was married last evening to George Edward Grawburg. The service was spoken at the Euclid Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Mr. Sterling officiating. Miss Brown was attired in white satin charmeuse with pearl trimmings and her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and rose-buds. Miss Ortha Brown, in pale blue, assisted as maid. She carried ferns and white carnations, while little Annie Louise Jungquist carried the ring on a white satin cushion. Reuel Brown was best man. Afterward a reception to members of the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Musicale at L.A.A.C.

The audience rooms of the Los Angeles Athletic Club were crowded with ladies yesterday afternoon, the guests being members of the families of club members and invited friends, and the occasion being the third reception musicale arranged for their pleasure. The rostrum was richly adorned with roses, which formed an exquisite background for the artists during their rendition of a sweet and symmetrical programme.

Mrs. Catherine Shank, soprano; Miss Fannie Dillon, piano; Mr. W. E. Hullinger, flute, and Miss Lila Trenan, accompanist, divided honors throughout the fifteen selections presented. Miss Dillon's presentation of her own compositions, "Nature Studies" and "Variations in F Sharp Minor," came as a pleasing surprise to her auditors. Another most effective number was Mozart's "L'amero," arranged for voice, flute and piano, and well interpreted by Mrs. Shank, Miss Trenan and Mr. Hullinger.

WOMAN DETECTIVE BACK.

Miss Eula Hitchcock, secret service operative formerly connected with the District Attorney's office and now employed in investigation of cases of failure to provide under Judge Monroe, arrived yesterday from Indianapolis, where she had been called to testify in the dynamite conspiracy cases. Miss Hitchcock was much impressed with the wide interest the trial is exciting in the East.

The Waverley Silent Electric

A SMART "COLONIAL" MODERATELY PRICED

We have on exhibition in our showrooms a beautiful and dignified electric, designed on the popular Colonial lines, but with its extremes modified.

A car thoroughly well built and very handsomely finished, with all the mechanical perfection of the famous Waverley line.

While spacious and roomy, a saving in weight has been effected which permits of lighter tires and smaller batteries without sacrificing speed or mileage. Making possible a modest purchase price and reducing the cost of subsequent renewals.

THE SILENT WAVERLY COLONIAL BROUGHAM

Upholstered in finest leather or broadcloth, with Colonial design lamps and flower vase, this brougham is truly a very elegant car.

Silent, as are all Waverley electrics—riding without bump or jar on full elliptic springs—control is so safe and so simple that the junior members of the family can safely drive.

We invite you to call at our showrooms and inspect this handsome electric, together with the other Waverley pleasure car models we have on exhibition. We will gladly arrange for a demonstration of the car, or cars, you prefer. Appointments may be made by telephone.

That big store which always man ages to corral Santa Claus and hi belongings for a season before Christ mas, has on Broadway a material in vitation to the Christmas merriment This invitation consists of a doll's "Christmas May-pole." If I may coi the term. Dozens of dolls, dressed in all their holiday finery, are carry ing each her end of satin ribbon ex tending from the central "tree," which is all agliitter with the kind o brilliant fruits supposed to grow on Christmas trees. This "invitation" is certain to lure even the grownup to that floor, where are to be seen all the holiday toys. There is a scene from the Swiss Alps, where streams (real ones—flow and mill wheels turn, and railroad trains run and in fact where every kind of toy "goes." There is a duck pond filled with real water, and all kinds of water fowls are swimming there; boats are rowing and sailing and there is all kinds of real fun. Then there is a toboggan slide where real children may really slide, and merry-go-rounds where children may really be merry, and in fact it is a veritable fairy land of Christmasry. There are dolls of every sort, size and character, and everything possible for doll housekeeping, from houses to the latest thing in gowns for her dollyship. A visit to this delightful place is as good as Christmas itself, and Old Santa is there in person!

More Art.

Every time I peep into that charming art shop on lower Broadway, I find tucked away underneath that gabled roof something more beautiful than last time. Yesterday it was some rare Venetian glass. After getting to my heart's content upon the beauty of a scent bottle in Iris shades and decorated with a natural colored rose upon one side, and upon the other with a carving of the flower in clear glass, I learned that, as I had half suspected, the work is that of a rare genius who lives in Venice and who never makes two articles alike. Many does not the truest art usually refuse duplicates?

The Evening.

The man who buys the beautiful garments for large and popular Broadway house showed me his favorite evening wrap. I did not wonder that, as he said, he considered it one of the handsomest articles he had brought out this season. It was of heavy black satin which hung in soft folds, and it had a shawl effect around the shoulders consisting of rows of silver lace which extended down upon one side of the front, where it fastened with a silver ornament enriched with Rhyne pebbles. This lace shawl or flounce fell in two points at the back, each point terminated with a silver tassel. Most adorable was that wrap!

An Evening Gown De Luxe.

On upper Broadway, in a house noted for its exclusive importations, I saw a white mirrored velvet evening frock which I thought superb. It was made with a chiffon blouse and short angel sleeves of white chiffon, upon which only ornamentation was a row of brilliants around each edge. The train was a double figh train and the over-tunic was fastened down the front with gorgeous frogs of green and white brilliants.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Many of the best beauty specialists now avoid the use of hot water on the face, save for cleansing and some do not use it even for this purpose. Hot water, it is said, is apt to cause flabbiness. Cold water is better and the use of ice is still more desirable, in treating the face.

Beautiful bird's plume ornaments are posed in unusual fashion on tailored hats. This hat of dark green velvet is trimmed with shaded plume ornament.

The man who buys the beautiful prints for a large and popular Broadway house showed me his favorite evening wrap. I did not wonder, as he said, he considered it one of the handsomest articles he brought out this season. It was of heavy black satin which hung in straight folds, and it had a shawl effect over the shoulders consisting of a piece of silver lace which extended down one side of the front. Fur Bills.

One of the Broadway furriers has in his window a stuffed mole. When you see the size of the tiny creature you begin to understand why mole fur is so expensive. It takes thousands of those tiny skins to make even a modestly large muff. The wee beastie is shown in the attitude of "paws forward," as he has way through the earth, with small sharp claws ready to push his way through any impediment. When we consider how much the little moleship can do to a flower bed or a lawn, we are inclined to rejoice that he is the fashion, for this fact must rid any number of gardens of his unwelcome presence.

Watch Beauty.

At the anniversary of that fine jewelry house on Fourth street, I noticed one of the most beautiful watches that I have ever seen. It was set in the midst of a heart-shaped amethyst of exquisite color and the watch itself was set with diamonds. Think of the fine workmanship which so placed this timepiece. It could be used as a jewel pendant upon a necklace. Another rare watch was placed in a necklace pendant of brilliant gems and enamel, and first glimpse it seemed exclusively ornamental, as the watch was so tiny as not to appear until on close inspection.

For a Child.

In that shop of rareties, I noticed something under construction which will prove instructive as well as interesting to children. It is a book or folder, made with a cover of artistic cretonne or chintz, and inside are placed the prints of rare old paintings. Children love pictures and in looking at these they will become familiar with the works of the old masters. A pretty and a worthy gift one of these would be, to send to the child of a friend.

To Protect.

The Good Housekeeper has found another way. She sews a hem of muslin along the border of her bed comforts for the purpose of protecting them from that line of "soil" which is certain to appear after some weeks of use. The hem is merely catch-stitched on with a pretty colored cord and can be easily removed when it needs cleansing. Thus are your comforts kept clean and the expense of laundering them is avoided. Upon some of the nicer ones the initials may be embroidered or done in cross stitch.

To Send.

An oriental store on Broadway has in its window a box addressed as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. Home Folks, Backeast City, Xmas." From the box protrudes a part of a handsome lacquered tray. It might be a copper and basketry article, or a brown basket, or a tea set of china, or any one of 100 appropriate articles seen in those windows beside the ready-to-send box.

That Crown.

An extremely pretty hat crown was made from ostrich feathers in snowy white, twisted around and around until they formed a solid mass. They were set at intervals with tiny rosebuds.

Fashion's Imprint.

White suits are trimmed with fur in dark colors.

Suits are made of velvet or velour de laine in shades of red.

For lovers of outdoor sports the knitted jacket is much worn.

The new motor bonnets are also of ratine and are fur-trimmed.

Buttons of striped porcelain are used on many of the tailored suits.

The new neck ruffles of feathers, fur or lace are studded with roses.

Many smart women are wearing scarfs of heavy ecru lace and black velvet.

Pretty skating caps are of black velvet with white cloth or velvet facings.

For the young girl of 14 or 16, the Russian blouse suit is most becoming.

The new Russian tunic is having a great success for dinner and evening wear.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

As many people—men and women—as could crowd into the big auditorium of the Ebell Clubhouse assembled there Monday afternoon to enjoy a personally conducted trip to the Panama Canal by one who has twice made the journey—Mrs. Edward H. Kemp. If all these people, who sat fascinated during the two hours consumed in the lecture, which was copiously illustrated by moving pictures, intend to take advantage of the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade excursions to the canal zone next January, then Los Angeles will have the honor of sending the biggest crowd of tourists down there that has yet visited this interesting place.

So excellent were the pictures and so graphic the description, that at the close one felt as if he had really been to Panama. We went by rail to New Orleans and thence by steamer six days to Colon, and from there thoroughly explored the country up and down, forward and back, through the Culebra Cut on an observation car; watchd the huge steam shovels eat the earth by the ton, saw the dynamite planted and witnessed—from a safe distance—the explosions; beheld the glorious tropic sunset; stopped at the Tivoli Hotel; saw the excursion steamer from San Francisco land at Panama, and spent some time at the interesting beach market where the boats come in loaded with fruit and vegetables, and anchor till the tide recedes, leaving them high and dry on the beach.

Most of the pictures were taken in a pouring rain, for, as Mrs. Kemp naively observed, "The wet season in the canal zone lasts nine months and the rainy season the other three."

As we disembarked from the train on the Panama Railway, our attention was called by the lecturer to the letters on the car, "P.R.R.," and she remarked that a New York woman who went down to the canal, and was wretchedly seasick all the way, lifted her eyes as she landed and exclaimed, on beholding the magic letters on a car standing near the wharf:

"Oh, if I'd only known that the Pennsylvania Railroad sent trains down here from New York I'd never have come by sea."

Remembers the Mothers Who Work.

The King's Daughters' Day Nursery Circle are planning a Thanksgiving dinner for every family represented in the nursery. Baskets will be sent out Wednesday afternoon from the nursery at No. 132 North Clarence street, and anyone who wishes to sweeten his own Thanksgiving joy by contributing to that of the hard-working mothers, can send to the above address tomorrow morning whatever he desires to give. This is an annual custom of the King's Daughters, which has been followed for years and brings joy to many a humble household.

Ebell Christmas Parties.

In accordance with its annual custom, the Ebell Club will give two children's Christmas parties—one on the afternoon of December 28, when the children of club members will be entertained and will bring their gifts for the children of the settlement districts, who will, on the following afternoon, be the guests of the club. The special Christmas programme of tableaux vivants with music which will be presented before the club on December 23, will be repeated for the little folks.

Drama League Meets.

Miss Amelia Bingham will address the Drama League, which meets this afternoon in Symphony Hall at 4 o'clock. This organization insists that it is not a club, but a league—wherefore, the difference I scarcely know—but a college professor to whom I took my puzzle, suggested that a league is more dignified than a club—anyway it's a league—and all the members, it goes without saying, are intensely interested in the drama.

Legislating for Women.

Mrs. George E. Swan of Upland, State chairman of legislature for the California Federation of Women's Clubs, is just home from the north. She is enthusiastic over the results of the first conference of the woman's State legislative council recently called together by the federation in San Francisco. Twenty large organizations were represented by earnest and enthusiastic women. Work was apportioned to different societies and another conference called for December 2, at the same place. Mrs. Swan held preliminary conferences in Los Angeles and Sacramento, and calls for another conference this afternoon at the Ebell Clubhouse, when she will give a report of the San Francisco meeting.

While these conferences are not open to the general public, all women interested in definite legislation, and all representatives of large organizations, are cordially invited to attend. The federation desires especially to inform itself first hand in regard to the working of the eight-hour law, and the need of the minimum wage for women, from the standpoint of the wage earners, and for this reason women representing these workers are especially welcome.

What She Saw in Egypt.

Mrs. J. H. Dawson of Marquette, Mich., entertained a large number of people at Loretto Hall, Union avenue and Court street, the other evening with an account of the experiences of herself and husband, Dr. Dawson, encountered while traveling in Egypt. Mrs. Dawson was dressed in the costume of a Mohammedan woman, with veiled face, and gave a vivid description, made more graphic by pictures, of life in the land of the Nile. The Parent-Teacher Association fund benefited from the proceeds of the lecture.

DO WAIT TO BE ASKED.

Carl Fiesa and Marguerite Stolz, nee Mickley, charged with having come to this country in violation of the immigration laws, were examined by Immigration Officer Nardini yesterday and at t he conclusion of the hearing it was ordered that the bond of each be increased from $500 to $1000. Mrs. Stolz, a modiste, No. 2810 West Sixth street, is said to have come here with Fiesa. Witnesses testified that she recently was a successful competitor in fashion shows here.

REALTY OWNER DEAD.

H. A. Jones, colored, of Duarte, a large owner of Los Angeles realty, died early yesterday morning at his home after an illness of about three weeks from heart trouble. He leaves a widow and one brother, William, of this city. Funeral services will be held at Wesley Chapel at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon under the auspices of B. F. Tolvert Lodge of Masons.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Piling Up Taxes.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am the owner of a modest home in this city—a five-room house and a fifty-foot lot. On that property in 1910 I paid total taxes of $27.65; in 1911, $31.45; in 1912, $38.95. I believe the property will sell for no more today than it would have in 1910.

What is the meaning of this "progressive" taxation, which is general over the city? I believe the owners of small homes were never so hard hit before in the history of Los Angeles. Certainly not in recent years.

The reason is not hard to find. It is in the new fads introduced by the crafty politicians who have grabbed the city government. Lissner's experts at $25 a day, the great number of costly elections, the "Municipal News"—waste paper scattered over the city in all directions at a cost of $30,000 a year—these, and a hundred other extravagances, never dreamed of by former city administrations, are piling up the taxes on city lots and homes.

My fellow property owners, this piling up of taxes is a very serious matter for our consideration. If we are going to let Lissner and Earl and half a dozen other tricky politicians go on in their own sweet way, they will soon have taxes so high that it will be cheaper to rent than to own property. You know what that means—a fall in real estate values and a disastrous setback to our rapidly-growing city.

Of all recent schemes to increase taxes, probably the proposed city charter, to be voted on next month, is the most startling. If adopted, taxation will increase by leaps and bounds. There is no doubt whatever of that. Just take one of its crazy schemes—the city to go into all sorts of business from running peanut stands to huge manufacturing enterprises! There appears to be absolutely no limit set to the heretofore private enterprises the city, under the proposed new charter, may not go into.

Well, we have a city newspaper now, run at a loss of $30,000 a year. My fellow taxpayers, think of 1000 city-managed enterprises run at a similar loss—and we shall have to pay the freight.

And do you think—given the power—our political rats will not take the chance to loot the city? Indeed, such a chance would make the ghost of William H. Tweed want to come back and go into partnership with Lissner. Like the witches in Macbeth, the politicians, under the new charter, can do, and do and do us.

Let us get out and vote down that socialistic monstrosity, the new charter, next month, and then let us see if we cannot get a little sanity and common sense injected into the city administration. We all know that Johnson and Lissner and Earl have made California the laughing stock of the world by their management of "progressive" politics in the last campaign. Let us get them off our backs.

The proposed new charter shows many ear marks of Dr. John R. Haynes, our millionaire Socialist. A friend of mine once went to Dr. Haynes and bluntly asked him: "Doctor, you have plenty of money, why don't you and other rich Socialists endow a colony and show what a success socialism is, or may be? One successful Socialist colony would be worth more to convert the people than all of Karl Marx's books."

Dr. Haynes is reported to be, ordinarily, an amiable old gentleman, but, on this occasion, my friend says he gave him such an acid look that if milk had been present it would have soured.

That is a sore spot with Socialists—the total failure of all socialistic experiments in all ages.

The Non-Smoking Craze.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] What has become of the old-time lady who never kicked or howled if you smoked in the front room (now living-room,) but busied herself making home a real place to live? She wasn't ashamed to be a good cook, mend the clothes, or tidy up the room; she never bothered herself whether the men smoked on the end of the car set aside for them by law; she never had a fuzzy blue-ribbon cat or an ugly bow-legged dog entered at the animal show, or wore a skirt about the size of a shotgun barrel, or a hat so large that it made her look like a sheep looking out from under a shed; none of these for her. Why? Too busy helping make the dollar earned by the smoker make both ends meet, with a little to spare for the rainy day, instead of trying to break into print. Ladies, if you can't stand the smoke, get on the other end of the car and stay there; don't swipe our seats and then roast us because you don't like them.

ABANDONED BABY FOUND.

Girls Employed in Packing-House Discover Infant in a Vacant Property—Development Plans.

PORTERVILLE, Nov. 26.—Six girls, employed at the Association Packing-House in Piano, reported to Chief of Police Isham this morning the discovery of a newly-born child in the filth of an outbuilding which was a part of a property in the village of Piano, which the girls had rented when they took their places at the packing plant. According to the story of the girls, which has been substantiated at least in part, a big touring car stopped for a few moments near the house about 2 o'clock this morning and then sped off toward Porterville, two miles distant to the north. Shortly after the car had gone the occupants of the house heard the wailing of an infant. Investigation resulted in the discovery of the child, a lusty boy of twelve pounds. Despite the babe's terrible experience it is reported that it will probably live.

The Piano house had been vacant for months, until a few days ago when it was secured for a home by the girls. The police theory is that either the disposition of the child was an attempt to throw suspicion on the occupants of the house, in which case the guilty ones are probably residents of Porterville; or that those who threw the child into the outbuilding thought the house still vacant, in which case they may have come from some distance. The house is on the main road south from Porterville and any identification of the car from the tracks has been impossible.

S. A. Kieffer, chief engineer of the United Properties Company, the Borax Smith Corporation, is the head of an association of investors who have purchased 260 acres of Richgrove foothill lands and who announce their intention of beginning with the development of the entire holding as an orange orchard.

H. L. Haehl, engineer for a large Oakland corporation; C. E. Gilliam, manager of an Oakland concern, and H. I. Dygert, also an engineer, are among others interested in the property.

Work is to be started on the construction of an adequate irrigation system for the property in the very near future.

SHEATHE LANCET FOR EIGHT DAYS.

GRAND JURY TO RECONVENE NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Believed That All Evidence in the Alleged Plot to Job a Witness Against Ex-Moral Censor Eddie Is Now In Except for One of Earl's Men May Ask Court Change.

The county grand jury unexpectedly took a recess yesterday morning until Wednesday of next week. The reason given out was that Foreman Hubbard has important business to transact that requires his absence from the city for several days.

It is believed that all the evidence concerning the alleged plot to discredit F. W. Lloyd, one of the important witnesses against Guy Eddie, suspended City Prosecutor, has been presented, with the exception of the testimony of Paul Powell, an employee of E. T. Earl, who, it is asserted, knows the source of the $100 which was placed in the hands of Officers Wedge and Wolfe, according to statements made to Chief Sebastian.

When the grand jury reconvenes Powell may be summoned to give his testimony. He has been absent from the city for several days and a number of employees of Earl's twilight sheet were summoned before the grand jury, presumably to explain why Powell left just at the time he was wanted by the grand jury.

The witnesses yesterday morning were Councilman Reed, Police Sergeant Ammon and Fred M. C. Choate, discharged deputy in the City Prosecutor's office. It is believed that Choate took advantage of the code provisions and refused to testify.

Because of the close relation existing between the grand jury investigation of the alleged attempt to put one of the State's witnesses in jail on a charge of extortion, and the Guy Eddie trial scheduled for Thursday of next week, it is believed defendant's counsel will ask for a continuance.

Inasmuch as one postponement has already been granted it is expected that Deputy District Attorneys Blair and McCartney will resist any further delay. Judge Wilbur is busy with the Juvenile Court work and has few vacant periods for a trial that will take the time the Eddie case is expected to consume.

However, where counsel for a defendant urge a continuance it is the general practice of the court to grant it.

Judge Wilbur may not try the Eddie case. Instead, it may be heard by an outside judge or transferred to one of the regular criminal departments of the Superior Court.

Deputy District Attorneys Blair and McCartney will appear with Earl Rogers before Judge Wilbur at 10 o'clock this morning, and it is expected that Rogers will enter a motion that a change be made. He was in consultation yesterday with McCartney in the latter's office, and is understood to have asked the consent of the District Attorney, which was given.

Blair stated last night that the change will be asked for because Judge Wilbur has said that he will be able to give only a couple of days each week to the Eddie case, because of press of other work. Both the District Attorney's staff and Eddie's legal retainers assert that they want the action to go forward without halt.

Judge Wilbur's court can resolve itself into any one of three legal tribunals at will. It can be the Juvenile Court, a criminal department of the Superior Court, or the seat of a committing magistrate. The likelihood that it will be metamorphosed into all three during the trial is what both sides object to.

Blair pooh-poohed the idea last night that the State fears tampering with its witnesses if the case should be long drawn out. He said that either Judge Willis or Judge McCormick would be satisfactory and denied all thought of bias on Judge Wilbur's part. He stated that the report that twenty-one women have been subpoenaed to testify against Eddie is exaggerated, but refused to tell whether new witnesses had bobbed up within the past few days. The case is expected to take two weeks, with three or four days to get a jury.

MAINE SOCIETY RECEPTION.

Many Former Residents of the Pine Tree State Informally Meet and Greet Each Other.

The Pine Tree State Association, Denis E. Bowman, president, gave a pleasant reception last night at Hotel Alhambra, to the Maine people of the city and their friends, several hundred of whom called during the evening. The affair was informal, thus giving opportunity for many old friends to join hands, in some cases after long separation.

No set programme had been arranged, but Mrs. Bitter sang, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Stein. The rooms were decorated with red carnations, flags and the banners of the State of Maine, and punch and cake were served.

The Committee on Arrangements consisted of Mrs. Orlando Moor, Mrs. Gertrude Hovey and Miss Elizabeth Klitredge. Among those who assisted the president to receive were the following: Ex-Judge and Mrs. Waldo M. York, Mr. and Mrs. Storey, Mr. and Mrs. Hamkla, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cobb, Mrs. Fletcher Howard, Mrs. J. E. Aull and R. H. Carleton. This reception is the first of a series of public entertainments, musicales, lectures, picnics and receptions, which are contemplated.

TEACHERS JOINT MEETING.

Educators of County Assemble Here for Three Days Prior to Institute Convention.

Prior to the convention of the southern section of the California Teachers' Association here, the Teachers' Institutes of Los Angeles county and city, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Pomona and Pasadena will have a joint meeting in Los Angeles December 16, 17 and 18, according to announcement made yesterday by County Superintendent of Schools Keppel, who sent out 2000 copies of the convention programme.

Tickets for the convention will be on sale at the Auditorium box office from Monday to Thursday of "Institute Week." A third of the house will be reserved for sale Thursday so out-of-town teachers may have opportunity to secure good seats.

The crowning feature of the convention will be the concert December 19, with Mme. Gerville-Reache, prima donna contralto, and Frederick Preston Search, cello soloist, son of a former city superintendent of schools here, as the main features.

Speakers of the convention will include Dr. A. H. Suzzalo of Columbia University, Dr. Luther Henry Bailey and Prof. H. A. Adrian, nature-study specialists, the latter from Santa Barbara; Arthur H. Chamberlain, manual training expert and editor of the Sierra News, the association's magazine; Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the New England Journal of Education; and Joseph Scott, of the Los Angeles Board of Education.

The membership of the association totals about 4000.

Railroads will run excursions here "Institute Week."

ANNEXATION DEFEATED.

FRESNO, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The annexation of Arlington Heights to the city of Fresno was defeated in Arlington Heights precinct yesterday at a special election by a vote of 174 to 110. Fresno city voted in favor of the annexation by a vote of 375 to 408, but as the election was a joint election the cause is lost by the vote in Arlington Heights. The annexation of Arlington Heights to the city has been a long-discussed subject and both sides brought much pressure to bear at the polls today. Those opposed to the annexation declared that by coming into the city the taxes would be raised and they would receive no benefits. Arlington Heights is a residence district.

This Should Keep The Baby Healthy

When it is ill don't become alarmed, but give this fine laxative.

CLARENCE CARROLL HEAD.

It is often difficult to tell just what is the matter with a crying, peevish baby or child too young to express its feelings in words, but as a general rule the mother will find that there is a tendency to constipation, which has brought on a headache or nervousness. The little one has no pain, but feels "out of sorts."

The first thing to try is a family remedy containing good but mild laxative properties, and many mothers will say that their choice would be Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Thousands of mothers keep it in the house for such emergencies, among whom may be mentioned Mr. D. C. Head, Mgr., Head Drug Co., Ft. Worth, Tex., father of Clarence Carroll Head, and Mr. L. Sutton, 163 Alaska Place, Denver, Colo. They and others are glad to say that Syrup Pepsin saved them many an illness and many a large doctor bill, for by administering it promptly, when the first symptoms of illness were noticed, they prevented a serious ailment.

It is so pleasant-tasting that no child will refuse it, and as it does not gripe, the child is glad to take it again. A bottle can be obtained of any druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, the latter being the size bought by families already familiar with its merits.

Syrup Pepsin is for all the family from infancy to old age, and because it its mildness families should prefer it over all other remedies. It is absolutely safe and reliable. You will never again give cathartics, pills, salts or such harsh physics, for they are usually unnecessary, and in the case of children, women and elderly people are a great shock to the system, and hence should be avoided.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington st., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.—[Advertisement.

THE WAY OF GROWTH.

El Centro Masons have dedicated a handsome new hall. The small city owes much to the energy and spirit of its orders. One by one the village or town acquires buildings of this character until the growth of a city is attained.

FIRST AID.

The South will be the first to feel the hand of Democracy. Congress promises to repeal the tax on oleomargarine. All that is necessary to change a cotton gin into a dairy farm is to remove the tax of 10 cents a pound on cowless butter.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS.

In mighty good faith it is announced that thousands of men will at once be put to work on the railroad between San Diego and Yuma. The El Paso and Southwestern has already built from Benson to Tucson and is expected to reach Yuma by way of Phoenix in a very short time. The Phelps-Dodge people, who are the owners of the El Paso and Southwestern, own 51 per cent. of the Rock Island stock. Can our Southern Pacific friends smell smoke in a Rock Island oil burner?

NO SMOKING.

The Times suggests as a compromise of "no-smoking-in-the-cars" ordinance that shoking be prohibited in all cars not prominently labeled, front and rear, and on their ends "Smoking Car" and that the companies run at least every other car under the banner, "No Smoking Allowed." This plan has been found to work well in New York City. The disadvantage was that the smoking cars were crowded with strap-hanging ladies, while the non-smoking cars were so empty that the motorman and the conductor were lonesome.

PLAYING FAIR.

It has become necessary for the Mayor of Los Angeles to explain to eastern bankers what the Socialists say about the aqueduct is untrue. These libelers had their say in open court. A committee of investigation was organized and the Socialists had the limit of representation. Thousands of dollars were spent and weeks of time were devoted to a searching inquiry into every charge made by the malcontents and their charges were not sustained. It is time for the falsifiers to put an end to their misrepresentations in the interest of common decency and of their own homes.

TUCSON.

The Ancient and Honorable Pueblo of Tucson is whooping things up because of the completion of the El Paso and Southwestern Railway to that burg. Its press predicts that when to this new outlet and inlet of traffic there shall be added the railway from Tucson to Point Lobos on the Gulf of California Tucson will swell to the proportions of the biggest city between Los Angeles and the Missouri River.

The Times congratulates the Tucsonites and Tucsonitas on the outlook and hopes that the predictions of its journalists may in the near future become realized prophecy.

BALD HEADS.

Do not scoff at the wigless ones. Remember what the bears of old Palestine did to the irreverent brats who bid Elisha "go up." Two bears breakfasted on forty-two young mockers, and there were no cold victuals left over for luncheon.

Did anybody ever see a bald-headed beggar? Do not our leading bankers, and merchants, and lawyers, and doctors, and divines present bald heads as certificates of mental supremacy? Would not Absalom have fared better if he had lost his hair early in life? Bald Knob is a thriving city and Old Baldy is the monarch of the San Bernardino Mountains.

WAR FASHIONS.

Thanks to his national costume the Turk in full flight, though not a heroic figure, is still picturesque. The graceful sweep of his garments as he dodges Bulgarian bullets has suggested to modistes a new fashion in skirts for plump women. So we read in the society papers. From cutting a becoming figure as a fighting man to becoming a cut to figure in a fashion plate will for the defeated Ottoman be "the most unkindest cut of all."

But while plump ladies are to become attired a la Turk, out of compliment to the Balkan allies, "spring maids" are to be "hipless." We suppose the Balkans must have become hipless from constantly girding up their loins to start forth against the Moslem marauders.

ADVANCING.

A Highland Park people bought a public school site a few days ago not far from the western limits of the Cudahy ranch for $2000. Forty years ago this property belonged to a Mexican who used to sell 160 acres of it for $50 every time he needed a haircut. Then he would come to Los Angeles, acquire a shave, a haircut and a jag. After that he would return to his hacienda and wait until the necessity of another haircut forced him to part with a fresh quarter section. As he owned about 12,000 acres of land, the loss of a few sections never bothered him any. If heaven can spare his proud spirit long enough to take a squint over the ramparts and see his ranch selling for $2000 an acre and some of it for that much a lot perhaps he may look up Shylock and make him a Christmas present.

COUNCIL VOTES—PEOPLE PAY.

The City Council, with the sole exception of Councilman Williams, voted yesterday to carry through the La Brea storm drain assessment plans of the Board of Public Works—overriding the reasonable and emphatic protest of an undoubted majority of the taxpayers of the proposed district.

Why did the City Council overrule the judgment and the wishes of the people who pay the price? That is what a large number of interested citizens are asking, and are asking with the intention of finding an explanation. These people raised a number of questions in the Council Chamber which have received no adequate answer. For instance, why is the La Brea storm drain, which is no more imperatively needed than some others in the city, forced through over the protests of the residents of that district? Why are the boundaries of this district made to include portions of the city in nowise benefited by this particular drain? Why is there no definite plan for the equalization of the assessment according to the location and the benefits derived? Why is the assessment the same per front foot regardless of the valuation of the property assessed? Is the natural channel, which is now the cause of complaint, to be filled up when the storm drain is completed? These are some of the pertinent questions which were put and which no one seemed able—or willing—to answer.

That the city is now too heavily bonded to admit of the proper and usual provision for a storm drain system is, of course, the explanation for the assessment district plan. But why is the city now bonded to the limit and why are its citizens taxed and assessed to a degree that threatens confiscation in some cases? We are paying for large and necessary improvements with our aqueduct, harbor and school bonds, it is true; but we are also paying very heavily for many unnecessary expenses. We are paying for mistakes of judgment, for errors of administration, for incompetence—and is that all?

The people who are already straining every nerve to keep up with the demands of the present city administration are doing some serious thinking and, in the end, it is the people who rule. It is safe to say that the people who were turned down in the Council Chamber yesterday will look critically on the methods employed in the construction of this Brea storm drain, and they will keep their eyes open to see who is to receive the most benefit from it and what proportion of the cost is borne by those who will sell lots, now unsalable, when the drain is completed.

"CHECK" THEM.

The workers of the Arizona and California River Regulation Commission have a great work before them at Washington in aiding, by their presentation of facts and arguments to the committees of Congress, to obtain the passage of a bill appropriating $10,000,000 per annum for reservoirs and aqueducts in California and Arizona. In this work they will have able allies, or, to speak more accurately, they will ably aid those who are already allied for the work. There is Senator Frank Newlands of Nevada, who is the father and mother, and uncle and aunt of the policy of Federal aid to irrigation. There is the poetical young Senator Henry T. Ashurst of Arizona, who in one term has leaped to the front as the blue-sky orator of the Senate. There is Senator Smith of Arizona—good old Mark—who always knows what he wants and usually gets what he goes for. When the Secretary of the Treasury sees Mark coming with a demand for an appropriation for Arizona he places the key of the government strong box on a desk and crawls under the office lounge. There are Senators Smoot and Sutherland of Utah, who will leave their dinners at any time to explain to a New England Congressman the advantages of irrigation. There are our own Senators and those from New Mexico, from Colorado, from Wyoming, from Idaho, from Washington and from Oregon. In all there are twenty Senators from the Pacific and Rocky Mountain States, and there are twenty-four Senators from States fronting on the Mississippi River who can be counted upon to push legislation for the impounding of flood waters and the irrigation of arid lands.

With the passage of the bill in behalf of which the Arizona and California River Regulation Commission will do stalwart work, the cry of "back to the farm" will no longer be a barren ideality, for there will be farms to "go back" to on both sides of the Colorado River. Parker will be the third city of Arizona, the lower San Joaquin Valley will be densely populated, and Los Angeles will be the depot and enterpot of an additional million of people. The Arizona and California River Regulation Commission ought to be checked by our merchants and manufacturers and home owners—checks in three figures preferred, those in two figures gratefully received.

THE COMPLETED CANAL.

If the Panama Canal shall be completed, as is now promised, on July 1, 1913, it does not follow that it will be open for traffic before January 1, 1915,—the date originally set for the opening. If this prove to be the case, and our city fathers or their "commission" successors (in case the voters shall conclude on Tuesday next, by voting for the new charter, to place the government of this city irrevocably in the hands of Lissner and his gang) get busy, we may have the harbor at San Pedro ready for the receipt of ships.

The completion of the canal will necessitate the construction of facilities for ships desiring to pass through the canal. There will be fleets ready as soon as the canal is ready. The New York Sun editorially calls attention to the fact that preparations to dock, repair, water and coal or "oil" the ships must be made on a large scale. The ships will have to wait their turns to go through. A score of them may arrive at one terminus or the other about the same time. Long piers, with slips for vessels to warp into must be built at Colon and Panama. There are to be three dry docks, one for the largest ships afloat and constructed from the solid rock.

On the Atlantic side a great breakwater must be provided to protect ships at their berths from storms. There is to be an extensive system of repair shops. Coaling plants with a capacity of 200,000 tons at Colon and 100,000 at Panama must be ready when the canal opens, and for ships using oil as fuel there will be tanks holding 80,000 barrels at each end of the Zone. Tugs, lighters, floating cranes are to be a part of the regular equipment. For the operation of the lock gates elaborate preparations must be made, and there are a thousand and one details of management with reference to the housing and care of the great staff of employees to be attended to. Then there are the range towers at the entrances and along the route to be built, and a complicated system of lighting to be installed. Last, but of the first importance, the fortifications, with guns in place, must be completed, or be so advanced that the Zone can be defended.

When—with the gracious permission of George the Fifth—an American dreadnought flying the Star Spangled Banner shall steam from the Caribbean Sea through the canal into the Gulf of Panama, it will be a proud day for Uncle Sam and the opening of a new and mighty growth for California and California's greatest city—Los Angeles.

PENSIONING PRESIDENTS.

Everybody will be doing it. Not pensioning Presidents, or drawing Presidential pensions, but expressing themselves with no little freedom on the subject. The proposition is that a man who came from Scotland went into business at Pittsburgh and made money and smoke. When he was finally smoked out he still had money. He was always kind to dumb animals and he conceived the plan of pensioning ex-Presidents and of paying for it out of his own pocket. He is too old to expect to wear pockets long, but his estate will last when he is no longer the personal owner of a Scotch castle which he seldom occupies. If his offer to Americans is an insult to Hoke Smith and other proud Americans, they have it coming. Americans never have displayed any great interest in their ex-Presidents. For that reason some of them die and others run for President again and are doubly dead. An ex-President is out of place in a poorhouse or in the United States Senate. And there is not always somebody to pay his expenses on a hunting trip to Africa. Ex-Presidents ought to receive some pension for their noble conduct and heroic sacrifice in giving up the joys of private life for the uproar of public office. They deserve pensions, but no private individual, made in Scotland or any other country, can ever provide this fund. It can only proceed from the coffers of the United States of America.

GLASS SPONGES.

One of the marvelous discoveries of this marvelous age is that of glass sponges at the depth of 5000 feet on the bottom of the ocean on the coast of Japan. The ordinary sponge of commerce is found adhering to rocks and shells in the warm sea water around the Bahama Islands. It is gathered by divers. It is covered by a soft gelatinous matter to which it is the skeleton.

The Japanese glass sponges have a wall structure of silica which is the principal mineral substance of which glass is made. The walls of the Japanese sponges are of natural glass instead of fiber. The absence of currents in the deep bays where they were found accounts for their formation. The Japanese fishermen cleansed them of water and their soft substances, dried them, mounted them on wood and sold them to tourists as unique and beautiful specimens of glass manufacture.

A German traveler named Siebold, who was a glass-making expert, examined these specimens. He declared that it was a mechanical impossibility to create artificially forms of such delicacy and ascertained that they were the skeletons of the sponge animals.

There is a good deal of talk of the rake-off of the middleman who stands between the garden stuff and the consumer, but so far as our acquaintance goes we do not know of a single one who has made much money at it.

A Woman's Privilege.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

Today is the day for me—the present is always ours; I'll bump like a bumblebee that rustles among the flowers; all thoughts of the past I've spurned, all signs for the days of old; for yesterday's wood is burned, and yesterday's stove is cold. The present is in our grasp, for glorious deeds or crimes; then why do we sit and gasp and yearn for the good old times? The past is beneath the sod, we have but this flying hour; for yesterday's ice is thawed, and yesterday's milk is sour. Let's gather a store of plums, each doing his little best, so that when the evening comes and brings us the hour of rest, our neighbors may see the junk for which we have wrought and toiled; for yesterday's drinks are drunk, and yesterday's eggs are spoiled. Tomorrow is but a ghost, and yesterday's but a dream; to work with the bustling host—there isn't a better scheme. So gambol and dance and sing, and gather your store of rocks; today is the vital thing, today is the stuff that knocks. For yesterday's birds are gone, and yesterday's fish is hooked, and yesterday's hat's in pawn, and yesterday's goose is cooked.

Getting Their Money's Worth.

[Youth's Companion:] Mr. McNaughton, millionaire lumber merchant, gazed at the check which had just been handed him with a solemn face.

"Doesn't it look big enough?" the man asked who had made out the check.

"Oh, it's big enough," said McNaughton, "but there's nothing looks very big these days. I'm minded of the first days I spent in this country—no matter how many years ago—that was when money looked big to me.

"When I landed I went with a friend that had been over six months to the house where he boarded and lodged, and, well, too, for a sum that appears ridiculous to me now, as I look back to it.

"When we were in the midst of the dinner that was my first meal Sandy MacLaughlin put his mouth close to my ear and whispered:

"'Put butter on your pie, Angus. Three dollars a week is nae joke.'

"An' I can tell ye I put a good bit on!"

High Speed in Finance.

[New York Tribune:] William Loeb, collector of the port of New York, was discussing the wondrous speed and simplicity used in the transaction of American business.

"In a banker's office the other day," he said, "I saw a door open, a head stuck itself quickly into the opening and a voice demanded:

"'Quarter?'

"'Yep,' the bank president replied.

"'Month?'

"'Yep.'

"'Four half?'

"'No, five.'

"'Right.'

"The head withdrew. I exclaimed in wonderment:

"'What kind of a cipher is this you are talking?'

"'No cipher at all,' the president replied. 'That was one of Chicago's leading financiers, and I have just arranged to lend him $350,000 for a month at 5 per cent.'"

HOW WILSON WON THE GAME.

BY HARRY F. BOWLING.

It was a baseball championship—and for our college fame
Each one was working hard to win the great decisive game;
Yet all our hopes went glimmering away to kingdom come
When Jones, our famous outfield, dislocated his right thumb.
Jones was our steady standby—he had played in every match—
He never fumbled grounders—he never muffed a catch.
We had no other man as good, if seemed a hopeless case,
When little freshie, Wilson, was put in to take his place.

Oh, well do I remember how the keen excitement grew!
As the sixth inning came along the score stood two to two;
The seventh saw no change, the eighth without a run passed by,
When the last time we went to bat the game was still a tie;
Our captain in the ninth got home from third—and scored us one—
So as our final inning closed we led them by a run.

The poet saith: "When Greek meets Greek then comes the tug of war;"
The ball our fellows played that day was well worth rooting for;
Two men were out—and yet our chance looked pretty slim at that—
With all the bases full and their best hitter at the bat.
If he brought in those men we knew for sure the game was lost,
We had to fan that batsman out, whatever be the cost.

Our pitcher threw a ball outside, their slugger bowed his back
And hit that ball a mighty lick that made the welkin crack;
Like hounds unleashed their runners started homeward for the plate,
It looked as though that ball would clear the fence as sure as fate.
But some cried, "No! It flies too low!"
Some groaned in deep despair,
And someone shouted "D——the luck! If only Jones were there!"

Out in the field that freshie stood (we thought no good at all,)
But like a bullet from a gun he started for that ball.
On flew the ball—on flew the fielder, trembling, taut and tense,
His eye glued on the flying sphere, he car-
omed with the fence;
Swiftly rebounding from the shock, he leapt
into the air,
And with a lanky outstretched arm he nailed it fair and square;
And as the fans beheld the ball clutched tightly in his hand,
They raised a shout that raised the roof clean off of the grand stand.
The kid who won that game—a fact you never would suspect—
Is Doctor Woodrow Wilson, now our President-elect.

So all ye youthful aspirants for fame, remember that
The game's not all in pitching or in swinging on the bat;
The fellow in the outfield who knows how to catch the ball
May be the one to carry off the honors after all.

CAFETERIA LORE.

BY HAMILTON POPE GALT.

For the benefit of those who may make the same mistake I once made I would say: Do not take a seat in a cafeteria adjacent to the line of march, especially at noon, unless you want your skimpy meal of chocolate and a glass of water to be observed of all in the procession. And never permit yourself to be vis a vis with each and every passer-by.

When the people file along they have nothing else to do but look at your grub. It is all that offers itself as entertainment. If it is only chocolate and water and napkins they are naturally bored with the show. They have to resort to observing the manner in which you manipulate your fork. And even if you are not in the habit of leaving your spoon in your coffee you will do it for once in your life.

You will be guilty of every breach of etiquette that there is, although you may have mastered your etiquette book very well and know all about it.

The very people whom it is most embarrassing to meet are sure to come along at such a time and rub elbows with you; people with whom you have a mutual desire not to speak will be sure to catch your eye fifty times, or else you will feel their eyes boring a hole in the back of your neck where your hair is getting pretty rough around the edges.

They are all very hungry people in the line, and very few of them know what they are going to eat. They have to decide as they pass along and take time by the forelock.

I am never very successful on the run-the-gauntlet style of annexing viands. I always make a mistake. I forget to get myself a glass of water, and never gauge my appetite and the generosity of the cafeteria right.

When I feel like eating very moderately and order only a salad and a cup of tea I find that I really have a soup-salad-roast-beef-and-all-the-extras cavity within. When I take good care of myself and go in for roast beef they give me a whole cow and I have to pay for a lot of stuff that I cannot, possibly eat. And that's the worst thing that can ever happen to you in a cafeteria.

The champion of the cafeteria game is the one who can get through with the lowest ticket. Quite often you may win by one count, so that experts, scratch men and stars are very particular down to the last cent. A man who procures a lot of stuff and leaves it in the cafeteria is as out of place as a man who attends an afternoon tea in his pajamas, or very near it at any rate. He is considered a ham of the worst sort.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

[New York Press:] A fat woman has no time to worry about other troubles.

The way for a man to prove his sanity to a girl is for him to be crazy over her.

A man gets so excited over the way the government is run because he doesn't know how it is run.

A girl's idea about a thrilling football game is if she had some good clothes to wear at it.

What a woman can't understand is why men don't have political housecleanings in the spring, the right season for 'em.

An open season for street car bandits might help some.

Servia is the little bantam rooster among the Balkan states.

Another fall like that and Tom Gunn, the Chinese aviator, is likely to go off.

They used to split the pies in restaurants two ways, but that was quite a while ago.

"Holy Hiram" Johnson seems to have gone into his hole and pulled it in after him.

California again leads the world. We are still counting the Presidential vote out here.

It is all very well to sheathe the hatpins, but how are the tickling aigrettes to be subdued?

The distinguished Jim Flynn is in our midst. Let's see, is Jim a fighter or a Marathon runner?

This is the day before decapitation for many a turkey. He may not get ousted, but he will lose his head.

The government has settled the suit against the Brazilian coffee trust, and that without the use of an egg.

To judge by the mortality reports of the Balkan war the whole Turkish population must have been killed off long ago.

President-elect Wilson will be banqueted by the Governor-General of Bermuda, but he will not take a third cup of coffee.

In spite of the fact that women have the ballot in ten States they are still afraid of mice. Will somebody please explain?

With the death of Senator Rayner the only real friend of the Constitution in the body is Joe Bailey, and he is weary of the job.

Queen Mary of England has already begun her Christmas shopping. Have we a royal precedent for the ladies of Los Angeles.

If the powers are not too busy they might intervene in the proposed war in the ranks of the National League. Why not invoke Lynch law?

John Schrank, the assailant of Col. Roosevelt, has been placed in the insane asylum at Oshkosh, Wis. Now let the incident be deemed closed.

Go to a butcher shop for a big steak and it costs you at least a dollar. Get the same kind of beef in a roast and the bill is 8 cents. Can anybody explain?

A groom up-State was married in a white serge suit lined with white silk, and white shoes. Wonder if he wore anything on the train or carried a shower bouquet?

The smokers who insist upon using 10-cent election cigars on the street cars are to blame for much of the agitation against smoking on these public conveyances.

One of the first things to be tackled by the new Democratic Congress to lessen the high cost of living will be to reduce the tax on golf balls. That ought to help some.

Originally Thanksgiving Day was set apart as a season of prayer for blessings vouchsafed during the year. Now it is the favorite date for low-brow boxing matches.

A man down in Dallas, Tex., was beguiled to confess a murder by the charms of music. We have known some kinds of music that impelled men to threaten to commit murder.

President-elect Woodrow Wilson seems to be able to pick up a fine collection of perfectly good limericks while in Bermuda. We understand they are indigenous to the soil over there.

The new Balkan play ought to be on pretty soon with the story of some fair princess, a la Graustark or Zenda, restored to a throne after she had been deprived of power by some fiendish attached robber chief.

It might be well to recollect that for the Bull Moose idiocy we should have a Republican Congress, and there would be no reason for the citrus fruit growers of California to combine for their own protection against threatened free trade.

What next is going to happen in this topsy turvy world. At Pantages this week they have a suffragette minstrel act. Of course they don't use such a martial name for it, calling it the Minstrel Misses, but what is one to think of such a sacrilegious invasion of a field that from time immemorial has been deemed the exclusive sphere of down-trodden man.

To be sure the ladies have failed to produce a female Dockstader or a Primrose thus far, and one misses a Dick Jose, but the bones and the banjo are there, and a budget of old-time songs, and Minnie Crawford as the interlocutor, coaxes some old-time jokes out of the end men. Pardon us girls, but if you will butt in, men you must be called.

Hattie Quinn, way over on the left end, has most to do, contributing some excellent solo numbers and a dance that is well worth seeing, and if the act itself were not sufficiently novel, the girls come in as honest to goodness skirt wearers, and black up on the stage. After that, only their ankles and voices betray them. O'Neal and Walmsley offer a bunch of nonsense, but the salary for this should really ought to go to Musical Director Rachmann. If that is his regular voice he is not long for the job. It's either stellar or caller honors for him. Of course O'Neal and Walmsley are there, all the time, and contribute plenty of fun, and two good song numbers.

Sadick and Freeman, assisted by Dode Weston, offer "Marked Money." It is not new by any means, but it is a vital story, of the "Getaway" type, and is just as engrossing now as ever was. The two thieves, and the detective are all interesting types, and the underworld slang is a revelation in mangled English.

The Cervo duo tickle the accordeon as an opener, and the Zara Carmen trio of hoop rollers and baton manipulators have a prettily staged offering. H. E. Langford completes the bill with a repertoire of songs.

A series of pictures of much grace and color is incorporated in "La Dance de Violins," and there is harmony for the ear as well as the eye. The nine violinists, all pretty girls, move with the easy charm and precision of poses in a Greek frieze, while playing the score of the ballet as danced by Mlle. Ivonne Andre and her five partners.

This beautiful number is the leading feature at the Empress Theater this week. Mademoiselle comes all the way from the Imperial Opera at Moscow, bringing with her Louis Scalise and Catherine Schultz, with the corps de ballet. There is poetry in Mlle. Ivonne's dancing, fire as well as grace. Avaline is not without the charm and lightness of Mordkin; his work is fine and supple. The ballet has many movements, all of them showing many of them delicately lovely. The number is put on with artistic good taste in the matter of properties.

The bill, good from beginning to end, is opened by Mme. Bessee's white cockatoos, whose saffron crests bristle with pride under the applause of the audience at the Empress. The cockatoos do remarkably well trained and go through the usual stunts of such birds commendably.

Arthur Whitelaw, Irish comedian, has jokes that are not all new, but they are jocose and diverting. The songs he sings are foolish ones, for the most part, but none the less welcome for that. The Three Italian Amateurs are happy-go-lucky purveyors of Dago nonsense, tunes and all. Dressed in vari-colored velvet and wearing buccaneering hats, they are a sufficiently picturesque trio. One of them has the sensitive profile of Dante, and it seems a pity that he should crack jokes of such poor caliber.

The humorous physical culture stunts of Collins and Hart are wildly applauded. These men are really funny as well as strong. They have new stuff—and the man who makes up without an original joke is thrice welcome. The Dancing Maddens, a boy and girl, are clever on the clogs, and can also offer an idea or two.

Labor Day at Brockton Fair is the theme of the moving pictures. We see the horses and prize bulls, the races, the balloon ascensions, the antics of the white trick donkey, and the like. An entertaining series of views.

According to telegraphic advices received yesterday from Oliver Morosco, "Bird Of My Heart," with Laurette Taylor in the title role, scored "a great hit" on the occasion of its first production in the East at Rochester, N. Y., Monday night.

It may be remembered that Manager Morosco selected Rochester for the opening of "The Bird of Paradise," which has already made him a great fortune, and he is known to have great regard for the judgment of Rochester theater-goers, which, by the reports, indicates that he has another winner in the Hartley Manners comedy.

Next Monday night, Miss Taylor and "Bird Of My Heart" will move into New York and serve as the opening attraction for the New Cort Theater.

A strong, husky lad who thinks he is some pumpkins with a foot-ball and brags about those sixty-yard runs he used to make when he was younger, had better make a visit to the Century this week and see what the girls down there do with the inside-right.

Of course, everyone nek beforehand that the Century girls could use their nimble toes won them from the night Manager Loewen opened the house, and said house has been crowded ever since, but this is the first time one has had a chance to look on the power behind those pretty feet, unless perchance, some visitor learned something on the sly.

The discovery all comes about when Ethel Mandale, who generally does something when she takes the stage, gives her football song. She is a ball-a-dying, and what between Dolores Deane, Sis Mathews, Lillian Mellie Morey and the rest, the air most of the time, and the balcony.

Even the football has anything on the diet of "Heinze, the Man" which is this week's offering, for Jules Mendel as Heinze looks out for what plot there is, while Monte Carter looks out for Jules's money, which is but natural, considering the character he plays. As for Al Franks, he has two ladies on his hands and it's no wonder that when the infernal machine comes on, a la City Hall, he forgets to run.

Said ladies are Rose Mendel and Gertrude Brennan. At least Miss Brennan is a lady. Not so Rose. The way she sings "Help! Help!" to the bald heads in front, sends them all scurrying for the stage door or the saloon. For a correct definition of Rose, ask Musical Director Nova, who is the greatest sufferer.

All of which indicates that there is a jolly show this week, as well as a girly one, but oh you football!

The opera, Il Trovatore, is to be featured at Clune's Grand Theater, corner First and Main streets, the remainder of the week, with special music from the opera score. The opera is said to be the most perfect, photographically, ever done into motion pictures. Five reels of splendid pictures are to be shown.

At Clune's Fifth-street Theater a Thanksgiving story, "The Three Bachelors' Turkey," an appropriate comedy film, will head the programme of five reels of pictures. A scenic tour of Brittany, a strong love drama, "Satin and Gingham," and several other dramas and comedies are included.

The Clune Broadway house is to take its patrons through the New York zoological gardens by means of motion photography, showing many rare specimens of animal life. A stirring drama, "The Triangle," and a funny comedy picture, "In the Flat Above," will be features of the programme of five reels of film.

"Hasel Kirke," that stirring and sterling old romance of love, tears and eventual happiness to all concerned, is the chief attraction at the Mozart Grand-avenue Theater this week. The play is an old-time favorite and the plot familiar to many. As a photoplay the art of the picture maker has brought out in a pleasing way the human quality and naturalness of the narrative.

"In the Land of the Lions" is another two-reel thrilling melodrama being featured this week.

There will be an extra Thanksgiving Day matinee performance at the Majestic Theater tomorrow of "A Modern Eve," which seems to have captured Los Angeles by storm, the attendance thus far this week being of enormous proportions.

The opening of the New Morosco Theater on Broadway is now less than a month away, the opening being scheduled to take place on Monday night, December 23, when Paul Armstrong's new play, "The Love Story of the Ages," will be given its first presentation. Mr. Armstrong is expected from New York the latter part of this week to begin rehearsals for the new play.

Winter Aids to Beauty

(By Mme. D'Millie.)

"If the eyebrows are thin and 'washed-out' looking, they can be made to come in darker and longer by gentle massaging with plain pyroxin. Applying pyroxin to the lashes with the finger tips will make them grow long and lovely.

"Dainty complexions suffer from cold winds and wintry weather. The best protection is a lotion made by dissolving a package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Rub this over the face, neck and arms in the morning and it will do all day. It is a true beautifier and does not rub off or show like powder. Mayatone makes the skin soft, smooth and white and prevents growth of hair.

"Mother's Balm gives almost instant relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, colds in head or chest, and is a sovereign remedy for catarrh. It should be on every woman's dresser.

"Superfluous hair on face or forearms can be quickly and painlessly removed. Make a paste with a little delatone and water, cover the hairs, permit to remain two minutes, wipe off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone.

"Washing the head exposes one to catching cold, and too much moisture dulls and deadens the hair; therefore dry shampooing is growing in popularity among women who know. Mix four ozs. of powdered orris root with a package of therox; sprinkle a little of this mixture on the head, brush out, and your scalp is clean, and your hair wavy, lustrous and easy to do up. Therox energizes the hair roots."—[Advertisement.

ROADS JOIN RATE FIGHT.

Arizona Lines Oppose Three-Cent Fare Statute.

If Referendum Has Lost, So Also Has Suffrage.

Vice-President-Elect Marshall to Visit Phoenix.

[Special Correspondence to The Times.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 23.—All the railroads of Arizona now are joined in the suit against the State of Arizona and the Corporation Commission to restrain the State from enforcing the 3-cent fare statute on the basis of a mandate of the people, as expressed through referendum at the late election. The case will be heard in Phoenix December 2, a temporary Circuit Court injunction delaying the enforcement of the statute until that date at least. The companies all contend that the new rate is confiscatory and therefore should be made void under the terms of the fourteenth amendment of the Federal Constitution. One of the main cards for the railroads is the fact that the letter of the law apparently was not complied with by the Secretary of State, who is said to have sent out the notices covering the referendum propositions about thirty days late.

It is now whispered that the State Corporation Commission is prepared to act upon its own responsibility in case the suit is decided against the State, especially if an adverse decision be made upon the basis of the lack of regularity. Under the State Constitution the Corporation Commission is fully empowered to establish any rate for railroad freights and fares it may deem proper. Inasmuch as the people of the State have voted for a 3-cent fare, the commission proposes to regard that action as mandatory and to establish that rate if the courts should grant the prayer of the railroads.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

But a lot of other things were mixed up in the referendum election, the most important being the female suffrage amendment. If the referendum procedure is adjudged to have been fatally defective, then suffrage goes down with the rest, probably not to be revived until the next general election two years hence. Already there has been discussion over the anomaly that while suffrage has been granted women, they have not at the same time been given qualification to serve as jurors or public officials and have not been made liable to the payment of poll tax.

Arizona is to be honored in January by the arrival in Phoenix of Vice-President-elect Thomas R. Marshall. He has written to Reese M. Ling, national Democratic committeeman for Arizona, that his term as Governor of the State of Indiana will expire January 13 and that two days later he will start with his family for Phoenix. Mr. Marshall has relatives in Scottsdale, twelve miles from Phoenix, and twice before has visited this section on brief vacation trips. In view of his high official standing, it is now probable that entertainment will be offered him on a more or less elaborate scale by the local Board of Trade and by the Arizona Democracy.

SENATOR SMITH LEAVES.

Tomorrow Senator Mark Smith will leave Tucson for Washington, making the trip by way of Texas. On the same day Senator and Mrs. Ashurst will leave Prescott for Washington, having only lately returned from a visit with the mother of Mrs. Ashurst, who lives near Los Angeles. On Tuesday will leave Representative and Mrs. Carl Hayden. Maj. Hayden has been delayed several days as defendant in a suit brought against him in his former capacity as Sheriff of Maricopa county, as such held responsible for the loss at the fair grounds last year of a balloon in which J. H. Fleming had an equity of $1500. The Sheriff had attached the receipts of the balloon box office. The balloon crew thereupon deserted the ship and that afternoon the gas bag was blown from its moorings by a high wind. After a trial of several days a jury found in favor of the defendant. During the course of the controversy Maj. Hayden avers that he picked up so much information concerning balloons that he will seek to establish himself in Congress as chairman of a special committee on aeronautics.

Judge Sloan will soon consider an interesting question, which possibly involves the life of Goodwin, sentenced under a decree of a former Territorial District Court to be hanged at the Territorial penitentiary at Florence. Now conditions have changed and the State Board of Control refuses to let the execution take place in the prison. The question bothering the lawyers is whether Goodwin may legally be executed at any other point, though it is admitted that there is no power to coerce a State official into obedience of any Federal Court mandate.

About the same time will be returned a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Sloan upon the case of Gen. Emilio Campa, late of the Mexican insurrectos, now a prisoner in the Pima County Jail at Tucson. Campa is being supported by a Mexican Protective League, formed in Phoenix a short time ago especially for the benefit of rebel refugees. It is alleged that the Mexican government is actively interested in the cases against him for violation of the neutrality laws.

There is a possibility that Arizona may lose the honored head of her Episcopal church organization, if the immigration laws shall be strictly enforced. Jim Hong, a Chinese employed as cook by Bishop J. W. Atwood, has been arrested for unlawful entry into the United States. Possessed of all needful papers showing his right to remain within the United States, Jim was so indiscreet as to make an excursion to Mexico, coming back surreptitiously. He is a ——— of rare accomplishments and is an individual of known personal rectitude, and the bishop states that if his cook shall be deported he himself will feel like following to China, there to serve as a missionary.

LABOR EDITOR LEAVES.

A few months ago in Phoenix was started the Arizona Labor News, self-advertised as the organ of the labor unions of the State. The publisher was William D. Frad who, according to telegraphic advices, has just been sentenced to serve eighteen months in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan. Frad left Phoenix a couple of days before election, stating that he was going to Albuquerque to vote and leaving his office in the Fleming building in charge of a stenographer. He is also said to have left numerous bills. It now develops that Frad departed in the custody of an officer and was taken directly to Kansas City, charged with using the mails with intent to defraud. With him went I. A. Trent, a brother-in-law, who received a similar sentence. The case against them was that of "giving away" lots in a townsite at Oakland, Okla., where land had been purchased for a few dollars an acre and where the "free" lots cost the victims $4 each, supposedly a charge made for the abstract and title. The local Trades Council denies responsibility for Thad's actions here or elsewhere.

GOES AFTER CLUBS.

The District Attorney is proceeding against ten so-called "clubs" in Phoenix and has ordered them to close their doors after midnight and during Sundays. The only defiance has come from a negro club, wherein it is claimed that the only requisite for membership has been the possession of enough money to pay for the drinks.

The Arizona Telegraph and Telephone Company has been sued for $20,000 damages by E. A. Starr, owner of a local corral, who alleges that he was seriously injured by the carelessness of the employees of the corporation. The plaintiff was sitting upon a wire fence at a time when a telephone wire was permitted to drop down and to make an electric connection between a high-voltage wire and the fence, very much to the injury of the plaintiff's bodily comfort and peace of mind.

Lucille Rich, aged 3, was drowned Tuesday in an irrigation ditch five miles northeast of Phoenix. Her playmates sought to rescue her, but she was carried down the stream a half-mile and was dead when dragged to the bank. Her parents had been residents here only a month, coming from Tropico, Cal., to which point they have returned with the body of the child.

Blocked by her grandmother in her plans to wed, Clotilde Parro, a Mexican girl, aged 14, attempted suicide late last night by jumping into the deep town ditch. The shock of the icy water at once changed the girl's mind upon the subject of suicide, and she yelled lustily for help. Near by was the home of a physician, who ran to the rescue and pulled the girl from the ditch and gave her shelter until the police could patch up her domestic troubles.

ARIZONA NOTES.

Olive picking has been under way for about a month past and will continue until late in December. The supply is inadequate to fill the demand, only about 150 acres being available in this locality. A market could be found for the product of at least 1000 acres.

A carload a day of prime navel oranges is being shipped from Phoenix by the Arizona Orange Association to eastern cities. The first carloads will reach New York well before Thanksgiving and the last shipments are expected on the eastern markets before Christmas.

An interesting feature of the Democratic excursion to Washington in March will be the Phoenix Indian School Band, which will be augmented to sixty pieces for the occasion and which is to be transported at government expense.

Castle Hot Springs, forty miles north of Phoenix, and the Ingleside Club, ten miles northeast, have opened for the winter season.

KNIGHTS OF KHORASSAN.

Will Hold Thanksgiving Ball Tonight for Benefit of Fund to Send Patrol to Minneapolis.

Al Borak Patrol, Knights of Khorassan, is preparing to attend the national convention at Minneapolis next year, at which time it will boom Charles Stansbury of this city for Imperial Prince. For the benefit of the fund a ball will be held in Turner Hall this evening, for which the most elaborate arrangements have been made.

An effort will also be made at Minneapolis to bring the national convention to this city in 1914, by which time the local lodges expect to complete a magnificent Pythian building for the housing of the lodges, and provided with adequate accommodations for functions of a social character.

NEW DELICATESSEN OPENED.

J. A. William Meiling entertained his friends in a unique manner on Monday at the opening of his second establishment, on South Hill street. The floral decorations were distributed among the guests as favors and during the afternoon and evening the assembled friends were served with light refreshments. Beginning at 1:30 the guests continued to arrive up to 9:30 last night. Several hundred persons took advantage of the invitation extended to the public to become acquainted with the new enterprise.

COUNTING COST OF THE CHARTER.

PROPOSED DOCUMENT UNDER THE MICROSCOPE.

Gesner Williams Tells Taxpayers of Manner in Which Burdens Would Be Increased by Freak Municipal Constitution—Works Makes Naive Admissions About It.

At a meeting Monday night in Rose Hall, Fifty-fifth street and Moneta avenue, Gesner Williams told the people of that part of the city what they may expect if the proposed city charter is adopted next Tuesday. He declared that within a few years it would be impossible for a small property holder to own his home on account of the exorbitant taxes, and that people who have this year paid exactly double what they paid last year will appreciate what this means.

He said the things that have been put in the charter to get the Socialist vote are an insult to the intelligence of the people and that the majority of the freeholders took no part in getting it up.

T. W. Williams, who spoke for the Socialists, said he did not pretend to indorse the entire proposed charter but said he believed it to be an improvement on the old one. He emphasized the provisions that will permit the city to go into any kind of business, from a bakery to a sawmill and drive out every vestige of private capital.

Several members of the Board of Freeholders who framed the proposed charter enumerated the provisions of the weird document at a dinner given by the Southern California Civic League at the Hollenback cafe last night.

Dr. John R. Haynes, professional faddist and president of the Board of Freeholders, presided and made a lengthy address on the features of the proposed municipal creation and grilled the leading business and professional men who are opposing it. "It's the finest city charter ever framed," said Haynes, "and the men who drafted it are all high-minded and unselfish civic patriots.

"There's Meyer Lissner, a splendid and public-spirited citizen; William F. Bryant, former chairman of the Good Government Organization; Fred C. Wheeler, a prominent Socialist and student of city government, and others equally well known and respected."

"Lewis R. Works, Guy Eddie's attorney, and one of the freeholders, made the principal talk of the evening.

"No man can hope to understand the charter by simply reading it," said Works, "for the simple reason that he doesn't know the spirit which prompted the men who framed it. The men who drafted the charter know why it was drafted and its meaning and if anyone is in doubt as to the intent and spirit of the charter let him ask any of the freeholders about it and they will make known any point in question or dispute."

YOUNG LIFE GOES OUT.

Gay Beginning and Sad Ending of Pleasure Trip from Chicago — One Youth Dead.

A sad ending to what was expected to be a pleasurable and profitable trip to Southern California, a few weeks ago, came yesterday when the body of Herbert McCary, aged 20, reached Chicago for burial, in charge of Henry Symonds of Los Angeles. Less than a month from the time of his arrival in Los Angeles and less than twelve hours after he was taken sick, McCary died in the Pacific Hospital here a few days ago. He was the son of Clyde J. McCary, a prominent official in the Penn Mutual Insurance Company.

McCary came to Los Angeles with Symonds, his chum, and visted at the home of the latter's brother, E. L. Symonds, in Hollywood. With Henry Symonds he made an auto trip to Chico and last Thursday morning, shortly after his return to Los Angeles, was taken seriously ill. On the advice of Dr. E. H. Jacobs the boy was hurried to the Pacific Hospital and died a few hours after reaching there.

After much telegraphing, McCary's father was located in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York and notified of his son's death. He immediately wired back to send the body on to Chicago, and Saturday night Henry Symonds started East with the corpse of the chum with whom he had departed from Chicago so gaily only a month before.

MARKET IS STIFFENING.

Raisin and Dried Fruit Prices Going Up and Steady Demand Delights the Producers.

DINUBA, Nov. 26.—Rapid improvement has been noted in the raisin and dried fruit market during the last few days and the packers have evidently no desire to conceal the fact they are anxious to secure goods to cover their orders. Three cents is being offered for muscats and the market is reported firm. It was stated yesterday that in several instances 2¾ cents had been paid for small stocks and practically no examination of the goods had been made.

Peaches are showing a decided upward trend and 5 cents is now the prevailing price throughout the district. While no very large advances are anticipated in dried fruit the best judges believe the market will be maintained throughout the season.

NEW GAS PLANT.

A. A. Weber and R. W. Wilson of Los Angeles, head a syndicate of capitalists who have expressed their intention of starting work upon the construction of a gas plant for Dinuba, their application for franchise having been made tentatively to the City Council.

Weber & Wilson state that the plant will cost approximately $25,000, and they have agreed that one condition of their permit to do business here may be that the plant shall be sold to the city, at an agreed price, at any time after operation of one year.

INVESTIGATION BY GOVERNMENT.

TOBACCO IMPORTS CERTIFIED TO WRONGLY HERE?

Special Customs Inspector Says Wrapper Tobacco Has Been Listed as Filler to Escape Payment of Higher Duty—Half Dozen Bales in One Shipment Mislabeled.

Results of an investigation now being conducted in Los Angeles by Moses Paraschelsky of Detroit, special agent of the United States Customs Department, are said to show conclusively that some of the local cigar manufacturers have for years been escaping the payment of duty on wrapper tobacco by listing it as "filler."

The duty on imported "filler" is 50 cents a pound, while the duty on the wrapper leaf is $2.50 a pound. Thus by certifying filler as wrapper the buyer saves $2 a pound, provided he isn't caught in the deception. The law provides that any bale having more than 15 per cent. wrapper shall be assessed as all wrapper.

As was published exclusively in The Times, the inspector was sent here to learn why it is that duty hasn't been paid on a single pound of the wrapper leaf at the Los Angeles port in five years. Two appraisers are working under his direction.

The particular consignment now coming in for investigation was shipped from Havana, Cuba, to New Orleans, reaching Los Angeles the 13th inst. There were 225 bales in the lot, valued at $10,000. The shipment was delivered to the St. Elmo Cigar Company, No. 718 Gladys avenue, one of the largest tobacco importing concerns in the city.

Work of appraising this consignment began yesterday. Already it has become evident that a half-dozen bales or more will be assessed for the purposes of duty as wrapper leaf. One bale was found to be almost 25 per cent. wrapper.

Paraschelsky's visit here will mean that hereafter there will be a closer inspection by government agents of tobacco shipments arriving at this port and that, if instructions are carried out, there will be no chance in future for consignees to evade the payment of the higher duty on wrapper tobacco.

ERRORS DISCOVERED.

TULARE, Nov. 26.—Errors have been discovered in the construction work of the new $20,000 Methodist Episcopal church, now building, and brick work to the value of about $1000 will be torn out and relaid. It was stated by the architect, who had placed a supposed competent superintendent in charge, that brick walls and concrete foundations were laid from three to fourteen inches out of line. Several men have been discharged and work was halted pending discussion of the mistakes.

Problem Assuming Smaller Proportions.

Although details have not been publicly divulged it is understood that a tentative offer has been made for the 18 gravity fuel oil of the recently-organized Oil Marketing Association by the Independent Oil Producers' Agency. The proposition which has been made will be considered at a meeting to be held December 7.

Because of this and other recent developments there is a growing belief that the problem of finding a market for the oil of the companies whose product has been refused by the Standard, will find solution through the Agency.

The problem of taking care of the low-gravity production has been relieved to a great extent by recent events. At the time the Standard issued its edict barring oil under 18 gravity it was estimated that the quantity affected amounted to about 6000 barrels a day. Since then the North American Oil Consolidated Company, which has a production of almost 6000 barrels of low gravity oil per day, has entered into negotiations for the sale of its holdings, which practically assured their being taken over. The future owners are expected to market their own oil.

Another company affected to the extent of 2000 barrels a day by the Standard's edict is said to have an agreement with the Associated Oil Company by reason of which its product will be handled for a year. Some other producers have their own methods of solving the difficulties which confronted them because of the Standard's refusal. It is therefore estimated that at present the full amount of heavy gravity oil in the Marketing Association, which will not be lost for a market unless some delay for handling it is involved, amounts to only about 11,000 to 12,000 barrels a day, or about 300,000 to 350,000 per month.

FIELD ACTIVITIES.

The No. 6 well of the Alaska Pioneer Oil Company on section 32, 32-23, near the Pacific Crude gusher, is attracting considerable interest as it is nearing completion. The section in which the well is located has been made famous by the two Buick gushers and that of the Pacific Crude, and consequently big things are looked for from every new well that is put down. The Alaska Pioneer's No. 6 is drilled to 1170 feet, and is within the range where the gushers have generally begun to flow. An effort was made to shoot out the hole the latter part of last week, an excellent gas pressure was developed, and for several minutes the oil was thrown over the derrick. Owing to the large amount of gas the flow ceased almost immediately.

The Alaska Pioneer also has No. 5 on the same section cemented at about 2100 feet, and drilling is expected to commence again this week.

On the same section the Buick Oil Company has been cleaning out No. 4, and it is expected to flow in a day or two. The hole is down 3265 feet, and the gas pressure is very strong. Preparations have been made to shoot the well in under control, and new fittings have been installed.

The Lakeview gusher, which came in last week again with a heavy flow of gas and a little oil, has been doing nothing but dry gas lately. At the time it was estimated that the gas pressure was in excess of 7,000,000 cubic feet a day, but this has dwindled down until it is said there is hardly a paying quantity.

No. 6 well of the Dunlop Oil Company on section 28, 32-23, has been perforated and is being cleaned out. Indications are that a very good well will be secured. More than 100 feet of sand entered the hole at the time of perforating, and this must be cleaned out before the well is put on pump.

The Boreaby Oil Company is drilling a well in La Habra Valley deep. The production secured at the last report amounted to about 250 barrels of heavy oil.

The Amalgamated Oil Company has begun building rigs for wells Nos. 15 and 16 in the valley. The sites for these two are on the east side of the valley in higher ground.

The Brea Canyon Oil Company is making a very fine showing with well No. 1, which is down about 1750 feet. Fine oil showings were encountered at the depth of 500 feet.

The Standard Oil Company has finished its casing and cemented off the water in the No. 8 well on section 19, 32-23 in the Midway field at a depth of 3000 feet. Well No. 9, on section twelve in the same township and range is being rigged up. It is expected that work will be started on building a rig for No. 2 well of the Canadian Pacific Oil Company on section 4, 32-23 about December 1. Two wells on the property are producing about 125 barrels of high-gravity oil.

Y.M.C.A. Announces That It Has Right of International Meet—Until Nineteen Fifteen.

General Secretary Luther of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday made the announcement of a radical and important change in the meeting of the International Convention of the association in 1913. For some months they have been working on the details for entertaining the international body here next year, but it was announced yesterday that the convention has been changed to Cincinnati, and a deal has been made whereby the meeting will be held in Los Angeles in 1915 simultaneously with the exposition. In regular order, it would not come until 1916, but the International Committee, seeing the advantage of a larger gathering, brought about the change.

Luther says that ever since the meeting was decided for this city he has been receiving letters from Y.M.C.A. workers all over the world suggesting the possibility of making the change, many of them wish to visit the exposition, but could not make two trips to the coast together. He feels that the attendance of the gathering has been greatly magnified, and while disappointed at the delay, is nevertheless, pleased.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR PRODUCERS.

Tentative Offer Is Made for Heavy Oil.

FIELD ACTIVITIES.

No. 6 well of the Alaska Home Oil Company on section 32, 4-15, near the Pacific Crude gusher, is creating considerable interest as to its coming completion. The section in which the well is located has been surrounded by the two Buick gushers and that of the Pacific Crude, and consequently big things are looked for when every new well that is put down. The Alaska Pioneer's No. 6 is drilled below 3000 feet, and is within the range where the gushers have generally begun to flow. The Canyon Oil Company is reporting very fine showing with well which is down about 1750 feet. There have been oil showings ever since reaching the depth of 500 feet.

The Standard Oil Company has finished casing and cemented off the oil sands in the No. 8 well on section 12-23 in the Midway field at a depth of 3000 feet. Well No. 9 is to be twelve in the same township. Another rig is being rigged up.

It is expected that work will be commenced on building a rig for No. 3 well of the Canadian Pacific Oil Company on section 4, 32-23 about December 1. Two wells on the property are producing about 125 barrels of oil per day.

Pasadena.

SIR THOMAS IN JOYOUS MOOD.

Tells Pasadenans They Possess Earth's Finest City.

Rhapsodizes Over Beauty of Crown City Girls.

Boldly Says He Will Take the Cup Abroad.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PASADENA, Nov. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sir Thomas Lipton yesterday spent what he declared was one of the pleasantest days of his life seeing the Crown City, and at a banquet at the Maryland Hotel last night attended by about 400 persons talked freely of his hopes of carrying the International Yachting cup back to Ireland with him from San Francisco in 1915.

"My principal business here," he said, "is to try to get the old cup back to the old country. That is why I have come over here. That cup has been a long time in this country and a change of air might do its health good. I have done all that I could do to capture it in the past, but the boats I have had were different from the one I intend to enter the San Francisco race in 1915. I want to sail then under the rules that obtain in every American club, not only those on the seaboard, but on the Lakes as well.

"And still, these rules admit of a craft that is dangerous when crossing the Atlantic. My boat shall sail on its own bottom all the way over. I think that when I reach New York I shall be able to make arrangements. But at any rate, I have entered an independent race in San Francisco in 1915, and I think that the gentlemen there were unlikely to accept my challenge so quickly.

"When I return to San Francisco in 1915 I shall also come to Pasadena and bring some of my yachting friends with me. I have never seen anything like your city. I am very proud of the honor you have done me here tonight. Friends have told me that the prettiest girls were in Pasadena, and now I can say that they did not say half enough."

The banquet was the most brilliant social affair there has been so far this season. Many handsome gowns were worn, and there was a flow of eloquence and wit that has not been equalled for a long time.

Dr. Robert J. Burdette, who presided as toastmaster, was at his best. He opened his remarks by referring to Los Angeles as a city which, if she would be a port, would have only to lay a pipe to the ocean and start in to suck as hard as she now blows, and this was only a starter. The other speakers were L. H. Turner, Dr. James A. B. Scherer, Rev. Leslie E. Learned and Rev. Robert Freeman.

The banquet was given under the auspices of the Pasadena Board of Trade, the Merchants' Association and the Tournament of Roses Association. A joint committee of the three organizations met Sir Thomas in Los Angeles and brought him to Pasadena in an automobile.

They toured the city and Busch's gardens, arriving at the Maryland Hotel at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A reception there preceded the dinner.

Sir Thomas remained in the city all night, staying at one of the bungalows at the Maryland Hotel.

HERE FOR FIRST TIME.

Winston Churchill, author of "Richard Carvel," "The Crisis," and other well-known novels, and defeated candidate for Governor of New Hampshire at the last election, arrived in Pasadena with Mrs. Churchill, their three children, one a baby born last October, an aunt, Mrs. J. B. Gazan, and a governess and nurse, yesterday afternoon. They are staying at the Hotel Green, but the novelist said last night that it is his intention to leave this morning for Santa Barbara, where he may remain for a time.

"I have never been in California before," he said, "and am immensely pleased with what I have seen so far. I expect to spend the winter here in Southern California, though just where I have not yet fully decided."

Churchill says that he will be busy writing this winter. He publishes once in two years, and says that it takes him practically that long to write a book.

The party yesterday afternoon went for an automobile ride through the city.

DEMANDS BETTER SERVICE.

City Attorney Carr declared yesterday that he will give the Home Telephone Company until the first of next month materially to improve its service. If at that time it is not possible for subscribers to get connections without having to wait as long as they now often have to wait he says he will prepare to enforce a better service.

In order that the City Attorney may make tests and investigations as to the service, if he sees fit to do so, the City Council yesterday appropriated a fund of $250 to be used for this purpose, if necessary.

H. F. Anderson who has been manager of the company since its consolidation with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, declared yesterday that there have been many problems to contend with and that it is hardly fair that tests should be made at the expiration of one month's time, but that two months should be allowed to elapse. He says that the recent windstorm damaged the system to the extent of $3000, and made it still more difficult for the company to cope with the situation.

CITY BRIEFS.

Thanksgiving presents for the poor of the city are being collected and sorted by the Associated Charities in a room they have rented at No. 34 North Raymond avenue. Already a large supply of clothing and provisions is on hand. More is expected to arrive this morning, and this afternoon the things will be sent where they are needed.

B. O. Kendall and family of No. 210 South Los Robles avenue returned home yesterday from a trip which extended through the summer in the East and abroad. The realty man expressed much delight in being back in Pasadena.

F. B. Wagner, formerly vice-president of the Merchants' Association, has been elected to the presidency of that organization, to serve for the ensuing year. The other officers, who have just been named by the board of directors, are: Vice-president, W. L. Leishman; secretary, A. J. Bertonneau, and assistant secretary, R. E. Orrver.

In a letter to Mayor Thum, Edward H. Mulligan, district agent of the Southern California Edison Company, yesterday charged that the municipal lighting plant is violating certain city ordinances, in that the schedule of its rates for power does not conform to the classifications stipulated. It is claimed that in some cases they are higher than those fixed by the Council for the corresponding class of power. The Mayor has taken no action as yet, but said yesterday that he would take the matter up when he had disposed of other business.

OLD SHACKS MUST GO.

Board of Health Issues Order Which Will Improve Appearance of Burned Ocean Park Section.

OCEAN PARK, Nov. 26.—Old shacks in the burned district must go. The Board of Health was ordered today to prosecute owners of small, unsightly and unsanitary buildings within the new fire district, and in this way get the question of whether the city has the power to clean up in this manner before the Superior Court on short notice. Councilman Peasgood, who is the author of this improvement, has also started a crusade against owners of buildings which are being erected on Main street and Pier avenue in violation of the new building ordinance.

Charles Sams, Mayor of the Boardwalk, has issued a Thanksgiving proclamation to his subjects on that unique promenade. He calls attention that they should be thankful that they escaped with their lives in the big fire, and that the Pacific Electric should be thanked for offering them, free of charge, ground on which to recoup their shattered fortunes. Today the balloting for Queen of the Boardwalk Carnival, which opens December 14, began, and a dozen fair Ocean Park maidens have entered the lists.

Long Beach.

SCHOOL BONDS A NECESSITY.

Long Beach Must Amplify Palaces of Learning.

Former Issue Void Because of Techniacities.

Doctor Hurls Defi at Pastor But Is Ignored.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 26.—The Board of Education last night took preliminary steps toward calling another bond issue election in an amount which will approximate $150,000.

A year ago a bond election for $100,000 carried by an overwhelming majority, but the four per cent. rate of interest did not interest buyers and bonding houses refused to bid. The State Board of Control agreed to take the bonds at par, but when examined by the Attorney-General technical flaws were found in the proceedings and the State refused to carry out its agreement.

Since that time, school conditions have become more congested and an additional $50,000 is needed, of which $25,000 will be used to purchase an additional school site in the east end, for further contingencies. As planned, the proposed bond issue includes $25,000 for a new school site; $4000 for enlarging the Alamitos site; $12,000 for additional unit to Alamitos school; $4000 for more ground on East Fourth and $24,000 for new building; $4000 for enlarging Temple street site and $24,000 for new building; $5000 for enlarging Carroll Park school; $6700 for a site at Pennsylvania and Linden, and $24,000 for new building and $15,000 for equipping new buildings.

Superintendent Stephens was instructed to have the City Attorney draw the necessary notices and the order will be made at the regular meeting next week, as it is desired to have the new buildings ready for use next fall. At present, conditions are bad. There are 600 more pupils than last year and the Temple and East Fourth-street schools are scarcely fit for use, being small wooden shacks. As a temporary relief, a portable bungalow will be rented for use at the Temple-street school the balance of the school year and the same may be done at the East Fourth-street school.

The board last night also ordered a holiday on Friday, following Thanksgiving.

YIELD TO PRESSURE.

The members of the City Council were this morning forced to bow to the State law. This was in the case of the amendment to the proposed charter amendments, which Council laid on the table a week ago when presented as an individual request.

During the week, petitions were signed up asking that the amendments be placed on the ballot to be voted December 30. The petitions were drawn up under the initiative provision of the State law and, although the City Clerk certified to the petition with twenty names lacking of the required fifteen per cent. and eighty names to be checked, the Council, after a hard fight by two or three who opposed the idea of having their actions criticised, finally voted to waive the legal certification and ordered the amendments placed on the ballot.

Alva M. Reynolds and associates petitioned the Council this morning for the privilege of erecting a platform twenty feet wide and 100 feet long on the east side of the Pine avenue pier, beginning near low tide line, and on the south end of the platform a 20x24-foot building in which will be stored for use small high-pressure water wheels, electric generators, storage battery and switchboards to be used in connection with Reynolds's wave power system, six units of which are to be installed on the outer end of the platform. The building will also have a working model of Reynolds's automatic high-pressure salt water fire supply system. The platform is to be built on untreated piling, equipped with Reynolds's common sense pile protectors.

A gang plank will connect the concession with the pier, and the promoters agree to pay one-tenth of the gross receipts for the privilege. Action on the petition was deferred.

Carried.

MANHATTAN BEACH DONS NEW MUNICIPAL TOGS.

MANHATTAN BEACH, Nov. 26.—Incorporation for the town won by a vote of 3 to 1, at the election yesterday. At the same time the city officials of the newly-incorporated town were elected as follows: Trustees, H. E. W. Campbell, R. O. Hill, George H. Walker, William Smith, William Jones; Clerk, C. E. Jenkins; Treasurer, A. C. Conner.

The largest vote ever polled here was brought out today, there being 125 votes cast of 129 eligible voters. At the Presidential election, but 99 votes were cast, but the strong feeling among both factions voting on the question of incorporation today, brought out nearly every voter.

George H. Peck, owner of about one-half of the incorporated district, who bitterly opposed the incorporation, together with his agents and several lawyers, was on the ground all the day. With Peck in sentiment were practically all of the voters from that part of the Redondo Villa tract that is included in the incorporated district as these people hold they cannot receive sufficient benefit from the incorporation to make up for the additional taxation as they are two miles back from the ocean. The claim of these people that the incorporation would mean the loss of the rural free delivery they now enjoy, was refuted by a letter from the Redondo Beach postmaster saying that all free delivery now in effect would remain in effect.

In anticipation of some disturbance at the polls today, there were two deputy sheriffs and two deputy constables from Redondo Beach, secured by request of the incorporation people. Nothing occurred, however, more than the challenging of a number of voters.

The challenging of the vote of Dr. Harry Walker by an anti-incorporationist, caused a flurry at the polls as Walker is one of the candidates for office, and has been a resident of Manhattan for more than three years.

It is stated by the antis that while about seventy-five voters are in the Villa tract district, but only a small number of them were registered, and hence they lost their cause.

H. C. Culler, a representative of Peck, stated tonight that in view of the incorporation of such a large district including many acres of his property, George H. Peck will now refuse the right of way for the proposed coast road between Playa del Rey to Redondo Beach, as through the incorporation of the town, should the road be built, it would mean the building of the road through his land a distance of two miles at his expense.

He also stated that although they had lost the election, the purpose of the incorporation would be blocked as the Villa tract people would defeat any issue of bonds for that purpose as a 2 to 3 vote is required for a bond issue.

Petitions were circulated today among the crowds gathered for the election to be presented to the Pacific Electric officials, asking for better rates and improved service. A reduction of the round-trip fare to Los Angeles from 50 cents to 35 cents, of from 25 to 17½ cents for the commutation tickets, of from 12 1-2 cents to 25 cents for the family tickets, and a 5-cent fare from any point in Manhattan to Redondo Beach as well as more frequent service, are requested.

WIFE'S HEALTH RESTORED

Husband Declared Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Would Restore Her Health, And It Did.

Ashland, Ky.—"Four years ago I seemed to have everything the matter with me. I had female and kidney trouble and was so bad off I could hardly rest day or night. I doctored with all the best doctors in town and took many kinds of medicine but nothing did any good until I tried your wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My husband said it would restore my health and it has."—Mrs. MAY WYATT, Ashland, Ky.

There are probably hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefitted by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read What Another Woman says:

Camden, N. J.—"I had female trouble and a serious displacement and was tired and discouraged and unable to do my work. My doctors told me I never could be cured without an operation, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am cured of that affliction and have recommended it to more than one of my friends with the best results."—Mrs. ELLA JOHNSTON, 324 Vine St.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REUNION.

San Joaquin Valley Veterans' Association Will Meet at Visalia and Participate in the Carnival.

VISALIA, Nov. 26.—The twelfth annual reunion of the San Joaquin Valley Veterans' Association, the crowning of a Harvest Queen; 100 and 150-mile automobile road races; a push-mobile meet by the boys of the city, parades, balls, banquets, a Rugby football game and confetti battles, are among the features of the five-day Moose Carnival and Harvest Day celebration, which opens here tomorrow with the assembling of the service men of three wars.

The veterans, who are already gathering for their meeting, will hold the limelight for two days. They will be welcomed by the various local organizations on Tuesday morning and meetings will be held at the Grand Theater in the afternoon and evening. At the latter meeting the key of the city will be presented by Mayor A. R. Cutler and Commander W. R. Thomas of Oakland and Adjt. R. G. Brien of the Department of California and Nevada, G.A.R., will deliver addresses. Commander C. H. Watson of the Valley Association, will preside.

On Wednesday morning there will be a parade of organizations, members of the G.A.R., Confederate Veterans' Association, Sons of Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans, former National Guardsmen, school children and local fraternal orders participating. Sheriff W. W. Collins will be marshal of the day. The annual election of officers will be held after the parade and the place of the next meeting designated.

In the afternoon there will be a monster meeting at the Tipton Lindsay Grammar School, old soldiers, citizens and school children participating. A camp fire will be held in the evening, at which Past Commander H. V. Parker of the San Joaquin Valley Association will be the principal speaker.

The following are in charge of the reception and arrangements for the convention: W. G. Pennebaker, George W. Stewart, Mrs. B. C. Anderson, C. E. Cleveland, F. Woodman, James T. Boyer, D. S. Lipscomb, Mrs. Mary Hamilton, Mrs. C. T. Kathe, B. C. Anderson, S. B. Noel, Mrs. E. Pennebaker, Mrs. M. C. Hamilton, Mrs. Julia Knox, Mrs. J. T. Morgan, N. W. Kibler, Mrs. Alberta King, Mrs. D. S. Lipscomb, Mrs. T. M. Abshire and C. S. Spier.

On Thanksgiving Day all business will be suspended for the 100 and 150-mile automobile races, which are to be run on the city streets, for purses of $800 and $1200. There will be a Rugby football game between the fifteens of the Kern County High School and Visalia High School for the pennant of the Central California Amateur Athletic League. In the evening the coronation of the Harvest Queen will take place. On Friday there will be a pushmobile meet for boys, over $75 worth of prizes being offered.

Saturday will be the closing day and will end with a Mardi Gras ball and confetti battle. Special trains from all principal points in the San Joaquin Valley have been arranged for. The city is elaborately decorated for the carnival and excellent weather has been promised by the weather bureau.

FIGHT NECESSARY.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 26.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Declaring that only by presenting indisputable facts to Congress could a reduction of the tariff on lemons be prevented, Congressman John E. Raker of Modoc county, who attended the conference of Congressmen and fruitgrowers here on means to maintain the present tax on imported citrus fruits, departed for Washington today.

Congressman Raker said the situation regarding the tariff on citrus fruits was critical at the national capital.

Other members of the conference continued their work of obtaining facts and figures on the citrus industry today. They expected to conclude their task by tonight.

TONGUES SWELL FROM THE HEAT.

Anaheim Boys Have Terrible Experience on Desert.

Running Across Mining Camp Saves Their Lives.

Fruit Men Hold Election and Hear Reports.

ANAHEIM, Nov. 26.—The two Anaheim Boys, Berle Morthland and Lee Dickenson, who had a struggle for their lives on the Mojave desert a few days ago, reached Anaheim today. They started out several days ago in a Buick car for a tour north through the desert via Mojave to Reno and thence to Salt Lake City, intending to go south from there through Arizona to Nogales and on into Mexico and Mexico City.

A crank shaft was broken on the desert, fifty miles from a railroad, and the young men were without food and water for three days with the thermometer at 120 in the shade. They walked thirty miles for a team and struck a mining camp, which fact alone saved their lives. Dickenson's condition was serious for some time after reaching aid. He was suffering from complete exhaustion and starvation.

When they reached a mining camp near Otis, Cal., their tongues were swollen and they were unable to speak, and they fell to the ground after hailing a man who happened to sight them while riding along a ridge. The young men have not entirely recovered from the physical and mental strain of the terrible experience. That part of the desert in which the men were lost is one of the most treacherous in all the western desert area. Except for an occasional prospector's camp there is no habitation in the expanse of sand and buttes. Trails leading from the main road are about as prominent as the main road itself and thus make the losing of one's way comparatively easy.

At this season of the year the heat is intensified by daily sand storms, which are blinding and make progress for the man on foot almost impossible, besides obliterating roads and trails under sweeping sand. Both young men displayed grit in making to safety against heavy odds and in conquering the difficult country in their path.

FRUIT MEN MEET.

The Anaheim Fruit Association held an annual meeting today. The principal features were the re-election of President Charles Eyrabroad and other old officers and the hearing of the excellent report of Manager Gerald Sandilands, which was in part as follows:

"Considering the adverse shipping and marketing conditions we had to contend with the past season, most prominent being the abnormally cold weather, throughout the East and in California, resulting, especially in the latter case, in California oranges receiving perhaps the worst reputation they have ever had regarded as a whole by the buyer and the consumer. Notwithstanding this and other extraordinary developments that are familiar to all growers, prices obtained by your association, with the exception of sweets shipped in April and May were better than what was realized the year before. The Valencia market alone opened 25 cents per box better than the year previous, with excellent demand for fruit free from frost damage and desirable sizes, but on account of the extremely large deciduous crop throughout the country and the deplorable fact that much frost—damaged fruit was shipped the extremely high prices that were realized the year before in September and October were not realized this year.

"The Directors of the Association after much time and thought organized and started out a complete fumigating outfit, equipped with everything of the very best quality. This outfit was considered amply large enough to take care of all work offered. The work of fumigating the various orange groves was started on the night of July 25, and continued every dry night with the exception of Sundays since that date. We are still in the field and expect to keep busy until the end of the month. Eleven thousand, five hundred trees have been fumigated, taking each orchard in turn according to which needed attention first. The marketing of your fruit was accomplished in a very satisfactory manner through the Semi-Tropic Fruit Exchange, all details and returns attended to promptly and accurately."

NEWS BRIEFS.

Dr. G. W. Clossen, well known veterinary of this city, was signally honored at Los Angeles when he was elected president of the Southern California Veterinary Association.

Herman Stern and wife returned yesterday from a several months' tour of Europe. Mr. Stern states that the land on the other side of the Atlantic is great, but not to be compared with the land of his adoption, while of none of the famed resorts have they the splendid climatic conditions of Southern California.

TO START NEW PROCEEDINGS.

RIVERSIDE COUNCIL SEEKS TO SAVE SOME TIME.

Sentiment Seems to Be Favorable to the Issue and Authorization Under the New Plan Is Practically Sure—Motorcyclist Hurled Fifty Feet and Seriously Hurt.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 26.—The City Council today decided to rescind the ordinance calling for a water works bond election in the amount of $1,160,000, and start proceedings anew. This action was not due to a flaw in any of the steps so far taken, but to a realization of the fact that if the bonds were to carry, it seemed necessary to make it clear beyond all question that the domestic system of the Riverside Water Company would become a part of the proposed municipal system.

At a meeting of the directors of the water company this morning, called at the request of the water bonds committee of the Chamber of Commerce, a resolution was passed agreeing to extend the city's option for the purchase of the system until June 1. As the company is under contract with a San Francisco bonding house for the financing of its affairs, an action growing out of the fact that the bonds matured on October 1 last, the extension will necessitate the payment of a $3000 penalty. This the company agrees to bear, in case a new election is called.

It was feared that if the city failed to sell its bonds by March 1, the date of the expiration of the option to purchase, that there would be developed a competing system, with the water company tied up to a bonding house and unable to make a move. By calling a new election, the city will gain about sixty days' time in which to market its bonds, in case they carry. That they will carry is now confidently looked for, as the support of the stockholders of the water company may now be expected.

THROWN FIFTY FEET.

Clarence Peck lies in an unconscious state at the Riverside City Hospital as the result of an unfortunate accident last evening. He was riding at a good rate of speed on Colton avenue, when the forks of his motorcycle broke. Eye-witnesses of the accident state that the rider was hurled through the air for a distance of fifty feet.

A. A. Gamble of the Glenwood Garage was behind Peck. He lifted the unconscious form into his automobile and hurried to the hospital. The physicians were unable to find any bones broken, but the force of the fall caused concussion of the brain and the extent of the injuries will not be learned until the patient recovers consciousness.

HOTELS GET PERMITS.

That the city has two new hotels about ready to open up for business was brought home to the City Council this afternoon, when applications were filed for permits to serve vinous and malt liquors with meals by the Reynolds Hotel and the Hotel Tetley. The permits were granted, under certain restrictions.

The Reynolds has been enlarged and improved at an expense of between $80,000 and $75,000, and now contains 175 rooms. The Hotel Tetley, one of the largest structures in the city, has been remodeled and improved at a large outlay of money. Both these buildings have been utilized as apartments in the past, but each will have dining-rooms open in a very short time.

FRUIT TARIFF SEEMS SAFE.

Before the banquet tendered the five Congressmen-elect who were the guests of the Democratic Central Committees of Riverside and San Bernardino counties, was over last evening, there were assurances from the prospective lawmakers that their best efforts would be expended for the maintenance of the present tariff on citrus fruits.

Congressman Kettner of San Diego declared that tariff was for three purposes, namely, revenue, protection and graft. So far as protection was concerned, he declared that no product was more worthy of it than citrus fruits.

Charles F. Curry of Sacramento called attention to the great amount of capital at stake in the business, which, if it were destroyed, would represent the wiping out of $500,000,000 in property.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF AN AGED BROTHER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An information charging William Wilson with the murder of his brother, Thomas, has been filed in the Superior Court by Dist.-Atty. Squier. Wilson will probably be arraigned before Judge Crow next Monday.

The homicide occurred in the cabin at the Wilson ranch, a lonely place two miles from Orcutt. The accused is 54 years old, the dead brother being 69 years old at the time of his death. A club stained with blood and the prisoner's gore-stained garments are among the ghastly exhibits in the case.

The club, a piece of buggy shaft, was taken from a well near the cabin. The evidence shows that the club had been used in killing the deceased, who was beaten to death. The killing occurred inside of the cabin and the body was dragged to the porch, where it was found.

The version of the affair, as related by the accused, does not touch on the actual killing. He says that he and his brother had been to Orcutt, and on returning home, Thomas retired, while, he, the prisoner, put up the team. He claims that he heard the deceased get up during the night, but heard him no more and next morning he found the body on the porch. He explains the blood stains on his trousers by stating that he raised his brother's head, not knowing he was dead.

This recital is not believed by the prosecution, the evidence showing that a fierce struggle occurred within the house. It is believed the tragedy was the result of a drunken quarrel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDLANDS, Nov. 26. — [Exclusive Dispatch.] A. K. Smiley, a national figure because of his activities in the interest of international conciliation, his numerous benefactions, and his active interest in the welfare of Indians and other dependent people, lies critically ill tonight at his home on his big estate.

He is under the constant care of physicians and tonight little hope for his recovery is held out. Mr. Smiley is suffering from an acute attack of heart trouble brought on by overwork in connection with the peace conference held at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., his summer home, last summer, and also by over-exertion in climbing about his place here.

Owing to the advanced age of Mr. Smiley, 84, there is small chance that he will ever be a well man again.

Mrs. Smiley is also in a serious condition. She has been an invalid for some time and was barely able to stand the journey from their summer home to Redlands. Daniel Smiley, a brother of Mr. Smiley, arrived in the city Sunday after a hurried trip from Lake Mohonk, N. Y.

Hair Health

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer.

We could not afford to so strongly indorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if we were not certain that it would do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

Therefore, when we assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness, you may rest assured that we know what we are talking about.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is vastly different from other similar preparations. We believe that it will do more than any other human agency toward restoring hair growth and hair health. It is not greasy and will not gum the scalp or hair or cause permanent stain. It is as pleasant to use as pure cold water.

Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded without question or quibble if it does not do as we claim. Certainly we can offer no stronger argument. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1. Remember, you can obtain it only at our stores—The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle and Spokane.—[Advertisement.

STOCK LETTER.

(Furnished by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchanges, Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The action of the market today was governed almost entirely by the tenor of foreign advices and by the rates for demand money. Reports from the other side were somewhat more cheerful and were accompanied by moderate buying, but it is still recognized that international politics are a factor which, for quite a period, is likely to command constant attention, and that pronounced betterment in foreign financial markets is not likely to be witnessed until the various contending powers show a disposition to settle their dispute without further resort to arms. The cable from Berlin, stating that the Kaiser had asked the Austrian government to submit his dispute with Servia to a conference of the powers was regarded assuring. The strength of call money was disturbing for a time and produced some scattered liquidation. Offerings were quite well absorbed, however, on the down-turns in the afternoon, when it was announced that half a million in gold was engaged for import. This announcement was followed by the further weakness of foreign exchange prices. The market rallied moderately and at the close the list presented a rather good appearance.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET

Large quantities of fruit were on the market, and the demand for the Thanksgiving trade was good. Apples were principally in evidence, and were selling at about the same rate as usual. Receipts were comparatively light, 3246 boxes. A large quantity of Home Beauties arrived. Spitzenbergs were offered in some instances at $1.50 a box, and Bellefleurs as low as $1.02½ for four-and-a-half-tier boxes. Arizona oranges were an attractive feature of the citrus market, which is pretty well supplied for this season of the year. The Arizona fruit brought $4 to $4.50. Some navel oranges were offered as low as $3.75.

The dried-fruit market was practically unchanged, with the new imported Smyrna figs as a feature. The holiday demand for dried fruits and nuts is very good.

Sweet potatoes were quite cheap, bringing around $1.50 a sack in most cases. Some were charged as low as $1.25. Twelve hundred sacks of onions and 2945 sacks of potatoes came in. The market was easy as usual on both products.

There were no changes in the staple market.

Receipts of eggs were light—57 cases. Prices were firm on fresh eggs, and the storage market has steadied since the decline Monday. Receipts of butter-were 40,127 pounds, which is considerably better than the average. As high as 34 cents was bid for creamery extras, but offerings were somewhat light. New York butter is quoted as high as the average prevailing rate in this city. The San Francisco market is reported weak at 33 cents, however. Cheese receipts were 910 pounds, and the market is much steadier than recently.

Business Men Busy.

VALLEY ROUTE MUCH FAVORED.

Bakersfield and Fresno Want Big Road Race.

Oil City Men Agree to Give Large Sum of Money.

Pathfinders Due to Reach San Francisco Today.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is every reason to believe the Los Angeles-San Francisco road race will be held over the valley route. Business men of Fresno this afternoon pledged $5000 toward the big race and agreed to put the roads in shape for the speed contest on July 4. Mill owners, merchants, fruit growers and automobile dealers took an active part in the discussion and a mass meeting was planned for Monday night in the new Armory Hall.

William Robertson, secretary of the Fresno Chamber of Commerce, today pledged this city to raise at least $5000 for the grand prize road race. This means $10,000 from the valley towns between Fresno and Los Angeles. It was the opinion of the prominent Fresno citizens that twice this amount can be secured if this city is made a night control. The citizens of Fresno are anxious to make this city the first night stop of a two-day race and the cars would be parked in front of the City Hall and would be started early the second morning on the last stage of the run to San Francisco.

BIG MEN BUSY.

A. B. Waterman, an automobile dealer of this city, is one of the men who will take an active part in the plans for the big race. He is to be assisted by W. H. Hollenbeck, a mill owner of Fresno; J. R. McKay, Ted Shelton, J. F. Gurley and E. W. Johnson all of them well-known Fresno good roads boosters. They agreed that a mass meeting of the citizens shall be called and that the plans for the race shall be discussed, after which a campaign will be started that should put Fresno more squarely on the map.

ROAD RACE NEEDED.

"This road race is worth fighting for," said Waterman in addressing the meeting this evening.

"We must have this contest and it is up to us to do all in our power to make this race the greatest event of the kind ever held in the West. With Fresno as the night control thousands of people would visit this city just to get a chance to see the cars finish. It is worth much more than $5000 to us and you can say for me that we will have that Los Angeles-San Francisco road race up the valley route."

"One of my reasons for wanting this race," said Secretary Robertson of the Fresno Chamber of Commerce, "is that it would tend to bring the valley towns closer together with a unity of purpose and with the citizens working for the one object—a big boost for the big road race. I am proud of the spirit shown by Bakersfield and when the people of Fresno are given a chance to hear the plans

In Readiness.

JOE RIVERS AND MANDOT HAVE FINISHED BOXING.

Uncle Tom McCarey Decides to Give the New Years' Day Date to Palzer for the Heavyweight Championship—Mandot Had a Narrow Escape While Training Yesterday.

FOUR little lightweights—Ad Wolgast, Willie Ritchie, Joe Mandot and Joe Rivers—sobbed softly in chorus yesterday when they heard of the unfeeling conduct of Uncle Tom McCarey.

The expected battle for the lightweight championship of the world will not take place in Los Angeles on New Years' Day. Uncle Tom has decided to give that precious date to the heavyweights.

He will stage a great contest between Al Palzer and the winner of the Flynn-McCarty match. Definite arrangements to this end were made yesterday, Palzer wiring his acceptance of Uncle Tom's offer.

"The winner of this New Year's fight," said McCarey yesterday, "will get the diamond belt I am offering to the new heavyweight champion of the world. I hate to pass up the lightweight championship fight for that date; but, in arranging my elimination contest for a heavyweight champion, I made the offer of this date to Palzer, Flynn and McCarty."

Uncle Tom broke the sad tidings to Joe Mandot and Rivers yesterday that, win who may, there will be no lightweight fight on that date.

At the Rivers camp, where Joe was doing his last boxing, his manager, Joe Levy, was stricken with grief.

MANDOT'S CHRISTMAS.

At Mandot's, the little Frenchman was being rubbed by his trainer. At Uncle Tom's announcement, he turned around and sat up on his training table. His face was positively glowing.

"Don't have to fight on New Year's Day? Then I can go home and spend Christmas with my mother," he said.

There is a "Christmas-is-coming" air around Doyle's. Mandot is tingling with spirits. It was a dull-eyed sick boy who faced Rivers on Labor Day; this time, Mandot will be in the full glow of health.

"I never felt so sure I was going to win before," he said, in his slow southern way yesterday. "I feel so sure of it that I have sent for my wife and she will arrive in Los Angeles Friday morning to help me celebrate.

"I know Rivers is a tough boy, but I am never so badly worried about the tough ones as about the easy ones. It's the easy fights that one loses. One reason why I have won so many fights is that I have always been regarded as easy."

FLYNN HELPED HIM.

Mandot gives much credit for his good condition to Jim Flynn.

"Of all the fighters in the ring, Jim is the most faithful in his training," said Mandot. "He has been a great help to me. He makes a great uproar if I am not in bed every night at 8:30."

Julian Eltinge, the female impersonator, visited Flynn and Mandot at Doyle's yesterday. In the course of the high jinks that took place, the "Fascinating Widow" picked up the 185-pound Flynn with one arm and Mandot with the other, holding them both off the ground, like a couple of rag dolls.

MANDOT'S ESCAPE.

Mandot twice narrowly escaped being put out of business yesterday. Jim Flynn borrowed an automobile and took the whole camp riding. They came within an ace of a collision with a street car. Afterward, while boxing with Hobo Dougherty, Mandot got a butt in the eye from Hobo's head. Luckily the skin was not broken.

At the Rivers camp every precaution was taken to avoid a repetition of the accident whereby Eddie Campi cut the Mexican's eye.

Rivers boxed only with Young Huddy and Charley Dalton. His work was vicious and he nearly knocked Dalton out.

He appeared to be in good condition and was faster than ever.

CHANCE FOR CROSS.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch to the Times by Wireless Line.] Leach Cross and Billy Bennett, the Irish lightweight champion, have been matched to meet at the Clermont-avenue rink. That is, they will meet if Leach is successful with Battling Nelson on Thanksgiving afternoon. Bennett made himself good with the fans by his great showing when he boxed Jack Redmond and Harry Lorts.

HOOPER SIGNS AGAIN.

SANTA CRUZ, Nov. 26.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Harry Hooper, outfielder for the Boston Red Sox, was married today at Capitola, near here, to Miss Esther Henchey of Santa Cruz. The couple left on an automobile tour of the State.

FIGHT MANAGER WRITES A PLAY.

Literary note:

Joe Rivers's fat little manager, Joe Levy, has written a play. A regular drama.

Joe has submitted it to a local theatrical manager for approval and production.

It bears the romantic and poetic title: "The White Rose."

When the drama is produced, Joe Rivers will act the part of one of the thorns.

Very Promising.

M'CARTY IS GREEN FIGHTER.

VAN COURT DISAPPOINTED, BUT HOLDS OUT HOPE.

Built Much Like Fitzsimmons, But Keep His Knees Too Close Together for Speed—Shows He Has a Big Heart by Helping an Old Sand Hauler Load Up His Wagon.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

Luther McCarty, Billy McCarney's white hope, who is to meet Jim Flynn next month, is one of the most promising and interesting fellows that I have seen in the fighting game for some time.

Luther is built much along the lines of Bob Fitzsimmons, only on a larger scale. He has the same broad shoulders, the same knock-knees, the long legs with the big ankles and walks flat-footed like Bob.

He has a well-shaped head and a determined looking face, with broad features, and many of the characteristics of both Fitzsimmons and Jim Jeffries. He has all the signs of a determined and game man, and is very good natured. In fact, he impresses me as being a big green boy with all the material for a champion pugilist.

While I was somewhat disappointed in his boxing, he shows a fair knowledge of the game and is a good thinker.

FIGHTS IN CROUCH.

He holds himself in somewhat of a crouch when in action and bends his knees too much to get all the speed that is in him. He is fast with his hands and a good hitter. In boxing with his sparring partner (Walter Monahan, who by the way, is a clever fellow,) he proved that he is sincere in his work but did not put as much vim and speed in his boxing as I would like to see in a heavyweight.

But he may be excused from this as Monahan has a match to box George Brown the same day and he may have been a little lenient with Walter.

At that they boxed hard with a big pair of gloves and landed many hard blows on each other.

He pulled the pulley weights and then did a little shadow boxing but no rope skipping.

When asked why he did not use the rope, he said: "I never did any rope skipping and don't know how, I believe that I can get enough of speed in shadow boxing."

His shadow boxing was good for a big man and he showed he was fairly fast on his feet.

In his boxing with Monahan he used principally a straight left hand to the face and a right uppercut. He did not seem to be much of a blocker in the clinches and this is where he will have trouble with Flynn if he has any at all.

HAS CHANCE TO WIN.

If McCarty uses his head and waits for Jim to come to him and meet him with that straight left-hand and then use his uppercut, he has a fine chance to win, as Flynn always carries his fight to the other man.

After his workout he weighed just 204 pounds stripped, and looks in good condition at the present time.

FAST TENNIS FOR HOLIDAY.

Bundy and McLoughlin to Play on Thursday.

Sutton Sisters are Entered In Big Tourney.

Fine Card Offered on Courts of Country Club.

Maurice McLoughlin and Tom Bundy's progress to the finals in the tennis tournament at the Los Angeles Country Club tomorrow and Saturday, from present appearances, will not be any easy march. The drawings for the matches have taken place and some interesting matches should result. John Strachan and Peck Griffin, from San Francisco, were the last entries. They will be down with Fottrell and Johnson and Maurice McLoughlin. There is keen rivalry between Fottrell and Johnson, and Strachan and Griffin. Fottrell and Johnson are the favorites in the South, owing to the strong showing they made on the Fourth of July at the country club. This opinion, however, it not the case in the North.

The names of Strachan and Griffin are not new ones to close followers of the game, as they have been participating in northern tournaments for the past six years. Johnnie Strachan is another of San Francisco's seemingly inexhaustible supply of juvenile prodigies, being just 18 years old. The addition of this team will give an added interest to the tournament, and will make the already-difficult task of picking the winner a still harder one.

The complete drawings in the men's doubles follow:

MORNING PLAY.

Nine o'clock—Browne and Wayne, vs. Newell and Donnell; Gorham and Eastman vs. Barber and Godshall; McCormick and Warren vs. Braly and Duncan; Hopper and Woodbury vs. Sinsabaugh and Dawson.

Ten-thirty o'clock—Bundy and McLoughlin vs. Ketchum and Marshall; Barker and Huntington, vs. Johnsotn and Fottrell; Badger and Green, vs. Variel and Young; Griffin and Strachan, vs. Douglas and Cawston.

AFTERNOON PLAY.

Two o'clock—Winners of Browne and Wayne, vs. Newell and Donnell, vs. winners of Bundy and McLoughlin vs. Ketchum and Marshall; winners of McCormick and Warren, vs. Braly and Duncan, vs. winners of Badger and Green, vs. Variel and Young; winners of Griffin and Strachan, vs. Douglas and Cawston, vs. winners of Hopper and Woodbury, vs. Sinsabaugh and Dawson; winners of Barker and Huntington, vs. Johnston and Fottrell, vs. winners of Barber and Godshall vs. Gorham and Eastman.

Three-thirty o'clock—Miss May Sutton and Miss Margaret Tufts, vs. Miss Florence Sutton and Miss Ena Young.

Women's doubles to be announced later.

ROGER BRESNAHAN HAS BEEN THROWN ASIDE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—Roger Bresnahan was unconditionally released as manager of the St. Louis National League baseball team by Mrs. Helen R. Britton, principal owner of the team who did not think he tried hard during the year and because the team lost money, according to a letter Bresnahan's attorney prepared today to submit to the directors of the National League. The letter quotes Mrs. Britton as follows:

"I have decided to make a change in managers and will not need your services any more. I feel that you have not tried hard during the past year. The club has not made nearly as much money as it did in 1911. You do not seem to take much interest in the club."

Some Guessing.

VAN COURT IS WOLGAST MAN.

Favors Champ to Beat Willie Ritchie Thursday.

Says That Ad Has the Needed Stamina and Strength.

Challenger Will Surely Be Weak at the Weight.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

Many of the fans are still asking: "How did Mandot come to lick Rivers the last time they met?"

There may have been only one reason and there might have been several. Harry Coleman, manager of Mandot, says he was too clever for Rivers. This was surely true the last time they boxed.

Neither boy was at his best in their last meeting. Rivers was overconfident and neglected his training and Mandot was sick.

Rivers has been pampered and petted like a spoiled child and has become so used to leaving all his affairs to others, except the fighting part, that he overlooked his chances and thought he could do the same thing when he entered the ring.

Rivers never takes a responsibility of any kind upon himself. He leaves all that to Joe Levy, his manager.

It was reported a few days ago that Levy even paid his tax bills for him. It is a safe bet that Joe would hardly know where to go or how to go about it to settle such affairs himself. Being in poor condition in their last meeting, it was quite natural that he would look to others when he got in a tight place. Any fighter who leaves his thinking to others is not to be depended upon.

Conditions point to a better showing this time, for Rivers is in much better condition, has stuck closely to his training, and looks much better. The same can be said of Mandot, however.

Each boy has a distinctly different style of boxing. Rivers prefers the fast and close milling and Mandot likes to stand off and box.

Rivers and Mandot are about equal in timing blows, but Mandot is a much better judge of distance, and has a much better defense with both his hands and head. He also has a clever way of guarding a swing and ducking a straight punch, and is a much better feinter.

Rivers is quicker with his feet and hands, more aggressive, and a much harder hitter, but has a shorter reach. Mandot counters better than Rivers, but Rivers has it on him in the rough, close work.

Mandot is cooler and uses better judgment in tight places. Both boys being equal physically, will make it an interesting contest to watch, and barring injuries that each may receive, neither will have any legitimate excuse to offer if he loses.

I look for Rivers to carry the fight to Mandot from the first and keep at it until he either wins or loses, and I expect to see Mandot box as he did the last time. If the contest goes the limit, I expect to see Mandot get the decision, and if it ends before the twenty rounds are boxed, I look for it to go to Rivers.

Their meeting with Wolgast has given each more confidence and added greatly to their experience. Judging from their last meeting, the coming contest should be one of the best ever seen between lightweights, and the winner will be the second best in that class and stand a great chance to take the title from Wolgast.

The Ritchie-Wolgast contest looks very similar to the Rivers-Mandot affair. Wolgast is the fighter and Ritchie is the boxer. Ritchie has not had the experience that Ad has and is not so strong. When it comes to boxing he has it on Wolgast, but has not the stamina or punch. Ritchie depends too much on what is termed a one, two punch. That is, he usually hits straight at the head with his left, and follows with his right.

Wolgast is a hard man to hurt with a straight punch unless there is plenty of power behind it, and he covers his jaw well with his right glove. His crouching position makes it hard to reach his body, and Ritchie, being much taller, will probably find this a difficult think to do. I look for Ritchie to confine his blows principally at Ad's head and face, but in doing this he will leave himself open more or less for punches at his body, and this is Wolgast's long suit.

Ritchie does a lot of unnecessary foot and arm work that will surely tell on him if the contest goes the full twenty rounds.

Wolgast will have a decided advantage in the weight, although Ritchie may have a few pounds on him. Ritchie is an exceptionally tall boy for a lightweight and I believe that 133 pounds ringside will hurt his chances. I also believe that this will have somewhat of a weakening effect which gives Wolgast the advantage on this point.

Ritchie appears to be not rugged enough for a hard, tough fight that Wolgast is able to hand out. But should Ritchie and Mandot win, it will bring together two clever fellows, and if Rivers and Wolgast win, it will mean the meeting of two fighters. In either case it will result in an interesting meeting to look forward to.

YALE IS THINKING OF NEXT YEAR'S TEAM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Nov. 25.—Yale will have most of the team back and eligible the greater part of next year. By graduation, Yale will lose Bomeister, end; Philbin, and Spalding, halfbacks; Sheldon, substitute end, and Baker, substitute half-back.

The attendance at Saturday's game was the largest ever at Yale field. The receipts were in the neighborhood of $70,000. Yale's share of receipts for the season will reach about $50,000, divided as follows: $35,000 from the Harvard game, $28,000 from the Princeton game, $10,000 from the Brown contest and about $3000 from the others.

Head Coach Howe will not be with the team next year as he is going to New York to go into religious work. It is generally believed here that the Yale coaching system is due for radical change. There has been a strong sentiment for some time in favor of Harvard's system, where Percy Haughton has been in charge year after year. If the movement is put through here there will be no great trouble in finding a suitable man. The name of Howard Jones is the name most frequently mentioned.

AUTOMOBILE SOLD EVERY 38 MINUTES.

An automobile sold every thirty-eight minutes for nineteen consecutive working hours!

This wasn't the record of the entire local gas cart colony, but simply what the Los Angeles retail branch of the Studebaker corporation did during the first two days of this week. Sales Manager "Bill" LaCasse checked up at closing time last night and found that his force had taken orders for exactly thirty machines. Allowing nine and a half hours for each day's business the statisticians soon figured that it meant a machine every thirty-eight minutes going into the hands of a customer.

The big rush of Studebaker business was incidental on the arrival here of their new "25" and "35" models, which went on the sales floor Sunday.

Some Secrecy.

HUNS ENGAGED IN SECRET WORK.

COVER UP THEIR STUNTS FOR COMING BIG GAME.

Three Good Men Are on the Hospital List, But Coach Stanton Thinks His Team Is Stronger Than When It Met Oxy Tigers. Pomona Boys Are Heavier.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

On Saturday Pomona plays the Colorado School of Mines, but how the Huns will stack up for the battle will remain a mystery until after the game itself. Coach Stanton is holding secret practice and will allow no one on the field, so there is no adequate way in which to get a line on the Huns. There may be a hospital full of cripples, or every man on the squad may be in fine feltie. However, it seems strange to keep local supporters out of the grounds when the team to be played comes from Colorado and every man in Southern California wants to see the Huns win. Mr. Stanton says that the reason for the Occidental defeat lies in the fact that somebody spilled the beans, but I think that Oxy won because the Tiger team is 53 per cent. better than the Huns this year.

THREE MEN INJURED.

There is one thing that we do know, and that is that Capt. Arthur Lutz, Cliff Barnes and Crawford are out of the game and will not get a chance Saturday with the Miners.

Lutz had his knee twisted in the Occidental game and has just been able to get out of bed during the past few days. Barnes also had his knee hurt again in the Occidental game and now cannot walk, much less move over a football field. Crawford, the speedy little end, is another Tiger sufferer. He has a broken bone in his wrist and also a crack in his ankle.

It will not be so hard to fill Crawford's place, as Reeves is almost as good as Crawford, when the latter is good, but now Reeves has a big edge on the varsity veteran in condition. A freshman named Youngman is slated to fill the captain's place at left half, but if by any wild possibility Lutz should be able to start the game, Youngman will be given his start as full-back, as under no condition will Barnes get into the game. In the line Stanford has been shifted to left guard, right tackle, his former position, to be taken by Raitte, who made good in the Oxy game, and Stanton says that he can play on any of his teams. This shift in the line puts McFadden out of a job at guard. Wolcott is likely to have a chance in the game, either at tackle or at guard, as he has been showing very well of late.

Last night there was a hard scrimmage practice behind closed gates and from the slim reports that came through the shutters it would seem that the workout was the best of the season. Nobody was reported hurt and the team is said to have shown a great deal more snap and form than at any time before this year.

It is to be hoped that these facts are true, as the Huns are going up against one of the hardest propositions in the Rocky Mountains in the Miners. Big, fast and full of football, these rock-crushers are coming South, and it looks as though the Blue and White team was going to be played off its feet. The only thing that might hinder such an outcome is the fact that the Miners are coming from the mile-high belt and also into a much warmer climate.

The team that Stanton will send against the Miners on Saturday will be about as heavy as the one that faced the Tigers, but the line-up will be changed a good deal, though what these changes will be is not open to discussion. Stanton says that his team will be 50 per cent. stronger than in the Occidental game. It takes games of equal strength to find the weak spots in any team, according to the Pomona coach. There were enough opportunities in the Tiger game and if this can be taken as a criterion the Huns should be 50 per cent. stronger, and they need the percentage.

The Miners will not outweigh Pomona, as was first expected, as on averaging up the team it was found that the ends and some of the backs brought the average to 164½ pounds. Pomona averages 167.

THORPE TO QUIT.

DORCHESTER (Mass.) Nov. 26.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Jim Thorpe, the all-around star football player of the Carlisle team, announced on his arrival here preparatory to the Brown game that he would cancel his connections with Carlisle immediately after the battle at Providence. Dislike of the notoriety which his athletic prowess has brought him is the prime cause of Thorpe's proposed withdrawal from active participation in athletics.

BRUSH FUNERAL FRIDAY.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 26.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The Body of John T. Brush, president of the New York Nationals, who died early this morning near here, while on his way to San Francisco for his health, was sent on a noon train to Indianapolis, where the funeral will be conducted Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Newton Hempstead.

Valley Route Favored.

for this race I am sure this city will do her part toward raising a purse that will mean the race must be held over the valley route."

This same sentiment was expressed by other speakers and the meeting turned out to be a big boost for the grand prize contest. Teddy Tetzlaff told the men of Fresno of the condition of the roads and they agreed to make them better. With the race held this year over the valley route several speakers felt sure that the contest would be held the second year over the State boulevard direct from Fresno to San Francisco.

FIAT SPEEDS UP.

The Fiat was driven away from Bakersfield this morning with Jack Bayse, a local driver, as pilot. After Tetzlaff had been shown the road out to Fresno he turned the Fiat loose and the car raced away to Formosa, twenty miles distant, reaching that point only twenty minutes after starting from the oil center. Setting a pace that made goggles and ear muffs a necessity the Fiat was then opened up.

Soon after starting we met a Buick racer being driven toward Visalia for the road races in that city on Thanksgiving Day. This told us plainly that unless we reached Fresno early we would miss many of the men we wished to meet, as they would be leaving for the racing center of the valley towns.

"We must reach Fresno by noon," I said to Tetzlaff and that seemed a foolhardy proposition, as the raisin center is 125 miles from Bakersfield and we had left that town at 8:37 o'clock. Tetzlaff shook his head, but with his teeth set tight pulled his cap down over his face and we were away.

FAST RUNNING.

The road from Formosa to Delano is straight and level save for a few bumps. That Fiat motor began to hum like a giant top. The sing of the chains was sweet music in our ears. I was to act as mechanic on that fast run, and I did not realize when we started just what that meant.

"Give her enough oil," Teddy had said just as he unleashed that speed monster. The thrill of the race against time made me forget everything but the way the landscape was racing away behind us. While we were making better than 100 miles an hour, Teddy nodded his head. I thought he was speed-mad. It was hard for me to tell what he meant. Then he held up two fingers and I realized that I had been dreaming.

That meant two shots of oil from the pump, but it took an acrobat to force that oil into the crank case. I turned the cap until the arrow pointed toward me; then drew the pump handle up as hard as I could. We struck a bump and the handle flew out of my fingers and I grabbed that seat. Another bump and while I had been trying to pump that oil we had covered two miles.

Then, with a firmer grip I turned the arrow once more, raised the handle, turned the arrow away from me and then pressed down. I must admit that I was in the air at least half the time, but oh, how that oil gurgled into those bearings and how that red Fiat responded. I gave her the necessary two and then turned in amazement, to see Tetzlaff scowling at me. I was furious until I could read from his lips that he was saying, "pressure, pressure." Then I knew that I was a boob mechanic.

GAS PRESSURE LOW.

Once more I got busy. While I had been pumping that oil, the pressure had gone down on that gasoline tank. With all my might I worked and shoved that needle on the gauge up to the two-pound notch. I did not need to look at the gauge. The sound of the motor told me I had finished that job and if I could not have told in any other way, the grin on Teddy's face was enough.

We split the air like an arrow. If any aeroplanist has ever gone as fast as we traveled this morning, he can have all the honors. That race to Fresno was a hummer. A dog rushed out toward us at Selma, but we were a mile away before he reached the spot we had just passed. The moments moved into hours. We left Bakersfield late, but we rushed up to the Hughes Hotel one minute before 12 o'clock. It was hard to make the crowd believe we had left Bakersfield only three hours and twenty-two minutes before our sensational dash down the main streets of Fresno.

BAKERSFIELD IN LINE.

Representative citizens of Bakersfield at a mass meeting in Bower Hall last night pledged themselves to raise $5000 toward the grand prize for the Los Angeles-to-San Francisco road race on July 4. Nat Solomon, president of the Merchants' Association of Bakersfield, in a rousing address, stated that the race will be held over the valley route if Bakersfield has to raise more than any other city on the Coast route.

The proposition from W. E. Drury caught the meeting and was passed unanimously. Drury proposed that Bakersfield be the first control, that the cars be started from Los Angeles at 6 o'clock and be parked in Bakersfield on Chester avenue, from the time the first car arrives, about 9:30 o'clock, until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. That the cars then be started again and sent to Fresno for the night control and that the finish be at San Francisco the second day. This would make a two days' race of the big meet.

STRONG COMMITTEE.

The committee appointed to look after the race and raise the prize money at Bakersfield consists of W. E. Drury, a prominent automobile man; Angus Crites, a wealthy oil operator; J. M. Dunn, an automobile dealer; C. A. Barlow, president of the Board of Trade; and C. B. Colby, a wealthy oil well owner. These men are among the live business men of Bakersfield.

J. C. Henderson, who was chosen secretary of the mass meeting, took an active part in the discussion. He was assisted by Mr. Haberfeldt and Attorney Will Gleason, who is another of the boosters from the oil center. Adolph Jacobs asked that a vote of thanks be given to the San Francisco Chronicle and the Los Angeles Times for the work already accomplished toward the road race. Lawrence Wilde believed the race should be held and felt sure that even more than $5000 will be secured if the committee sees that the matter is put squarely before the people of Kern county.

GOOD ROADS ASSURED.

The people of Bakersfield have bonded themselves for $200,000 to improve the city streets. It is proposed to prepare Chester avenue in time for the big road race. The citizens of Kern county are soon to vote on a bond issue of $3,000,000 that will mean good county highways to the Kern-Los Angeles county line. The roads will be put into shape in time for the race and it will be necessary only to follow the route of least resistance and unless work is done along the proposed route for the State highway the cars will be sent over the Tehachepi grade into Bakersfield.

There was a great send-off this morning when The Times car left Bakersfield. Though the big red Fiat shot away up the valley at 8:15 o'clock there was a large crowd outside the New Southern Hotel. Many of the citizens who had taken part in the meeting the evening before were on hand to say farewell to Teddy Tetzlaff, who had made his schedule in such a way that he could reach Fresno in time for an afternoon meeting.

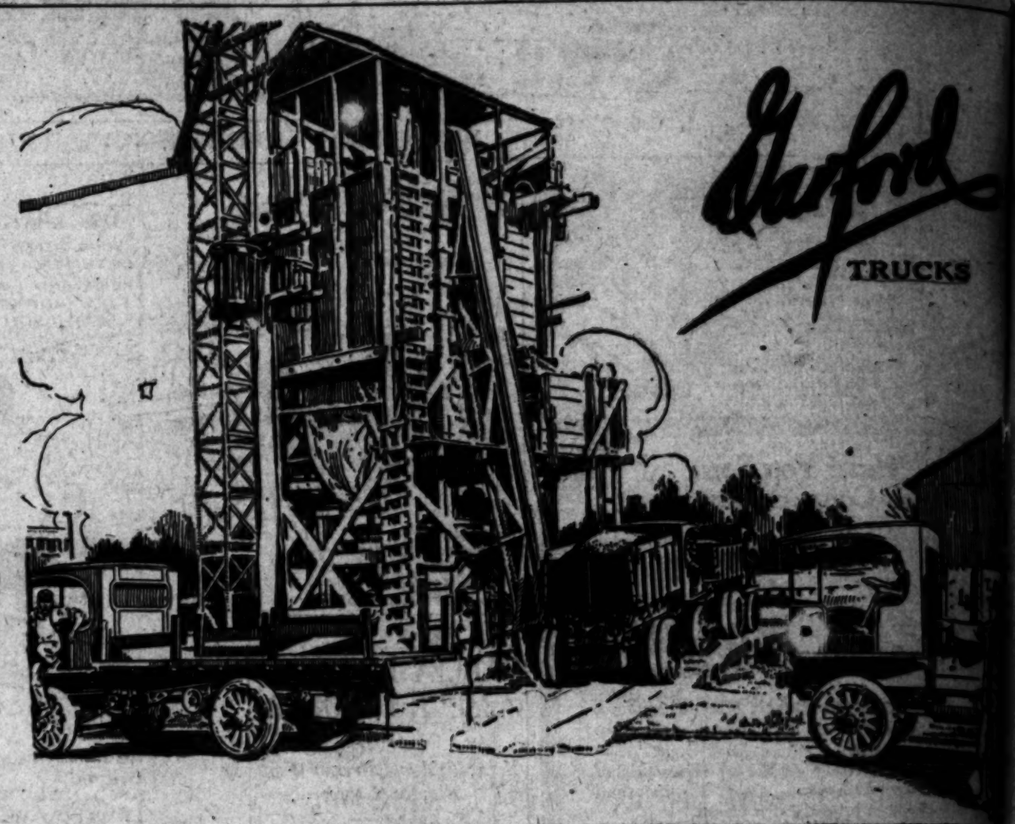
The meeting at Bakersfield was far more successful than any of the race boosters believed it could possibly be on account of the short notice given to the men of Kern county. The valley townsmen are determined that the race shall be held up the Valley route and are prepared to raise more than any other city on the coast route, in order that the race shall be routed through Bakersfield and Fresno to Gilroy, San Jose and San Francisco.

We will try to reach Los Banos tonight. The Fiat is equipped with big headlights and we are not afraid of a night drive. The roads are in fairly good shape and we plan to reach that little town in time to get a few hours' sleep in preparation for the start to San Francisco at dawn tomorrow.

BAY CITY WEDNESDAY.

According to our present plans we should reach San Francisco at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. In a dispatch from the Bay City this afternoon we are told that a reception is being planned for us at the Hotel St. Francis. We are to have an escort from the city limits into the heart of San Francisco. We have set ourselves a rather fast schedule but we have every reason to believe that the Fiat can turn the trick.

In every town that we have touched the sentiment of the citizens is in favor of the road race. The date seems to suit everybody. The purse appears to be one of the easy propositions. In each town we have been asked to set the amount and the citizens have then agreed to do the rest.



Showing Garford Trucks at work on the famous Catskill Aqueduct

Chosen for the world's biggest contracting job

THE Catskill Aqueduct is the largest undertaking of its kind in the world. In a great many respects it is larger and more important than the Panama Canal. This aqueduct is to furnish New York City with water. It will supply greater New York with 600,000,000 gallons of water every twenty-four hours—which is 100 gallons a day for 6,000,000 people. It will cost over $200,000,000. It is over 85 miles long.

Practically every big contractor on the aqueduct is using Garford trucks. And each one of these contractors chose the Garford after testing and investigating all the best known products.

The time element has played a most important part on this big job. In fact all contracts carry a strong penalty clause covering and guaranteeing time of completion. Time here is valued in the millions. Therefore every conceivable manner and means of quick construction became the most essential part of the chief engineer's work. Every practical modern time saving device was employed.

In trucks, the Garford was selected. Prominent among the innumerable modern methods of rapid twentieth century construction you will find scores of these big splendid time and money savers working night and day.

The use and the important part taken by Garford trucks in the greatest municipal water supply system in the world demonstrates how it can aid and help you to economically develop, strengthen and broaden your business—no matter what it might be. For if you haul things you can w Garford trucks to a great advantage.

One big contractor writes:

"We made some very interesting experiments. N instance, over a given territory one Garford truck m twenty-one trips a day carrying four tons per trip. A t operating over the same haul made but nine trips and a but two tons per trip."

Another large concern writes that eight Garfords are doing the work of fifty horses.

Another writes each truck can do two hundred pe as much work in the same time as a single team.

And in contrast to these big operators are the on ones who only use one Garford truck. In every case has been found that one Garford truck will replace four teams. Can you beat that for actual economy? Ca obtain better efficiency than this? Who is there w will say the horse is not a part of the inefficient pas

McCarty is Green Fighter

McCarty is just past 20 years old and is very much of a kid.

Billy McCarney, his clever manager, tells some very amusing things about his big hope. A few days ago Luther saw a bunch of kids spinning their tops and borrowed a top from one of them and joined in the game.

He spun the top as well as any of the rest of them, but one kid got sore on him for knocking his top out of the ring and "bawled" him out and called him a big stiff, not knowing who Luther was. Luther saw the joke of it all and argued with the kid for five minutes.

He is busy all the time. McCarney has engaged a cottage at the beach and the landlady wanted a fence built in front of her lawn. When Luther heard of this, he bought the laths and lumber and built a fence that would be a credit to a skilled carpenter.

SHOVELS SAND.

A few days ago an old man came along hauling sand, and as he was shoveling it into his cart Luther took the shovel out of the old fellow's hand and loaded his cart in a few minutes, and then asked him when he would be back for the next load. Luther was "Johnny on the spot" and helped the old man out a second time.

He does not worry the least about his coming match and is as full of life and ginger as any young fellow I have ever seen.

Luther is fortunate in having a clever manager like McCarney, who is a well-educated fellow. Some years ago McCarney was one of the clever-est amateur boxers in the East. Billy has won several championships and knows the game thoroughly.

He is taking Luther along the right way and coaching him on all angles of the game. McCarty has made many friends while he has been training at Venice and it is needless to say that a big crowd will be on hand to see him work out after the Mandot-Rivers fight is over.

M'CREDIE SORE AT NOT SECURING MEN.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Walter McCredie arrived home from the East today, lamenting his ability to secure a first-class pitcher. Outside of selling Hank Butcher to Denver, the big fellow did not make a switch in his playing material. He could have gotten a lot of old stuff, he says, but he is in the market for young material.

"Cleveland owes Portland a first-baseman, and as it has such men as Hohnhorst, Riggs, Derrick and Blue, I am sure of getting one of the men when waivers can be secured on them," said McCredie.

"I have also promises of landing other men whom I want. I tried to put through a trade of Bill Rapps for Twirler Chellette, of the St. Joe club of the Western League, but Joe Holland did not consider Rapps promising enough, and I will probably have to sell him to the Texas League.

"I also talked of trading both Harkness and Koestner, but nothing has come of either deal as yet, and both may fall through. The Western League is the one which has the cream of the minor league pitching talent. I would give $4000 for three men in that circuit if I could secure them. I offered $2500 for Harris of Denver, but the owners laughed at me."

McCredie says he has been told that Greenwald of the Springfield club will report to the Beavers.

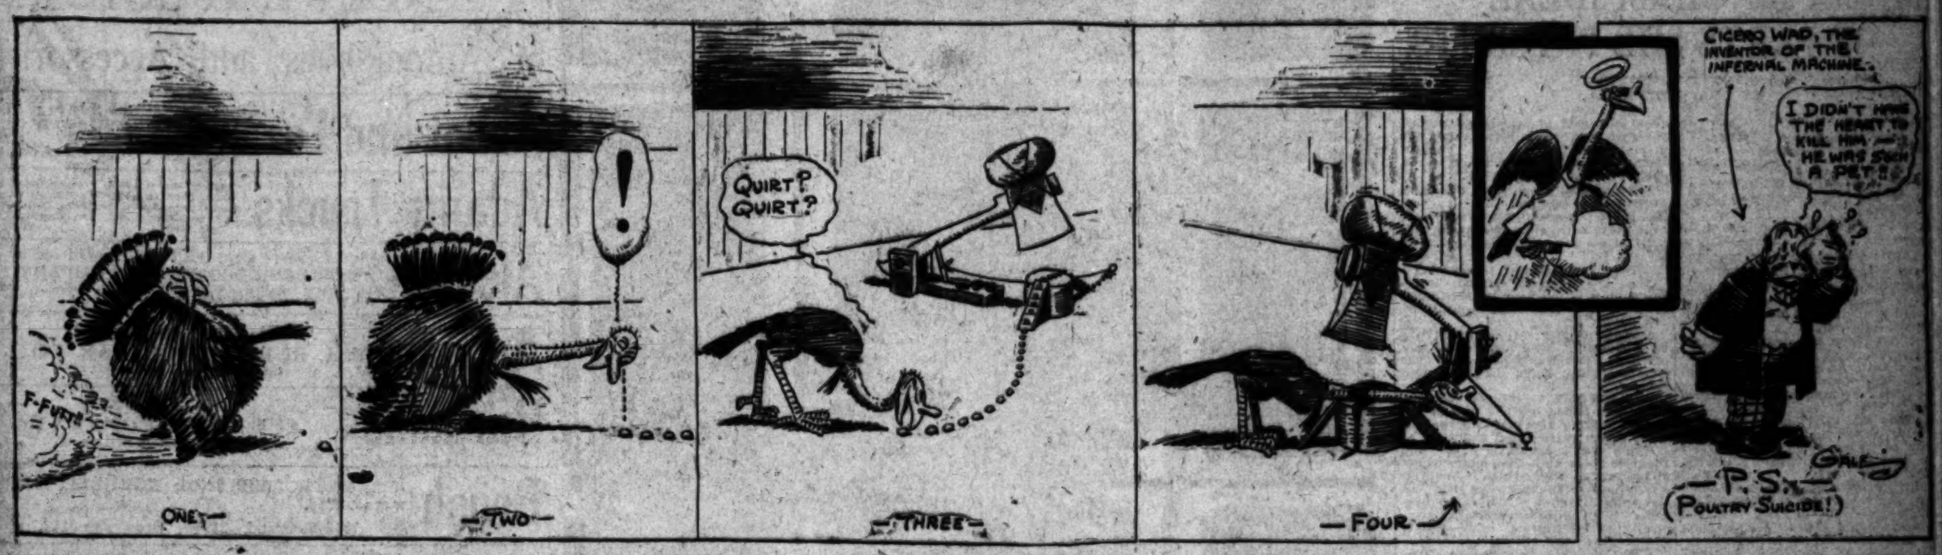
Necessity Was the Mother of the Invention Whereby Mr. Wad's Turkey Got It in the Neck!



"I'LL STEP AS FAST AS AD WOLGAST WILL TRAVEL."

I am ready and waiting for the time that will send me to the center of the ring. Even if misfortune comes, I will receive at least five or six times as much as I have ever received in any former battle. As my preparation progresses, my confidence is strengthened and I can safely state that I will enter the Daly City arena on Thanksgiving Day fit and ready to put up the battle of my life.

"My excess poundage has been taken off in a scientific manner. No drastic measures were resorted to. In fact, it was a pleasure instead of a hardship to train. Every ounce of flesh on my body is hard as rubber. I will be able to step as fast as my friend Wolgast is inclined to travel. He has nothing to uncork that I fear. Don't worry about the route. My chances improve as the battle progresses. I watched Wolgast battle with Rivers. Since then his performance on that occasion only strengthened my opinion and his last battle with Mandot surely did not change it. If I am beaten Mr. Wolgast will have one grand time before we finish our quarrel.

Great Expectations.

FINAL FOOTBALL BATTLES TO BE FOUGHT THURSDAY.

Oxy Tigers Look Like World Beaters for the Aggie Game and Are Very Anxious for Victory—U.S.C. Trojans Have Rounded Into Form and Believe They Can Defeat Berkeley Men.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

INTERCOLLEGIATE games tomorrow.

Occidental and the Oregon Aggies, Baer Field, Highland Park, 2:30 p.m.

U.S.C. and California Varsity, Board Field, 2 p.m.

What promises to be the greatest football menu in the history of Southern California will be served up tomorrow afternoon. The two games scheduled will undoubtedly bring out some of the best football of the season and will be a fitting close to one of the most spectacular schedules ever played out here.

The U.S.C. Trojans are fit and ready for the California Bears, while the Occidental Tigers look like world beaters for the clash with the Northern Aggies.

There are several features of vital interest surrounding both battles.

At U.S.C. it will be the last opportunity that the Trojans will have this season in intercollegiate competition. The team will go on the field in the best condition of the year and with the strongest line-up that has ever represented the warring Methodists. All the cripples are back in the game better than ever, and the backfield has been materially strengthened by the addition of Dorn at second five and Land to center three. Rush Meadows will be back at left wing, so Manning will have the best Rugby machine that ever flew a southern flag.

FINAL OXY PRACTICE.

Last night at Oxy the team went through a last hard practice before the big game and it was some practice. Real scrimmage, with all the trimmings, was the order of the evening. Of course, Bruce Dill was missing, but every other member of the team had all the snap, dash and enthusiasm in the world. The scrubs were run all over the field and the varsity pulled some fancy dazzling plays that are new to the football fans here.

For the week following the Pomona game there was serious doubt as to the condition of the Tiger squad, for the final game of the season. There were a lot of cripples, but all the bad spots were healed over Sunday and now the team looks nearly as good for the Aggie game as it did before the Pomona struggle. The Southern fans can rest assured that the great Tiger team will again be in a position to put up one of its famous games.

The spirit of the men in general will be good for the Northern Farmers. After the practice, the coach called the squad together in the middle of the field.

PIPAL PRAISES SCRUBS.

"This is our last night of practice for the season," said Pipal, "and before I send in the second team, I want to say that the success of the 'Varsity has been mainly due to the splendid support given by the scrubs. They have taken a million hard knocks to make the varsity what it is. At this the varsity men gave the scrubs a rousing cheer and the men of the second team was over the top of the year.

After the scrubs were dismissed the first team went through a few final evolutions and the day was done, and all that remains of the season of 1912 is the game with the Oregon Aggies tomorrow afternoon. Following the practice we adjourned to the training table and it was a pleasure to see these young knights of the gridiron destroy food. Not a man seems to be worried about the game, and the coming battle was but little talked of during the meal. Taking it all in all, the Tigers have done a great thing in coming back into form after the hard Pomona game, and almost all of the credit must go to Coach Pipal. He has turned the trick as far as we can tell, but the final test will come tomorrow.

AGGIES VERY STRONG.

In meeting the Oregon Aggies, the Tigers are taking a final fling at the football title of the Coast. The football played in the Northwest is of a superior type, and if the Tigers can win the name of champion, Southern California will be firmly placed on the football map of the country. Three years ago the University of St. Louis came West and was beaten by two teams of that section without much trouble. Now, St. Louis plays football up to the standard of the Middle West, which is a good average, and when the teams of the Northwest can trim them it shows that hard football is the game in the North. Now the Aggies are up and coming in their section, so Occidental will be in a game with one of the best football machines in the West. This means a lot, when one takes time to think it over.

TROJANS READY.

Now to return to the Trojans. Berkeley is to arrive tonight and will be something of a dark horse aggregation. If the team had not played its big game with Stanford already there would not be much question as to class, but now that that battle is over, the condition of the California aggregation is open to conjecture. They say that Stanford had quite an edge on California in the recent game, and we all know that U.S.C. held the Cardinals to a hard game. With the Trojans in the best condition of the year, and in better Rugby form than ever before, playing against a team which uses much the same style of play as Manning's men, there is but little doubt that the game will be hard-fought, with the competition keen and even all the way. The California team rather runs to forward play and nothing more could be asked by the U.S.C. rooters. The Methodists have one of the best scrums on the Coast and California will have to take the ball out of the pack to win the game.

With these games the southern football season practically closes, and never before has there been so much midseason class crammed into one day. Lead on McDuff, the day bids fair to be one of more than passing interest.

MINERS EN ROUTE.

DENVER, Nov. 26.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Concluding its home preparation with signal practice this morning, the Colorado State School of Mines football team will leave tonight for Los Angeles to meet the Pomona College team Saturday.

RITCHIE GETS TALK ON RULES.

Referee Explains Just What Wrestling Is.

Either Man May Lost Fight If He Holds.

Nolan Anxious to Have Every Law Enforced.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Referee Jim Griffin paid his respects to Willie Ritchie and his manager, Billy Nolan, this afternoon and interpreted the rules of the coming lightweight championship battle to the little challenger and the man who directs his affairs.

The process was a smooth one and they all seemed satisfied at the conclusion of the conference. There is no hitch between the principals, and barring accidents, Wolgast and Ritchie will be fit and ready for one of the greatest lightweight battles in the history of the ring when they meet Thursday afternoon.

Ever since Griffin was named the third man in the ring it was feared that there would be a run-in or a hitch between him and Nolan. The fans looked for trouble at today's meeting, but it was conducted in a harmonious manner. Griffin had a long talk with Ritchie before he hooked up with Nolan. The referee and the fighter clinched and wrestled and tugged and illustrated various blows to each other.

RITCHIE SHOWN CLINCH.

Griffin explained to Ritchie just what constituted a clinch and when he expected the men to break. Nolan and Griffin met five minutes later. They sat down and talked it over in the presence of John T. Clark, the stakeholder; George Harting, the timekeeper, and several newspaper men. The session lasted only fifteen minutes.

"I want it distinctly understood that this is to be no wrestling match," said Nolan. "I am not looking for any advantage either. If my man offends by holding after due warning I hope you will disqualify him and I expect you to do the same if Wolgast persists in such tactics."

"I will not stand for any wrestling," emphatically declared Griffin.

"I will see that they keep on fighting all the time, and, if I can prevent it, there will be no holding.

"I promise to warn both men before they go into the ring and I will also give them reasonable warning in case either man makes this mistake, but if either persists he shall be disqualified."

TALK OF COUNTING.

Nolan was also particular about the count. He quoted the Queensberry rules which say that the timekeeper shall toll off the seconds in the event that either man is knocked down.

"It is impossible for a referee to watch both fighters and keep the count at the same time," said Griffin. "I will look for George Harting to do the counting and I will follow him to the best of my ability.

"If there are any knockdowns he will be responsible for the final count." Harting nodded assent. This veteran has counted out more champions and challengers than any man who ever lived.

Griffin and Nolan agreed that the referee is to order the principal who scores a knockdown to step back after his punch landed. Nolan evidently is afraid that Wolgast may not Ritchie on his back and then stand right over him and rush at him and land again as he did when they met in that four-round mixup last May.

The manager of the challenger sees great danger for his man unless the rules are carefully carried out to the letter. Griffin is an old timer at the game and he certainly should know the rules as well as any of them.

AUTO ROAD RACE FOR IMPERIAL VALLEY.

(Special Correspondence to The Times.)

IMPERIAL, Nov. 25.—Several hundred enthusiastic automobilists met at Imperial on Saturday night and arranged for a road race to be open to the world on Washington's Birthday.

L. F. Farnsworth, chairman of the meeting, stated today that there would be little trouble in raising several thousand dollars to be offered as purses and that the city giving the biggest cash subscription would be made the starting and finishing point of the race.

This will undoubtedly be run over the same course as that held on July 4 last, and will take in every important city in the valley.

"I'LL WIN SURE," WRITES AD WOLGAST TO THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25, 1912.

Sporting Editor, The Times.

My Dear Friend: A few lines to let you know how things stand.

Well, I am feeling fine and have worked hard. The betting is two to one in favor of the champ. There is plenty of the two, but the one is very scarce. I have had money in the city a week to be covered—even that Ritchie don't go twenty rounds; but it is still uncovered. So, you see, they don't think the Dutchman is as near dead as one would imagine.

They do say, however, that Ritchie is making the weight all right.

Well, how does the Rivers-Mandot fight look to you? I hope they box a draw, as I wouldn't like to see either of them beaten.

Coffroth has offered me a good round sum to box Frankie Burns the fourteenth of next month. He also wants to tie me up for New Year's Day. But I will make no contracts until after this match.

I am sure to win.

Yours sincerely,
Ad Wolgast

The Expert's View.

WOLGAST'S CONDITION BY PROMINENT FIGHT CRITIC.

Magilligan of San Francisco Says that if Willie Ritchie Can Beat Wolgast on Thanksgiving Day He Will Be the Greatest Lightweight of This Generation—The Champion in Grand Shape.

ONE of the shrewdest, keenest boxing critics in San Francisco—T. P. Magilligan—sees in the little Dutchman, now training to defend his title against Willie Ritchie, the mighty Ad Wolgast of old. The following estimate of Ad's condition appeared in the San Francisco Bulletin of recent date:

The Wolgast who is training out at Seal Rock House now is an altogether different Wolgast from the one who met Ritchie here last May. He is stronger; he is more confident, and he is much better now than he was then. Already there are those who are saying that if Ritchie beats Wolgast on Turkey Day it will merely be because Wolgast has "gone back."

Nonsense. If Ritchie beats Wolgast when they meet, then Willie will be entitled to a world of consideration, for Wolgast is just as good now as he ever was in his career, and according to word of Wolgast's own mouth, he is better. If Ritchie beats Wolgast next Thursday, then it will simply mean that Ritchie could have beaten Wolgast any time in his career, for Wolgast is at the pinnacle of his power right now.

In strength, Wolgast is the equal of any young bull. Ad showed his wonderful strength while wrestling around the gym with Charley Anslinger, a good 140-pound boy. The pair bent their heads against each other and worked in a tugging match that was good to behold. Ad showed strength even in his toes. The little champion would clutch his toes in the canvas, give a heave and the sturdy Anslinger would have to give way every time Wolgast put on the pressure.

AD IS JOYFUL.

Mentally, as well as physically, Wolgast is in good condition. When Ad was here before for his bout with Ritchie something seemed to be worrying him. He was as peevish as a baby cutting a tooth, and he did not seem at ease in his mind.

Yesterday Ad looked like "Joy" come to life. He was in a rompish mood and he laughed and chatted like a school lad on a vacation. If Wolgast has any idea that Ritchie will give him a hard battle he did not show it yesterday.

"Say," said Ad, while he was being rubbed, "if Ritchie goes ten rounds he will have to run faster and further than any one ever ran in that amount of time before. I'm going to give him a good beating just to show him where he gets off."

LIKE NO OTHER BOXER.

Unless the writer misses his guess, Ritchie is going to find Wolgast a puzzling proposition on Thanksgiving Day. The champion does not resemble any other lightweight champion that the writer can recall.

Ad is not an artist in point of hitting. He is not like Gans. When Joe was champion he had such a tremendous punch that he could wind up a contest with one wallop.

Wolgast cannot do this. Ad depends on a series of punches.

He is a better hitter than Nelson was, though he is not as subservient under punishment.

Wolgast fights like no other great fighter. He is clever in his way; he is a finisher, but not a one-punch artist.

Ad sort of "scuffs" his punches over on an opponent.

THE AIREDALE TERRIER.

He is ideally built for a fighter. There is in him the suggestion of a blooded Airedale terrier. He is not peaceful, but in every line of his strong frame he shows resistance. Wolgast should be easy prey for the artist. A good artist should be able to draw an admirable picture of Ad with his left hand. He is built on square lines. He looks like an unfinished statue that a sculptor has hewed out of stone on square lines and has not finished up.

ON THE SQUARE.

You've seen the elementary drawing books. You know the kind where they sort of build a picture of a man on square lines. Almost any of these elementary pictures would make a likeness of Wolgast. The lines of his head are square. The nose is straight. The lineaments of his jaw are so square that they could be used as a plumb to test the trueness of a wall. His shoulders are square, his body is square and the lines of his legs are solid as a column.

Even the feet of the lad are square and firm and solid, and he has as much holding power in his solid little feet as an ourang outang. As a sheer fighter it is doubtful if the ring ever produced his superior. Ritchie, the writer believes, is going to have the time of his sweet young life next Thursday afternoon. And if Ritchie beats Wolgast he will be entitled to be called the best lightweight of this generation.

Few Like Her.

AMELIA BINGHAM IDEAL OF PARTS SHE PRESENTS.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

They call Amelia Bingham on they call Amelia Bingham of the "real" Broadway.

Occasionally one meets an artist o, off-stage, fulfills one's ideals of parts she plays. Of such is Amelia Bingham.

Too, too often one is called on to erview a famous Juliet—only to d her addicted to hair dye and ling to keep down her weight! Or Lady Macbeth who waddles, or a mile whose stupid, commonplace perfectly respectable daughter is derstudying her.

Too often one is called to go into nsports over a thin, anemic Cleotra. Well, it can be done—with fingers crossed!

But the loyal and passionate Tosca ver looked through lovelier eyes, wilful and vital Sans Gene never re a fairer shape, and the "gentle" rtia never spoke in sweeter voice an does Amelia Bingham when she ays these roles.

"Just because we cannot act ourves, there are a lot of things sealed us interviewers," I said; "but, tell , how do you pass so quickly from e 'great moment' to another?"

"It is rather herculean," she anered—the comparative, while mayogically inaccurate, expressed dest—very nicely, I thought. "The ficult part is carrying one's audice along with one."

This led up to the subject of one's plays.

"The one-act play was never writ-," she said, "that could give an tor the right chance. Where is mosphere? The coldness of rection from the preceding 'turn'—atever it be, trained animals, song d dance artist, juggler—is upon ur audience. The artist must win em to himself. And to do this, he st create his atmosphere, instantly, it were, instead of having it worked for him beforehand, as in case of play."

When I told her that her acting reinded me strongly at moments of rnhardt, she said, with sweet enusiasm, that, yes, she "worshipped rnhardt;" that they were great iends, and she had often visited the est actress in her wonderful home, Paris. "I study her all the time," e said, "and no doubt do a lot of ings like her."

She said this in a very simple, unhamed manner—a tremendous compliment, to if the other were as much proud hair, she was proud to have r as a model.

No doubt she herself would not aim it, but I felt glad that we were ving preserved for us, in a younger dy, the art of the older woman.

Miss Bingham is known to be in the arket to purchase a play. Therefore Miss Bingham has a private mail r and letter carrier.

"I have been reading, reading ays," she says, "until my head ims. I have on hand sixteen plays out airships, two hundred morality ays—one of them makes me Saint cilia—two quarts of problem plays, about a bushel of farces and several yards of tragedies in blank verse, and a melodrama about the Panama Canal. Then I have a grand opera, subject—what do you think?"

"Not good at guessing," I admitted.

"Woman suffrage," she laughed. "No matter how much we may be in sympathy with this movement, it's hard to see a grand opera heroine in it, isn't it?"

"Well, if she dies—" I suggested.

"Oh, she does, of course. But—the subject is too near to us—there's so much more dust than atmosphere, one might say!"

I spoke of her success which was so wonderfully coincident with that of Clyde Fitch's, in whose play "The Climbers," she made her first great success.

And she said "yes," very sorrowfully—and added that he was on the eve of writing the play she wanted when death carried him away.

There was a sad little pause, and then she showed me the picture of No. 103 Riverside drive, which is her New York house, the archways over the doors and windows of which are decorated with beautiful statues, principally of the great ones—Shakespeare, Ibsen and others.

"That statuary belonged to Clyde Fitch," she said, "and we bought it when his effects were sold."

Being back in New York now one naturally inquired as to her interests there, and I find that Miss Bingham is very much interested in all the movements of women, both professional and civic. She is president of the Professional Women's League, and a member of the distinguished "Twelfth Night Club."

Miss Bingham's repertoire includes a scene from "Joan d'Arc"—not yet quite ready for production, however—the card scene from "Camille," and a scene from "The Merchant of Venice." These she expects to play in a return engagement next year.

I want right here to put in the "atmosphere" of my interview with Miss Bingham, maybe a trifle late, like Mark Twain's "weather" in the appendix of his "American Claimant"—but quite necessary, withal, to give you a sense of this artist, with her swiftly changing moods—at one moment giving you a glimpse of Bernhardt's intensity, at another a reminiscence of Ellen Terry's charming variability—while all the time she looks a good deal like Lillian Russell.

She has an odd little trick—yet a perfectly natural one, I'm sure—of sitting for minutes like a beautiful statue, and then suddenly, like Galatea coming to life, she breaks into a smile which transfigures her—such a warm and human smile—such an all-inclusive and very winning, radiant smile—a smile that I am sure has won her much, and can win her anything.

Maybe, after all, the little illuminated text which is fastened in a corner of her dressing table mirror expresses her as well as anything I can say—

"Life is what our thoughts make it."

Amelia Bingham in Tragic Mood.

This celebrated star, and heroine of the late Clyde Fitch's greatest play, "The Climbers," is scoring heavily at the Orpheum this week in an unusual offering.

Expert Opinion.

TETZLAFF THINKS SAN FERNANDO COURSE GOOD.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN FERNANDO, Nov. 26.—Teddy Tetzlaff in a 120-horse-power Fiat came through San Fernando yesterday morning, accompanied by Bert Smith, automobile editor of the Los Angeles Times, en route to San Francisco in the interests of the big $50,000 road race scheduled for July 4, 1913. They stopped in front of a local garage long enough to be photographed.

Tetzlaff will return to San Fernando to the "Owl" Thursday morning in time for the Thanksgiving Day races here. His mechanician will meet him here with another Fiat, a twin to the one he is driving north.

Teddy took a spin around the course on his way out of town and pronounced it in fine shape. He is confident of setting a new world's record on Thanksgiving Day.

Twenty-eight cars have signed for the turkey-day road races and forty-three motorcycles have entered. Not only the prizes offered are attracting drivers, but the course is one that cannot be resisted by the lovers of speed. Furthermore, these races give amateur drivers a chance to break into the game and no doubt there are a number of clever speed artists in Southern California who would make a creditable showing if given an opportunity.

What will no doubt be the hardest fought race of the day will be the big free-for-all, in which seventeen cars are entered. The favorites in this event are Mitchell, in a Pope-Hartford; Buchtel, in a Studebaker Special; Roberts, in a Knox Six; Flynn, in a Maxwell, and Ted Van in a Stutz.

Preparations are being made to handle a large crowd. A special train will leave Arcade station at 9:30 a.m., returning immediately after the races.

GREAT CARD OF HARNESS RACES FOR THURSDAY.

TO ADD to the other attractions of the big holiday tomorrow, the Los Angeles Driving Club has announced a race matinee at Exposition Park that certainly surpasses anything of the kind ever heard of in this end of the State, for there are no less than eight races on the programme.

The first two events are one-mile dashes, and the other seven are two in three heats, and if there is no delay in scoring the card can easily be dealt during the afternoon. In almost every instance the horses will be driven by their owners.

The events and entries are as follows:

Trotting, mile dash—Lady Goldsmith, Radium and Zole.

Pacing, mile dash—Tommy, Burney and Kildar.

Pacing, 2:15 class—Alecer, Ambro, Audubon and Lady Silverthorne.

Trotting, 2:15 class—Etta McKenna and Mabel Van.

Pacing, 2:20 class—Catalina Belle, Hinda and Majella.

Trotting, 2:25 class—Marie G, Zomline, Joe and Leccona.

Trotting, 2:20 class—Alrich, P. S. Whitney and Happy Clay.

Pacing, 2:25 class—Little Bernice and Mabel H.

Trotting, 2:35 class — California Boy, Lady McKee and Major.

The officials are to be as follows: George K. Darling, C. G. Epps and T. N. Goldsmith, judges; E. Deffebach, Anston Moore and W. J. Thomas, timers; E. J. Delorey, starter. The first event will be called at 1:30 o'clock.

VOGEL DENIES HE EVER ROASTED BIG LEAGUE.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] With seven charges against him, Horace Vogel, until last Friday president of the Philadelphia baseball club, was put on trial today at a special meeting of the National League, called to hear and pass judgment on the case.

To take up these charges separately would take up far too much space, so when the magnates adjourned tonight, they had only taken up one of the accusations.

In a nutshell, it is alleged that Vogel accused President Lynch and the National League umpires of fixing the race for the pennant, so that New York would win.

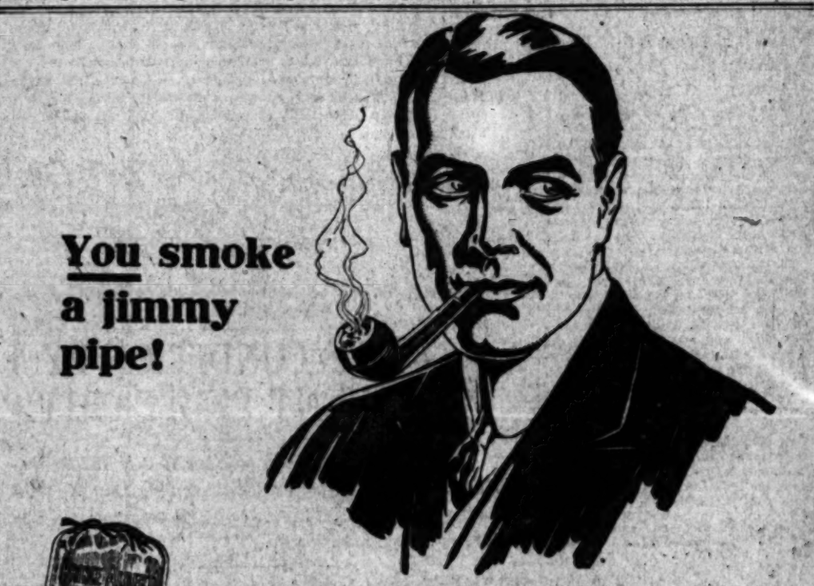
Every club was represented when the meeting was called to order in the afternoon. President Thomas J. Lynch, who convened the session, requested Julius Fleischmann of Cincinnati to take the chair. As Lynch is a party in the case, he could not act as chairman.

Horace Vogel scored first blood. Alfred Weller of the Philadelphia club presented a letter dated November 22, to the acting chairman, which was Vogel's resignation as president of the Philadelphia club and the appointment of Alfred Weller, by the directors of the Quaker City organization. The resignation was accepted by the league.

Vogel then took the stand on his own behalf and denied all the charges. Before making any statement, A. L. S. Shields, a Philadelphia lawyer, questioned the legality of the whole proceedings and the right of the league to try his client, but this point was lost.

The Philadelphian was examined by the league's attorney and in the course of this examination he was asked if he believed the umpires were crooked, or if anyone connected with the league was crooked. He answered in the negative to these question.

However, he acknowledges that he had said that the Philadelphia club had got some pretty rotten deals in the last three years. In the middle of the proceedings, the session was adjourned, out of respect to the death of John T. Brush, president of the New York club.



You smoke a jimmy pipe!

Prince Albert is always the same identical smoke—today, tomorrow—and everywhere! Natural thing, isn't it, for men to call it the national joy smoke.

You buy P. A. in any part of your town or your county—or anywhere in the United States. It's always just as fresh, just as delicious, in Maine or California.

P. A. smokers don't ruin their taste for a bully smoke by being forced to buy unknown, untried, untrue brands! No, sir, right down at the corner they get the goods.

Some fine day you'll smoke a pipe. Then it will dawn upon you that P. A. won't burn your tongue, because the sting's removed by a patented process. Other men—millions of 'em—smoke P. A. to their heart's content and so will you—sure thing!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Here's tobacco that makes a wonder of a cigarette. Just as good rolled up as packed brimful in a jimmy pipe.

You jump at this red-hot tip, invest in one package of P. A. and get a cigarette smoke like you never did know before.

None of the "running" chaff-brands or fire-brands for you after you get acquainted with P. A.—all sweet and fragrant. Rolls up, easy like, because it's fresh and crimp cut. And it tickles your grouch generator!

Buy P. A. everywhere. In the tidy 10c red tins; 5c cloth bags and handsome pound and half-pound humidors. Go to it!

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

When the subject of an investigation of the Civil Service Commission's methods of conducting examinations was up yesterday, Councilman Reed proposed that members of the Council might well be subject to civil service examinations to determine whether they are qualified to act as the city's lawmakers.

A proposition to demand more cars on the street railways, and that passengers not provided with seats be given a lower rate than those sitting, was referred by the Council yesterday to the Public Welfare Committee for consideration Friday morning.

The City Attorney told San Pedro and Wilmington "wet" and "dry" campaigners yesterday, at the Council session, that liquors may be served to guests in one's own home at the harbor towns the same as in any other part of the city, should the vote be in favor of a "dry" zone.

Application was made by Emmet H. Wilson yesterday for a street railway franchise on Vernon avenue, from Dalton street to the westerly city limits.

Officers of the First Methodist Episcopal Church appeared in the Superior Court yesterday to testify regarding the alleged insanity of a member of the congregation, who is resisting an effort to have her committed to an asylum.

SHALL COUNCIL BE EXAMINED?

CIVIL SERVICE QUIZ FOR ALL, SAYS REED.

Topham Wants Secretary and Examiner of Commission to Pass Test, and Brother Member Proposes to Make Questions Comprehensive and Take in Law-Makers.

Civil Service Commission examinations for Councilmen, to determine whether they have the capabilities for being the city's lawmakers—this is the latest proposition, and was made by Councilman Reed at the City Hall yesterday. Reed sometimes has grave doubts as to whether his brother-members of the Council could qualify.

This latest freak proposition came about when the subject of investigating the Civil Service Commission's methods of conducting examinations was presented in the session of the City Council.

Councilman Topham introduced a resolution calling attention to the petition filed by persons who took the examination for the position of chief engineer of the Bureau of Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, and who failed to pass, and who ask that an investigation of the examination methods be undertaken. The Topham resolution stated that numerous complaints have been registered as to the methods used and pursued by the official examiner of the Civil Service Commission, and therefore proposed that the president of the Council appoint a committee of three to make a thorough investigation as to the methods of holding examinations and the method of determining the qualifications of the applicants.

Councilman Reed, immediately after the reading of this resolution, secured the floor, and stated that he had the utmost confidence in the Civil Service Commission, but that if there was suspicion of irregularities in the conduct of examinations, he was willing to second the motion to adopt the Topham resolution, provided the City Attorney would state that the Council had the authority to take this procedure.

Chief Deputy City Attorney Robertson said that he was not prepared to give an off-hand opinion and asked for a week's delay.

Then Councilman McKenzie took up the subject and declared that he believed that the secretary and official examiner of the Civil Service Commission should take examinations, the same as other city employees, in order to determine whether they are themselves capable of holding examinations for applicants for other positions.

After which came the inspiration of Councilman Reed.

"While we are about it," declared Reed, "let's extend the demand for examinations to the members of the City Council, and determine whether they are qualified to serve as the city's lawmakers."

"Well, we were put here by 'the people'—the same as the Aqueduct Investigation Board"—replied Councilman Topham, "and the people will have to stand for us; but the secretary and examiner of the Civil Service Commission are appointees, and as such should be subject to examinations, the same as those they examine for other positions."

The Council finally decided to postpone action on the resolution for one week, in order to get the City Attorney's opinion as to its powers.

Monkey Business.

Health Commissioner Powers requested of the City Council yesterday permission to sell two monkeys that had been secured for experimental purposes. The Council, sitting in solemn session, decided that these two monkeys shall be turned over to the Park Commission.

Pay Their Own Money.

President Hubbard and Commissioner Humphreys of the Board of Public Works reached into their pockets yesterday and produced $3 each to pay the damages caused by a street sprinkler, running his vehicle into an automobile and causing that much damage. They decided that the street sprinkler couldn't afford to pay the claim out of his own wages, and that they would personally pay the amount and wipe it off the records.

Rates for Straphangers?

Councilman Reed introduced a resolution in the Council yesterday asking the Board of Public Utilities to notify all transportation companies rendering passenger service within the city limits to provide adequate accommodation and cars for the convenience of the people without excessive crowding, and requesting the board in fixing rates for passenger transportation for the ensuing year to fix the fare to be paid by passengers who are compelled to ride standing at a lower rate than is paid by passengers who are provided with seats.

This was referred to the Public Welfare Committee for consideration on Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Councilmen Reed, Topham, Whiffen and McKenzie made speeches in favor of this action.

May Serve Your Guests.

Whether the proposed creation of a "dry" district at San Pedro and Wilmington would prevent one serving liquors to guests in his own home has become an important issue in the campaign that is in progress at the harbor towns. When the request of the Harbor Dry Zone League that the Council outline the provisions of the proposed ordinance, should these towns decide in favor of a "dry" regime, reached the Council yesterday, Chief Deputy City Attorney Robertson answered the inquiries in regard to the above question by stating that the same provisions would apply to these towns as now apply to other sections of the city outside of the saloon zone, and that liquors could be bought within the liquor zone and taken to homes for use at San Pedro and Wilmington, the same as anywhere else in the city.

Efforts were made by advocates of each side of the "dry" zone question to have the Council declare whether it would consider San Pedro and Wilmington as separate territories, but discussion was shut off without a definite reply being given.

City Hall Brevities.

The City Council instructed the City Engineer yesterday to prepare the plans for the proposed tunnel from Sunset boulevard to Castelar street.

An ordinance passed by the Council yesterday provides that railings must be used on hanging staging when used on any building more than two stories high.

An appropriation of $1000 was made by the Council yesterday for the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, and an invitation is to be extended to this Congress to visit Los Angeles and this harbor next month when it takes a trip along the Atlantic seaboard as far as Galveston.

Only one building will be affected by the proposed widening of Fifth street, between Spring and Broadway. Private property has been used for street purposes there for years, and the only building that will have to be removed by the proposed change is that at the northwest corner of Fifth and Spring streets. The ordinance of intention to widen the street was passed by the Council yesterday.

Chief of Police Sebastian has recommended that Mrs. Nellie Tarbell of No. 674 West Thirty-fifth street be appointed emergency police woman. She and Mrs. A. L. Parker of No. 1451 Ingraham street were the only women to pass the civil service examination.

The City Council unanimously adopted the freight-carrying franchise for the Pacific Electric lines east of Main street yesterday. The franchise is made revocable on six months' notice. Consideration of this ordinance has been in progress for many months. The company is allowed to operate unlimited trains east of Alameda street, but is restricted to three-car trains west of that street.

One of the most important street improvements provided for by ordinances passed by the Council yesterday is that of Compton avenue, which is to be improved from Twentieth to Thirty-eighth streets.

The Council adopted yesterday an ordinance which restricts the area of mezzanine floors to one-third the area of floor space on the ground floor.

Property owners on Moneta avenue want a municipal conduit constructed in that street of sufficient capacity to carry the police, fire and ornamental lighting system wires and the aqueduct power distribution wires. An estimate was presented to the City Council yesterday showing that this conduit would cost approximately $4 a foot.

With only the dissenting vote of Councilman Reed, who objected because the indeterminate clause was not included, the City Council voted yesterday to award to Henry M. Dennison a street railway franchise for Main street, from Slauson avenue to Manchester avenue. The Los Angeles Railway Corporation is to extend its line on this route within the ensuing three years.

The City Council gave its approval yesterday to the contract for the employment of Franklin D. Howell as engineer for the proposed municipal railroad to the harbor, at a salary of $500 a month, for three months.

Bronson avenue was declared a boulevard by the Council yesterday, despite the Mayor's veto. This will shut off the heavy traffic which has made the dust an unbearable nuisance to residents. It was asserted that from 400 to 500 teams a day passed over this street hauling rock and gravel from the Hollywood hills.

The Board of Public Works yesterday awarded to Walter Overell the contract for the paving of East Seventh street from Boyle avenue to Utah street. This is a part of the plan to make of Stephenson avenue a main improved highway to the Whittier and La Habra districts.

SHE'S HER OWN WORST ENEMY?

FRIENDS OF CHURCH MEMBER QUESTION SANITY.

Woman Demands Jury Trial and Engages Attorney to Plead Her Cause—Alleged Irrational Acts Are Recounted—City Auditor One of Complainants.

The trial of Miss Elizabeth Thompson for insanity before a jury in Judge Cole's court yesterday was conducted with more than the usual solemnity, the complainants being members of the official board of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and the witnesses mostly members of the congregation.

Miss Thompson first appeared before the Examining Board at the County Hospital. The complaint was signed by Dr. Charles E. Locke, pastor of the church; W. H. Fisher and John S. Myers. It was stated that the official board of the First Methodist Episcopal Church believed her mind disordered and that she is dangerous to herself and to the members of the congregation. It is desired to have her properly cared for.

Miss Thompson asked for a jury trial and engaged Attorney Grant to represent her. Assistant District Attorney Hammon conducted the prosecution yesterday. It is alleged she made preposterous charges against a clergyman and an undertaker's assistant; threatened to kill herself, and carried a revolver.

Mrs. Mary Taylor told how sitting in Central Square one day two men passed by carrying guns. Miss Thompson drew a revolver from her bag and said she would like to shoot with them. She said she was going to destroy herself in the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Fred I. Pierce of Pierce Bros. testified she had been employed at their undertaking establishment for four years as an embalmer. He spoke of her vagaries and said one day she sent for him. He found her in her room and she excitedly declared if a certain employee did not mend his ways she would blow up the place.

Pierce said he backed off to the bureau, and discovered a revolver in a drawer.

"It was no place for me," he said, "and I got out." Later she was dismissed.

Witnesses who will testify today are: S. P. Mulford, F. J. Wheat, City Auditor Myers, Mrs. Annie E. Fellows, D. M. Mettler, Sadie Bartram, Mrs. Julia Arthur, W. H. Fisher and Dr. Charles E. Locke. The medical experts at the hearing yesterday were Dr. Ross Moore and Dr. Eliot Alden.

TO BE READJUSTED.

CORPORATION NEEDS FIXING.

Quick action was taken yesterday in the suit brought by R. C. Reilly, J. W. Sheely, M. F. Schmitt and B. Howe Dupignac, stockholders, against the American Merchants' Syndicate. Following the filing of the complaint, the defendants filed their answer, admitting the allegations in the main—that the affairs of the concern need readjustment. Judge Willis appointed George M. Babcock as receiver. He furnished bond for $50,000.

The syndicate is a mutual wholesale grocery corporation, the stockholders including 2500 retail grocers of this city, San Francisco and San Diego. The principal office is at No. 236 South Los Angeles street. J. F. Paulding is president.

The appointment of a receiver was asked to protect stockholders and creditors. President Paulding said the action was brought to effect a readjustment. It may require six months to put things in shape.

Reilly owns 5000 shares valued at $1 a share; Sheely, 1000; Schmitt, 17,000, and Dupignac, 17,000 shares. The capital stock is $1,000,000, and according to the complaint about one-quarter of the stock has been subscribed. Assets which can be realized are named at $220,000. There is also an obligation of a contract with the Corcoran Sugar Company representing $270,000. About $11,000 on this has been paid.

The plaintiffs assert if the contract is carried out it will bring 67 per cent. of the capital stock of the Corcoran Sugar Company and $170,000 worth of its bonds. It is stated that the syndicate has negotiated for the sale of the contract at a profit of $100,000.

HE'S FRIEND IN NEED.

TAKES PENNILESS WANDERER IN

A year ago Cyrus L. Vandervoort was a wanderer, practically penniless and friendless. When his father died provision had been made for him in the shape of an income which, however, he did not receive. Judge Rives appointed John S. Steely, an attorney, Vandervoort's guardian yesterday. Steely told the court Vandervoort has considerable cash which was obtained during litigation begun after the wanderer met a Good Samaritan and told his story. The friend in need was Eugene G. Vestal, president of the National Phosphate Company, who sent Vandervoort to Steely.

According to the testimony, Vandervoort turned over to one sister a deed covering a quarter interest in another sister's estate. He brought suit but before the case came to trial, a settlement was effected, and Vandervoort received $3250. Suit is pending to recover about $5000 which Vandervoort alleges is due him.

FIRST TIME IN COURT.

TEST OF LIABILITIES ACT.

A non-suit granted by Judge Wood yesterday in the action brought by George Ward against the Palace Market Company to recover damages for the loss of two fingers in a meat-chopping machine, presented the Employers' Liability Act for the first time in a local trial. Ward was an employee of the company and it appeared from his evidence that he had had a long experience in the work and further that at the time of the accident, he used his hand to push down the meat instead of a hammer or other tool. He alleged the company was negligent.

Formerly the law was that if an employee was contributory in any degree it was a complete bar to recovery of damages. Under the Employers' Liability Act it is held that contributory negligence shall not be a bar, except when it can be said that the employer's negligence was gross and the employee's negligence slight in comparison. The company won in this case.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE.

INCIDENT WINS DECREE.

That the health of Mrs. William H. Lewis was jeopardized by the refusal of her husband to allow her to see their child, was made apparent in the divorce action she brought on the ground of desertion and non-support. It was tried by Judge Monroe yesterday.

Lewis was successfully contesting the suit when Dr. H. G. McNeil went on the stand. It was on his advice that Mrs. Lewis went north for her health. On her return the incident of the child occurred.

On the showing made, Judge Monroe granted Mrs. Lewis a decree, gave her the custody of the child and ordered Lewis to pay $10 a week for the support of Mrs. Lewis and the child. Lewis is in the automobile business.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CONDEMNATION SUIT. A condemnation suit filed by the city yesterday for the widening of Pacific avenue from Olive street to the Wilmington and San Pedro road is another leg in the construction of the harbor boulevard. The defendants are George H. Peck, the heirs of the Sepulveda estate, the Pacific Electric Railway and the United States Mortgage and Trust Company.

ONCE JOCKEY. The identity of Charles A. de la Osa as the famous jockey whose exploits on the turf are history, was made known in Judge Murray's court yesterday when Osa took the stand in his suit against the Amestoy Estate Company to quiet title to 245 acres in the Rancho El Encino. Osa left home at an early age and from working around the stables began to exercise the horses and finally was tried out in a race. He made good and for years—until he became too heavy—he raced some of the best horses in this country and abroad.

BARKER ESTATE.—Mrs. Nancy A. Barker, widow of Obadiah T. Barker, who died July 28 last, petitioned yesterday for letters of administration on his estate. Among the assets are 10,366 shares of stock of the Central Oil Company. Real estate listed includes a lot at First and Los Angeles streets, and land on Boyle Heights. The heirs are the widow, the sons, W. A. Barker and Charles H. Barker, of the firm of Barker Bros., and Mary A. Barker, a daughter. Barker left no will.

FALSE ARREST. Alleging he was falsely charged with having forged the name of the Ord Mountain Company and A. K. Hasson as secretary, T. Nestor Hasson filed suit against S. T. Stagg yesterday for $50,000. Based on the complaint filed by Stagg, Hasson was arrested and placed under $500 bail by Justice Young, but when the case came up May 9 last, it was dismissed. He alleges he was injured in his person and credit by the alleged malicious proceedings.

DAMAGE SUIT. Minnie Williamson asks $5400 damages from Dr. O. M. Justice and Dr. W. R. Severson for an alleged negligent operation, as a result of which, she avers in her complaint, portion of a needle two inches long was left in the abdomen after the operation. The operation was held October 16, 1911. The needle caused great pain, it is alleged, and gradually worked through the skin, requiring a second operation to remove it.

INCORPORATIONS. West Coast Trading Company, incorporators, David Mendelsohn, Edward Mendelsohn, Samuel Silverman, Benjamin S. Levin and Manny S. Mendelsohn, capital stock, $25,000, subscribed, $500; Kingstone Development Company, incorporators, Roi King, H. G. Peet, U. S. Hinton, J. B. Alexander, A. W. Allen, Thaddeus Phillip and E. W. Gebauer, capital stock, $500,000, subscribed, $25; California Lithia Springs Company, incorporators, Ehrman Grigsby, Alfred F. MacDonald and J. S. Cooper, capital stock, $25,000, subscribed, $300; Young & McCallister, (Inc.) incorporators, Frederick A. Young, A. B. McCallister, L. D. Meldrum, capital stock, $50,000, subscribed, $100.

STOCKHOLDER PROTESTS. Alleging that the Hughes Manufacturing and Lumber Company proposes to put in new machinery and tools at a cost of $50,000, and that the present equipment is reasonably fit, Elmer E. Cole, a stockholder, asked the court Monday for an injunction restraining the directors from dismantling and wrecking the plant, and financing the purchase by an assessment on stock. An accounting is also sought by Cole, who alleges that former officers of the company have advanced money from the funds and assets to other corporations, notably the Gazelle Manufacturing Company and the Republic of Mexico Hardwood Lumber Company.

HOLDER WILL. The will of Francis T. Holder, covering the property he owned in this county, was probated by Judge Rives yesterday. Holder, who was president of the Alexander Smith Company of Yonkers, N. J., left a California estate of $223,862.50. He died at Yonkers, August 22, last, and under his will, comprising the entire estate, the widow, Elizabeth W. Holder, receives $200,000, and his daughter, by a former wife, Mrs. Eva L. Peene, $700,000, out of the total estate. Holder's home place on Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, is valued at $40,000. The proceeding yesterday was handled by Attorney Gibbs, representing the petitioners, John H. Coyne and Eugene C. Clark.

CONDEMNATION SUIT. The Postal Telephone and Telegraph Company, which is seeking service between this city and San Francisco on the coast line, filed suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad and the Southern Pacific Branch Railway Company, yesterday to condemn a right of way through this county. The profile map attached to the complaint shows the proposed route from the Ventura county line to Saugus.

Don't forget your cigars for Thanksgiving. We have your favorite brands of cigars, cigarettes or tobacco.

"This Is the First Time in My Life That I Have Paid Less Than $20.00 for An Overcoat!"

Said a man who had just bought one of the overcoats with cap to match for $14.50.

"And," he continued, "I can't see any difference between this and the $20 coats and the cap is worth $1.00 if it's worth a cent!"

The man saw no difference because there was none! The coat he had chosen was in one of the new rough fabrics—we had shown him tweeds, cheviots and meltons in the Fall shades of brown, tan, blue, Oxfords, grays and mottled mixtures—all wool, warm and comfortable without weight. It had been rain proofed by the Priestley process and was also cold and wind proof. Full length, single breasted, semi-lined, with natural shoulders, belted back and convertible collar. Tailoring, fabric and style all you could ask!

Men's $5 Trousers at $2.65

All wool tweed, in Oxford gray—a color that will harmonize with almost any coat. Perfectly tailored in the very latest fall fashion; semi-peg, fitting snugly at waist and over hips; welted seams, belt straps and side buckles. You'll want not less than two pairs when you see these big values!

Trousers of the same style and quality also in brown, tan and gray worsteds and cheviots, at the same price.

All Wool Sweaters $3.50

Men's Night Shirts $1.15

These have been made up especially for our Men's Store, of white Daisy Cloth, in what is known as the Hotel Cut—extra large, they are full 60 inches long and the width is in proportion. (Main Floor.)

Wants Railway Extension.

Emmet H. Wilson, acting on behalf of a committee of citizens in the southwestern part of the city, made application to the Council yesterday for a street railway franchise on Vernon avenue, from Dalton avenue to the westerly city limits. This is proposed as a continuation of the Dalton-avenue line, and is designed to serve a territory of nine blocks in width, lying between two existing car lines. It would be about a mile long. The application was referred to the Board of Public Utilities. The committee is negotiating with the Los Angeles Railway Corporation for an agreement to make the proposed extension.

Falls to Convict.

Rudolph von Bachelle, manager of the Standard Homeopathic Pharmacy, No. 316 South Broadway, in Police Judge Chambers's court, cleared himself yesterday of the charge preferred against him by J. J. Egan, representative of the State Bureau of Labor Statistics, of having violated the State labor law by working C. D. DeMerrit, a clerk, more than sixty hours in six consecutive days. Von Bachelle proved to the satisfaction of the court that DeMerrit was employed only fifty-eight hours.
